Bhabha Valiur Rahaman, 2010-12-28 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2010 in the subject Didactics for the subject English History of Literature Eras Lovely Professional University Punjab course English Literature Literary Theory language English abstract Objective of this paper is to discuss how culture of a nation gets formed strongly and how it affects literature of that very nation Homi Bhabha's Location of Culture is found sufficient example of thinking culture as episteme of mimicry liminality and hybridity of its culture The proposed paper elucidates and illustrates ideas of Homi K Bhabha he has given in Location of Culture Homi K. Bhabha Eleanor Byrne, 2009 An Analysis of Homi K. Bhabha's The Location of Culture Stephen Fay, Liam Haydon, 2017-07-05 Homi K Bhabha's 1994 The Location of Culture is one of the founding texts of the branch of literary theory called postcolonialism While postcolonialism has many strands at its heart lies the question of interpreting and understanding encounters between the western colonial powers and the nations across the globe that they colonized Colonization was not just an economic military or political process but one that radically affected culture and identity across the world It is a field in which interpretation comes to the fore and much of its force depends on addressing the complex legacy of colonial encounters by careful sustained attention to the meaning of the traces that they left on colonized cultures What Bhabha's writing like so much postcolonial thought shows is that the arts of clarification and definition that underpin good interpretation are rarely the same as simplification Indeed good interpretative clarification is often about pointing out and dividing the different kinds of complexity at play in a single process or term For Bhabha the object is identity itself as expressed in the ideas colonial powers had about themselves In his interpretation what at first seems to be the coherent set of ideas behind colonialism soon breaks down into a complex mass of shifting stances yielding something much closer to postcolonial thought than a first glance at his sometimes dauntingly complex suggests The Other Question, 1983 Embracing the Other Dunja M. Mohr, 2008 In the wake of addressing multiculturalism transculturalism racism and ethnicity the issue of xenophobia and xenophilia has been somewhat marginalized The present collection seeks from a variety of angles to investigate the relations between Self and Other in the

New Literatures in English How do we register differences and what does an embrace signify for both Self and Other The contributors deal with a variety of topics ranging from theoretical reflections on xenophobia its exploration in terms of intertextuality and New Zealand Maori historiography to analyses of migrant and border narratives and issues of transitionality authenticity and racism in Canada and South Africa Others negotiate identity and alterity in Nigerian Malaysian Australian Indian Canadian and Caribbean texts or reflect on diaspora and orientalism in Australian Asian and West Indian contexts

The Pre-occupation of

Postcolonial Studies Fawzia Afzal-Khan, Kalpana Seshadri-Crooks, 2000 The Pre Occupation of Postcolonial Studies contains essays by both leading figures and younger scholars engaged in the field of postcolonial studies In this state of the field reader editors Fawzia Afzal Khan and Kalpana Seshadri Crooks have created a dynamic forum for contributors from a variety of theoretical and disciplinary vantage points to question both the limits and the limitations of postcolonial thought Since it burst on the academic scene as the hot new disciplinary field during the final decade of the twentieth century postcolonial studies has faced criticism from those who question its troubling trajectories its sometimes suspect epistemological and pedagogical methods and its relatively narrow focus With diverse essays that emerge from such disciplines as South Asian Latin American Arab and Jewish studies this volume responds to skeptics and adherers alike addressing not only the broad theoretical issues at stake within the field but also the position of the field itself within the academy as well as its relationship to modern postmodern and Marxist discourses Contributors offer critiques on ahistorical and universalizing tendencies in postcolonial work and confront the need for scholars to attend to issues of class ideology and the effects of neocolonial practices Seeking to broaden the field's traditionally literary spectrum of methodologies these essayists take up large thematic issues to examine specific sites of colonial activities with all of their historical political and cultural significance Closing the volume is an insightful interview with Homi Bhabha in which he discusses postcolonial studies in the context of contemporary cultural politics and theory The Pre Occupation of Postcolonial Studies not only offers an overview of the discipline but also pushes and pulls at the edges of postcolonial studies offering a comprehensive view of the field's diversity of thought and envisioning clear pathways for its future Contributors Fawzia Afzal Khan Ali Behdad Homi Bhabha Daniel

Accelerating Human Evolution by Theosophical Initiation Yves Mühlematter, 2022-12-19 The main subjects of analysis in the present book are the stages of initiation in the grand scheme of Theosophical evolution These initiatory steps are connected to an idea of evolutionary self development by means of a set of virtues that are relative to the individual s position on the path of evolution The central thesis is that these stages were translated from the Hindu tradition to the Theosophical tradition through multifaceted hybridization processes in which several Indian members of the Theosophical Society partook Starting with Annie Besant s early Theosophy the stages of initiation are traced through Blavatsky s work to Manilal Dvivedi and T Subba Row both Indian members of the Theosophical Society and then on to the San tana Dharma Text Books In 1898 the English Theosophist Annie Besant and the Indian Theosophist Bhagavan Das together founded the Central Hindu College Benares which became the nucleus around which the Benares Hindu University was instituted in 1915 In this context the San tana Dharma Text Books were published M hlematter shows that the stages of initiation were the blueprint for Annie Besant s pedagogy which she implemented in the Central Hindu College in Benares In doing so he succeeds in making intelligible how esoteric knowledge was transferred to public institutions and how a broader public could be reached as a result The dissertation has been awarded the ESSWE PhD Thesis prize 2022 by the European Society for the Study of Western Esotericism

Frantz Fanon and the Future of Cultural Politics Anthony C. Alessandrini, 2014-07-01 This book focuses on a reading of Frantz Fanon s work and life asking how the work of a revolutionary writer such as Fanon might be best appropriated for contemporary political and cultural issues Separate chapters introduce Fanon s life and examine the question of Fanon as our contemporary review the field of Fanon studies that has grown up around his work bring Fanon into conversation with the critical contemporary figures Edward Said

Michel Foucault Jamaica Kincaid and Paul Gilroy and turn to Fanon's work to think through the contemporary popular uprisings that have come to be known as the Arab Spring The book concludes by arguing that a reevaluation of Fanon's life and work can provide us with a particular set of lessons about solidarity lessons that are crucial for the contemporary political struggles that face us today and that will continue to confront us in the future Finding Something Different Frantz Fanon and the Future of Cultural Politics is inspired by Fanon's unsparing struggle against the depredations of racism and colonialism and his lifelong commitment to finding something different

Verbal-Visual Configurations in Postcolonial Literature Birgit Neumann, Gabriele Rippl, 2020-04-23 Examining a range of contemporary Anglophone texts this book opens up postcolonial and transcultural studies for discussions of visibility and vision It argues that the preoccupation with visual practices in Anglophone literatures addresses the power of images vision and visual aesthetics to regulate cultural visibility and modes of identification in an unevenly structured world The representation of visual practices in the imaginative realm of fiction opens up a zone in which established orders of the sayable and visible may be revised and transformed In 12 chapters the book examines narrative fiction by writers such as Michael Ondaatje Derek Walcott Salman Rushdie David Dabydeen and NoViolet Bulawayo who employ word image relations to explore the historically fraught links between visual practices and the experience of modernity in a transcultural context Against this conceptual background the examination of verbal visual relations will illustrate how Anglophone fiction models alternative modes of representation that reflect critically on hegemonic visual regimes and reach out for new more pluralized forms of exchange

Romanian Literature as World Literature Mircea Martin, Christian Moraru, Andrei Terian, 2017-12-28 Approaching Romanian literature as world literature this book is a critical theoretical manifesto that places its object at the crossroads of empires regions and influences and draws conclusions whose relevance extends beyond the Romanian Romance and East European cultural systems This intersectional revisiting of Romanian literature is organized into three parts Opening with a fresh look at the literary ideology of Romania's national poet Mihai Eminescu part I dwells primarily on literary cultural history as process and discipline Here the focus is on cross cultural mimesis the role of strategic imitation in the production of a distinct literature in modern Romania and the shortcomings marking traditional literary historiography's handling of these issues Part II examines the ethno linguistic and territorial complexity of Romanian literatures or Romanian literature in the plural Part III takes up the trans systemic rise of Romanian Jewish Romanian and Romanian European avant garde and modernism Socialist Realism exile and migr literature and translation

Violence, Slavery and Freedom between Hegel and Fanon Ulrike Kistner, Philippe Van Haute, Robert Bernasconi, Ato Sekyi-Otu, Josias Tembo, Beata Stawarska, Reingard Nethersole, 2020-09-01 A deep dive into the influences of Hegelian thought on the work of revolutionary and postcolonial theorist Frantz Fanon Hegel is most often mentioned and not without good reason as one of the paradigmatic exponents of Eurocentrism and racism in Western philosophy But his thought also played a crucial and formative role in the work of one of the iconic thinkers of the decolonial turn Frantz Fanon This would be inexplicable if it were not for the much quoted lord bondsman dialectic frequently referred to as the master slave dialectic described in Hegel's The Phenomenology of Spirit Fanon takes up this dialectic negatively in contexts of violence riven post slavery and colonialism yet in works such as Black Skin White Masks and The Wretched of the Earth he upholds a Hegelian inspired vision of freedom The essays in this collection offer close readings of Hegel's text and of responses to it in the work of twentieth century philosophers that highlight the entangled history of the translations transpositions and transformations of Hegel in the work of Fanon and more generally in colonial postcolonial and decolonial contexts
