Ray & Joan Lisa Napoli, 2016-11-15 The movie The Founder starring Michael Keaton focused the spotlight on Ray Kroc the man who amassed a fortune as the chairman of McDonald s But what about his wife Joan the woman who became famous for giving away his fortune Lisa Napoli tells the fascinating story behind the historic couple Ray

Joan is a quintessentially American tale of corporate intrigue and private passion a struggling Mad Men era salesman with a vision for a fast food franchise that would become one of the world's most enduring brands and a beautiful woman willing to risk her marriage and her reputation to promote controversial causes that touched her deeply Ray Kroc was peddling franchises around the country for a fledgling hamburger stand in the 1950s McDonald's it was called when he entered a St Paul supper club and encountered a beautiful young piano player who would change his life forever The attraction between Ray and Joan was instantaneous and instantly problematic Yet even the fact that both were married to other people couldn't derail their roller coaster of a romance To the outside world Ray and Joan were happy enormously rich and giving But privately Joan was growing troubled over Ray's temper and dark secret something she was reluctant to publicly reveal Those close to them compared their relationship to that of Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton And yet this volatility paved the way for Joan's transformation into one of the greatest philanthropists of our time A force in the peace movement she produced activist films books and music and ultimately gave away billions of dollars including landmark gifts to the Salvation Army and NPR Together the two stories form a compelling portrait of the twentieth century a story of big business big love and big giving

Silverstein, John Butman, 2006-05-04 The essential follow up to the BusinessWeek bestseller Trading Up A BMW in a Costco parking lot A working class family with a 50 inch plasma TV What's going on in the mind of the new consumer Today's consumers can seem impossible to understand and even harder to please For instance the average mall shopper will spend about 100 then leave when she hits that limit She'll probably buy shoes rather than clothing because she doesn't want to think about her dress size And the store most likely to get her money isn't the one with the nicest display or the deepest discounts it's the one closest to her parking spot In his consulting with dozens of leading companies Michael J Silverstein has interviewed thousands of customers extracting fascinating patterns about what really drives their purchase decisions His first book the acclaimed bestseller Trading Up has taught a generation of marketers about the new luxury phenomenon and why consumers will happily pay a steep premium for goods and services that are emotionally satisfying from golf clubs to bathroom fixtures to beauty products But Trading Up revealed only part of the story of the new consumer The same middle class people who are happily trading up at Victoria's Secret and Panera are going on treasure hunts at Costco and Home Depot And they are often getting as much emotional satisfaction in the discount stores as in the luxury stores TREASURE HUNT shows how even the most mundane shopping for things like paper towels and pet food has become an adventure rather than a tedious chore In just about every category both the high end and the low end are growing and innovation rich Many middle class consumers gladly spend 5 a day for a Starbucks venti latte others spend forty cents a day on home brewed coffee feel good about their frugality and save up the difference to buy Apple's newest Nano TREASURE HUNT explains the success of companies as diverse as Dollar General H E Butt eBay Commerce Bank and Tchibo But beware in our bifurcated global market businesses need a clear strategy for aiming high or low while avoiding the treacherous middle where so many have recently stumbled If your offering isn't exciting enough to inspire trading up but not enough of a bargain to satisfy the treasure hunters you'll have no emotional connection with your target audience And then as many fallen companies have discovered your tried and true marketing strategies will go into a severe stall TREASURE HUNT takes us into the homes of real people making real decisions and into the CEO's offices of innovative companies finding new ways to accommodate them Written with the same flair empathy and intelligence that made Trading Up an instant classic this is an essential guide to the moods and habits of the constantly changing consumer The Smarter Organization Michael E. McGill, John W.

Slocum, 1994-10-07 In The Smarter Organization based on years of hands-on work with some of the world's most successful corporations McGill and Slocum will show you how to make the idea of the learning organization become a practical reality in your company Drawing upon real life examples from over 175 companies this book reveals what makes for a learning organization and how you can make your company smarter You will learn how to create a learning culture how to craft a learning strategy how to design structures and systems that promote learning how to motivate a work force through learning and how to lead a learning organization Modern Labor Economics Ronald G. Ehrenberg, Robert S. Smith, Kevin F. Hallock, 2025-05-20 Modern Labor Economics Theory and Public Policy now in its fifteenth edition continues to be the leading text for one semester courses in labor economics at the undergraduate and graduate levels It offers a thorough overview of the modern theory of labor market behavior and reveals how this theory is used to analyze public policy Designed for students who may not have extensive backgrounds in economics the text balances theoretical coverage with examples of practical policy applications that allow students to see concepts in action The authors believe that showing students the social implications of the concepts discussed in the course will enhance their motivation to learn Consequently this text presents numerous examples of policy decisions that have affected and been affected by the ever shifting labor market This new edition continues to offer the following a balance of relevant contemporary examples coverage of the current economic climate an introduction to basic methodological techniques and problems tools for review and further study This fifteenth edition presents updated data and examples throughout and offers greater coverage of monopsonistic labor markets including anti trust regulations and rulings the economics of education the gender pay gap recent developments in unions and unemployment plus new material on the work from home trend and AI Supplementary materials for students and instructors are also available

The Age of Access Jeremy Rifkin, 2001-03-05 Visionary activist and author Jeremy Rifkin exposes the real stakes of the new economy delivering the clearest summation yet of how the Internet is really changing our lives The Seattle Times Imagine waking up one day to find that virtually every activity you engage in outside your immediate family has become a paid for experience It s all part of a fundamental change taking place in the nature of business contends Jeremy Rifkin After several hundred years as the dominant organizing paradigm of civilization the traditional market system is beginning to deconstruct On the horizon looms the Age of Access an era radically different from any we have known
