Hard Times Leadership In America:

Hard Times Barbara Kellerman, 2014-10-15 Leadership has never played a more prominent role in America's national discourse and yet our opinions of leaders are at all time lows Private sector leaders are widely seen as greedy to the point of being corrupt Public sector leaders are viewed as incompetent to the point of being inept And levels of trust in government have plummeted As the title of this book conveys leaders in America are experiencing hard times Barbara Kellerman argues that we focus on leaders and even on followers while ignoring an essential element of leadership context This book is a corrective It enables leaders to track the terrain that they must navigate in order to create change Rather than a handy dandy manual on what to do and how to do it Hard Times is structured as a checklist Twenty four brief sections cover key aspects of the American landscape They trace evolutions and revolutions that have revised our norms transformed our populations and institutions and shifted our culture Kellerman's crash course on context reveals how significant it is to leadership Clearer still is the fact that leadership is more difficult than it has ever been It is context that explains why leadership is so fraught with frustration And it is context that makes evident why leadership will be better exercised if it is better understood Calling out patterns that emerge from the checklist Kellerman challenges leaders to do better This fascinating read will change the way that all of us think about leadership while compelling us to consider what it means for our future

The Fog of Reform George A. Goens, 2016-04-06 American public education has been on a merry go round of change for the past 40 years We made something that is complex by its very nature into a strangled enterprise that is becoming even more knotty and complicated A fog of reform is created obscuring issues and deflecting our focus from the real mission of schools We need to emphasize ideals and principles in providing an education for our children in a caring and creative way This book is about the fog of reform and getting back the ideal of a place called school The sections describe a new metaphor and approach to change and examine the forces and ideals that can bring about the schools children need Principles and values transform organizations not mandates and fear Recipes for making schools into caring places for children do not exist Great schools must be created one by one Numbers don't create change people and passion do Unless we focus on the moral imperative of educating children we will fail them and possibly slide into an ethical quagmire
