37 vols. Wanting vol. 33-35 Thomas Carlyle,1891      The Ecology of the Performance Art Process Angela

Viora,2025-02-25 This book offers a new dynamic and ecological perspective to analyse the process of performance art namely what occurs during the unfolding of a piece exploring the essence of its happening through the forces at play The author's aim is to provide a deeper understanding of performance art which the existing scholarship acknowledges as an art form that actively engages with the world Much work has been done on the transformative effects of performance art on the artists and the audiences and its impact on society over time The author takes this perspective further by asking how does this transformation happen Little work exists on exploring the forces and dynamics occurring while a performance is developing neither before nor after but during it This is the first and main gap that this book fills given the importance of process and processuality as the characterising features of this art form By filling this gap this book offers a new way to understand performances and their impact in the world and over time as well as providing practitioners with tools for performing and designing their works starting from the process rather than focusing on the outcomes This book studies the matrix of the performance art process by conceiving it as an ecosystem in which all the elements at play animate and inanimate are agentic and intertwine in relationships of mutual influence and exchange This book will be useful for scholars and practitioners of performance art and performance studies practice as research PaR visual culture art history and philosophy especially phenomenology      Audio-visual Guide ,1952      The Literary Guide and Rationalist Review ,1925

Resources in Education ,1997-10      History of Tofu and Tofu Products (965 CE to 2013) William Shurtleff,Akiko Aoyagi,2013-05      Mark Dion Ruth Erickson,2017-01-01 A comprehensive survey of American artist Mark Dion examining three decades of his critically engaged practice interrogating our relationship with nature The first book in two decades to consider the entire oeuvre of Mark Dion b 1961 this volume examines thirty years of the American artist's pioneering inquiries into how we collect interpret and display nature Part of a generation of artists expanding institutional critique in the 1990s Dion adopted the methods of the archaeologist or the natural history museum juxtaposing natural objects taxidermy books and more to reorganize the natural and the manmade in poetic witty ways These sculptures installations and interventions offer novel approaches to questioning institutional power which he sees as connected to the control and representation of nature Generously illustrated this publication introduces new insights and features more than seventy five artworks Essays address topics ranging from Dion's ecological activism to his loving critique of museums A diverse group of contributors explores his work as a teacher his public artworks such as Neukom Vivarium in Seattle and his intricate curiosity cabinets installed throughout the world They reveal how Dion's practice and formal investigations which are rooted in history connect to contemporary questions of disciplinary boundaries and the acquisition of knowledge in the age of the Anthropocene

Atlas of Islamic History Peter Sluglett, Andrew Currie, 2015-01-30 This Atlas provides the main outlines of Islamic history from the immediate pre-Islamic period until the end of 1920 that is before most parts of the Muslim world became sovereign nation states Each map is accompanied by a text that contextualises explains and expands upon the map and are fully cross referenced All of the maps are in full colour 18 of them are double page spreads and 25 are single page layouts This is an atlas of Islamic not simply Arab or Middle Eastern history hence it covers the entire Muslim world including Spain North West and East Africa the Indian sub continent Central Asia and South East Asia The maps are not static in that they show transitions within the historical period to which they refer for instance the stages of the three contemporaneous Umayyad Fatimid and Abbasid caliphates on Map 10 or the progress of the Mongol invasions and the formation of the various separate Mongol khanates between 1200 and 1300 on Map 21 Using the most up to date cartographic and innovative design techniques the maps break new ground in illuminating the history of Islam Brought right up to date with the addition of a Postscript detailing The Islamic World since c 1900 a Chronology from 500 BCE to 2014 and additional endpaper maps illustrating The Spread of Islam through the Ages and The Islamic World in the 21st Century the Atlas of Islamic History is an essential reference work and an invaluable textbook for undergraduates studying Islamic history as well as those with an interest in Asian History Middle East History and World History more broadly

The Dead City Paul Dobraszczyk, 2017-06-30 The Dead City unearths meanings from such depictions of ruination and decay looking at representations of both thriving cities and ones which are struggling abandoned or simply in transition It reveals that ruination presents a complex opportunity to envision new futures for a city whether that is by rewriting its past or throwing off old assumptions and proposing radical change Seen in a certain light for example urban ruin and decay are a challenge to capitalist narratives of unbounded progress They can equally imply that power structures thought to be deeply ingrained are temporary contingent and even fragile Examining ruins in Chernobyl Detroit London Manchester and Varosha this book demonstrates that how we discuss and depict urban decline is intimately connected to the histories economic forces power structures and communities of a given city as well as to conflicting visions for its future

Passionate Histories Frances Peters-Little, Ann Curthoys, John Docker, 2010-09-01 This book examines the emotional engagements of both Indigenous and Non Indigenous people with Indigenous history The contributors are a mix of Indigenous and Non Indigenous scholars who in different ways examine how the past lives on in the present as myth memory and history Each chapter throws fresh light on an aspect of history making by or about Indigenous people such as the extent of massacres on the frontier the myth of Aboriginal male idleness the controversy over Flynn of the Inland the meaning of the Referendum of 1967 and the policy and practice of Indigenous child removal
