

FRANKENSTEIN – READING GUIDE

Read from pages 4-34 and answer the following questions.

(Original Text: Letter 1 - Chapter 3)

1. Frankenstein is a frame story; the story of Frankenstein is actually told through the diary of Robert Walton. Who is Robert Walton? How does he encounter Victor Frankenstein? Why does Frankenstein want to tell Walton his life story?

An explorer and Margaret's brother. Victor's sled floated to them in the night and they saved him because he was in bad shape. Victor tells his life story so Walton doesn't get hurt looking for answers like he did.

2. Who is Henry Clerval? Who is Elizabeth Lavenza?

Elizabeth is his sister. She was the biological daughter of a nobleman who passed. Henry is Victor's close friend that he met in Geneva.

3. Why is it important when lightning strikes the tree?

It inspires Walton's interests in natural science

4. What request does Victor's mother make when she gets sick?

She wanted her children to marry each other and wanted Elizabeth to be a mother to her younger children.

5. When Victor goes to Ingolstadt, who are his two professors? What is his reaction with each one?

Monsieur Krempe, he respected him but disliked him because he believed what he was studying was nonsense. Monsieur Waldman, he believed he was different. He found a good friend in him.

6. Describe Victor's life during the time he is working on his big experiment?

Since he spent so much time alone, he began to get sick and nervous and lost his ability to speak.

7. Describe the night Victor finishes his experiment. How does his mindset change before and after his work is completed?

He believed that his dream had become a nightmare because what he created was a nightmare. He couldn't look at him because he was terrified.

8. Who does Victor run into on the streets of Ingolstadt? What happens to Victor when they return back to his home? Once he recovers, what does this person ask him to do?

conversation about the fire we're carrying and how to keep it from burning us all A Mary Shelley Chronology M. Garrett, 2001-12-17 A Mary Shelley Chronology covers in detail the three main stages of her extraordinary life: her childhood as daughter of two of the best known radical writers of their age, Mary Wollstonecraft and William Godwin; the travels, losses, tensions, and creative achievement of her time with Percy Bysshe Shelley from 1814 and her long widowhood from 1822 and her later works. This chronology follows all these experiences and activities, the genesis and publication history of her writings, her travels, friendships, and intimate relationships with several other major figures of the Romantic period.

Generative Artificial Intelligence Empowered Learning Mahmoud Elkhodr, Ergun Gide, 2025-06-23 This book explores the integration of Generative Artificial Intelligence (GenAI) such as ChatGPT into educational practices and research methodologies. With the potential to transform traditional learning environments, this book addresses both the opportunities and challenges that come with leveraging GenAI for enhancing teaching and learning experiences. This comprehensive guide delves into multiple aspects of GenAI in education. It covers critical topics such as project-based learning (PBL), personalized learning through AI, AI-driven student assessment, and the role of AI in special education. Furthermore, it examines ethical considerations, the readiness of students and teachers for AI technologies, and case studies on AI's impact on student outcomes. With insights from educators, researchers, and practitioners from around the globe, the book provides a balanced perspective on both theoretical frameworks and practical implementation of GenAI technologies. Ideal for educators, researchers, and policymakers, this book serves as a practical resource for those looking to effectively integrate AI into their pedagogical and research efforts. It is an essential reference for anyone interested in staying at the forefront of educational innovation and exploring the future possibilities of AI-empowered learning.

Understanding the Novel Ruth Elizabeth Traugher Reeves, 1963 Resources in Education, 1995 Undermined in Coal Country Bill Conlogue, 2017-10-15 A study of lives and landscapes in Pennsylvania's Lackawanna Valley and what the region's history of mining reveals about human folly and endeavor. The Chronicle of Higher Education: Deep mining ended decades ago in Pennsylvania's Lackawanna Valley. The barons who made their fortunes have moved on. Low wages and high unemployment haunt the area, and the people left behind wonder whether to stay or seek their fortunes elsewhere. Bill Conlogue explores how two overlapping coal-country landscapes, Scranton, Pennsylvania, and Marywood University, have coped with the devastating aftermath of mining. Examining the far-reaching environmental effects of mining, this beautifully written book asks bigger questions about what it means to influence a landscape to this extent and then to live in it. In prose rivaling that of Annie Dillard and John McPhee, Conlogue argues that if we are serious about solving environmental problems, if we are serious about knowing where we are and what happens there, we need to attend closely to all places—that is, to attend to the world in a cold, dark, and disorienting universe. Unearthing new ways of thinking about place, pedagogy, and the environment, this meditative text reveals that place is inherently unstable.

Do I really have to teach reading? This is the question many teachers of adolescents are asking wondering how they can possibly add a new element to an already overloaded curriculum. And most are finding that the answer is yes. If they want their students to learn complex new concepts in different disciplines they often have to help their students become better readers. Building on the experiences gained in her own language arts classroom as well as those of colleagues in different disciplines Cris Tovani author of I Read It but I Don't Get It takes on the challenge of helping students apply reading comprehension strategies in any subject. In Do I Really Have to Teach Reading Cris shows how teachers can expand on their content expertise to provide instruction students need to understand specific technical and narrative texts. The book includes examples of how teachers can model their reading process for students ideas for supplementing and enhancing the use of required textbooks detailed descriptions of specific strategies taught in context stories from different high school classrooms to show how reading instruction varies according to content samples of student work including both struggling readers and college bound seniors a variety of comprehension constructors guides designed to help students recognize and capture their thinking in writing while reading guidance on assessing students tips for balancing content and reading instruction. Cris's humor honesty and willingness to share her own struggles as a teacher make this a unique take on content reading instruction that will be valuable to reading teachers as well as content specialists.
