Resources in Education, 2001      The ^AGuide to Community Preventive Services Task Force on Community Preventive Services, 2005-02-17 This well organized clearly written text will become the gold standard for evidence based public health. It will serve as a primary resource for helping to improve health and prevent disease whether in states communities local organizations healthcare organizations worksites or schools. In an entirely systematic way it examines the effectiveness economic efficiency and feasibility of interventions to combat such risky behaviors as tobacco use physical inactivity and violence to reduce the impact of specific conditions such as cancer diabetes vaccine preventable diseases and motor vehicle injuries and to address social determinants of health such as education housing and access to care      Research in Education, 1972      WHO operational handbook on tuberculosis. Module 1 World Health Organization, 2024-09-02 This handbook provides practical advice on how to implement the WHO recommendations on TPT at the scale needed to achieve national and global impact and complements the second edition of the WHO guidelines on TPT being released concomitantly. It covers critical steps in the programmatic management of TPT following the cascade of preventive care identifying individuals at highest risk screening and ruling out TB disease testing for infection choosing the best suited treatment regimen managing adverse events supporting adherence and monitoring programmatic performance The dosage schedules for TPT regimens have been completely redone since the first edition of the handbook and examples from country and partner interventions have been included The annexes include useful resources for advocacy and implementation such as returns on investment from screening and preventive treatment sample text for messaging considerations for coordination and budgeting for national strategic planning and resource mobilization and monitoring tools Although its focus is on high TB and HIV burden settings the advice in the handbook is also relevant for other contexts This book is intended to guide policy makers within ministries of health and other institutions and stakeholders involved in health care including HIV and TB programme managers at national subnational and district levels health workers and staff of development and technical agencies nongovernmental organizations as well as civil society and community based organizations Australian Master Tax
