Postmodernism of Resistance in Roberto Bolaño's Fiction and Poetry J. Agustín Pastén B.,2020-12 Postmodernism of Resistance in Roberto Bolaño's Fiction and Poetry examines the ways in which Bolaño employs a type of literary aesthetics that subverts traits traditionally associated with postmodernism Pastén B coins these aesthetics postmodernism of resistance and argues that this resistance stands in direct opposition to critical discourses that construe the presence of hopeless characters and marginal settings in Bolaño's works as signs of the writer's disillusionment with the political as a consequence of the defeat of the Left in Latin America Rather he contends Bolaño creates a fictional world comprised of characters and situations that paradoxically refuse to accept defeat even while displaying the scars of terrible historical events In this work Pastén B challenges some critical assumptions about Bolaño's fiction and poetry that led to decontextualized interpretations of his work and offers a singularly comprehensive investigation that synthesizes multiple perspectives of a complicated author into one text

Cosmopolitanism and Translation Esperanza Bielsa,2016-05-20 Social theories of the new cosmopolitanism have called attention to the central importance of translation in areas such as global democracy human rights and social movements but translation studies has not engaged systematically with theories of cosmopolitanism In Cosmopolitanism and Translation Esperanza Bielsa does just that by focussing on the lived experience of the cosmopolitan stranger whether a traveller migrant refugee or homecomer With reference to world literature social theory and foreign news she argues that this key figure of modernity has a central relevance in the cosmopolitanism debate In nine chapters organised into four thematic sections this book examines theories and insights on new cosmopolitanism methodological cosmopolitanism translation as the experience of the foreign the notion of cosmopolitanism as openness to others living in translation and the question of the stranger With detailed case studies centred on Bolaño Adorno and Terzani and their work Cosmopolitanism and Translation places translation at the heart of cosmopolitan theory and makes an essential contribution for students and researchers of both translation studies and social theory
