Carolina Moon Nora Roberts, 2012-12-04 1 New York Times bestselling author Nora Roberts presents a novel of redemption and suspense as a woman haunted by the unsolved murder of her childhood friend returns to her small South Carolina hometown Tory Bodeen grew up in a run down house where her father ruled with an iron fist and a leather belt and where her dreams and talents had no room to flourish Her one escape was her neighbor Hope who lived in the big house just a short skip away and whose friendship allowed Tory to be something she wasn t allowed to be at home a child Then Hope was brutally murdered and everything fell apart Now as she returns to Progress with plans to settle in and open a stylish home design shop Tory is determined to find a measure of peace and free herself from the haunting visions of the past As she forges a new bond with Cade Lavelle Hope s older brother and the heir to the family fortune she isn t sure whether the tragic loss they share will unite them or drive them apart But she is willing to open her heart just a little and try But living so close to those unhappy memories will be more difficult and frightening than Tory could ever have expected Because Hope s murderer is nearby as well Roberts may have achieved her personal best in this tense Southern Gothic As atmospheric and unsettling as a Tennessee Williams play This is romantic drama at its best Publishers Weekly starred review Joseph Young, 2022-07-05 AMETHYST By Joseph Young AMETHYST is a sailor stale about living aboard a 23 sailboat for twelve years alone along the East Coast of the United States via the Inter Coastal Waterway It s an itinerary of summering in Massachusetts and wintering in Florida Read this journey about Joseph Young's experience of sailing more than forty thousand miles The Crystal Coast Lynn Salsi, Frances Eubanks, 2000 Modern day conveniences and luxuries appeared like the inventions of science fiction in a place where electricity seemed at first unnecessary and short sighted to many of the coastal inhabitants who were simply comfortable living in the ways and manners of their ancestors However the progress offered by the twentieth century would not be denied even in rural Carteret County Though fishing remained the industrial backbone as it had for generations of Down Easterners Carteret County began a remarkable transition from a coastal outpost community to a tourist destination attracting thousands of seasonal and year round tourists The Crystal Coast documents this time through a collection of firsthand accounts that touch upon the many elements of everyday living including childhood games early schooling from both the students and teachers perspectives daily chores the toils of fishing the intricacies of home remedies such as the ubiquitous cure alls castor oil and corn liquor a variety of cooking techniques courtship and marriage and life around town Not just a simple time these years were marked by major cultural events and the people of Carteret County were not immune experiencing intimately the hardships of Depression era America and the challenges and fears of a world war at their doorstep Sharing both the black and white experience this volume with over 100 images celebrates a special place and people in the Southern landscape A unique visual history. The Crystal Coast allows readers a rare opportunity to venture into the Morehead City Beaufort and Portsmouth Island of a bygone era viewing not only the
