Writing from the Margins Catriona Ryan, 2015-06-18 The Irish short story tradition occupies a unique space in world literature Rooted in an ancient oral storytelling culture the Irish short story has undergone numerous transitions from 19th century Anglo Irish writers such as William Carleton through to the 20th century's groundbreaking impact of George Moore's The Untilled Field George Moore's work inspired the next generation of Irish Catholic writers such as Joyce Frank O'Connor and Benedict Kiely who foregrounded the backbone of the Border States in the Work of Tom Mac Intyre Catriona Ryan, 2012-01-17 This work analyses the prose and drama of the Irish writer Tom Mac Intyre and the concept of paleo postmodernism It examines how Mac Intyre balances traditional themes with experimentation which in the Irish literary canon is unusual This book argues that Mac Intyre's position in the Irish literary canon is an idiosyncratic one in that he combines two contrary aspects of Irish literature between what Beckett terms as the Yeatsian antiquarians who valorize the Victorian Gael and the others whose aesthetic involves a European influenced breakdown of the object which is associated with Beckett Mac Intyre's experimentation involves a breakdown of the object in order to uncover an unconscious Irish mythological and linguistic space in language His approach to language experimentation is Yeatsian and this is what the author terms as paleo postmodern Thus the project considers how Mac Intyre incorporates Yeatsian revivalism with postmodern deconstruction in his drama and short stories Per musi ,2000
