"BEHOLD THE HEART WHICH HAS SO LOVED MEN"

"That the necessity of EXPIATION or REPARATION is especially urgent to-day must be evident to everyone who considers the present plight of the world, 'seated in wickedness' (John, v. 9). The Sacred Heart of Jesus promised to St. Margaret Mary that He would reward abundantly with His graces all those who should render this honor to HIS HEART."
(Pope Pius XI-Encyclical 'Misericordissimus')

Building up the Waste Places Peter Anson, 2014-12-01 The title of this book gives a general idea of its subject matter a sideline of the nineteenth century Gothic Revival in art and literature This took the form among High Church Anglicans not only of restoring parish churches and cathedrals but also founding brotherhoods on supposedly medieval lines Olde Worlde externals such as flowing black robes shaven heads sandals and rosary beads helped to make young men forget that they were living in the midst of an industrial revolution To a large extent the whole business of building up monastic waste places was a form of escapism As the reader will discover the result was often as unreal as the twilight world pictured by Alfred Tennyson in his series of connected poems entitled Idylls of the King which appeared at intervals between 1842 and 1885 The earlier monkeries with their dim religious light and Gothic gloom described in these pages were contemporary with Anthony Trollope's Barsetshire series of novels Anson has dealt already with the revival of the religious life for men and women within the Anglican Communion in The Benedictines of Caldey 1940 The Call of the Cloister 1955 and Abbot Extraordinary 1958 In his latest book he concentrates on Father Ignatius of Jesus Abbot Aelred Carlyle and Father Hopkins each of whom tried to restore Benedictine monastic life in the post Reformation Church of England Much new material has been discovered in recent years that debunks more than one lovely legend The octogenarian author has not been afraid to disclose many facts which some readers may feel ought to have been kept hidden for they are not exactly edifying The entire book might be summed up in Lord Byron's words 'Tis strange but true for truth is always stranger than fiction' Meditations on the Sacred Heart Joseph McDonnell, 2015-07-04 Excerpt from Meditations on the Sacred Heart Commentary Meditations on the Devotion of the First Fridays the Apostleship of Prayer the Holy Hour N B The Meditations Examens and Prayers given here may also with great profit Be used as a Novena for the Feast of the Sacred Heart or at other times of the year About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
