The strength, for making the strong team players to shine under the Golden Arches lies in the People Practice and Development Program.

HR practices:

The field of HRM comes into existence in the result of these questions:

- How did people come to be employees in their organization?
- How were they selected?
- Why do they come to work on regular basis?
- How do they know what to do on their jobs?
- How does management know if the employees are performing adequately?
- And if they are not, what can be done about it?
- Will today employees be adequately prepared for the technologically advanced work the organization will require of them in the years ahead?
- What is the compensation process?

The HR department of McDonald's fulfills all the requirement of these questions in the true sense of the meaning. As HR department deals with people McDonald's strongly believe in well being of people because it is a known quotation that:

"If you take over the liabilities of your employees they will take yours"

The Journal of the Armed Forces ,1879 Policing in an Age of Austerity Michael Brogden, Graham Ellison, 2013 In the current context of financial retrenchment on public sector budgets public policing in England and Wales today faces the prospect of dramatic change. While the question of role and function has been the bedrock of classical sociological theorizing on police this book grounds such theorising in explicating how British policing has arisen through a schismatic process why it is in a present mess and what it should be doing in the future. The central themes of this critical text are An analysis of the congeries of roles and functions that our public police in England and Wales currently undertake and how they got there. An examination of the effect of arbitrary reduction in police services including a reading of policing politics in an age of austerity. A comparative critique of the British Brand of Policing. The development of a normative manifesto for the future of British Policing. This book will be essential for reading for students researchers and academics alike in criminology police studies and public and social policy.
