Homoerotic Space Stephen Guy-Bray, 2002-01-01 Stephen Guy Bray argues that early modern authors used renditions of Theocritan and Virgilian pastoral as well as epic poetry for the exploration and the allusive presentation of homoerotic and homosocial themes Henry James and Homo-Erotic Desire John Bradley, 1999-02-12 Sheldon M Novick has written an extensive biographical introduction This is complimented by an essay documenting James s friendships with younger men which includes quotations from unpublished letters Other subjects include the influence on James of the emergence of a specific concept of the homosexual and James s reactions to the aesthetic movement and there are close analyses of many of James s stories and novels selected so that all of his career is represented De-Centering Sexualities Richard Phillips, David Shuttleton, Diane Watt, 2005-08-19 This book of critical rural geography breaks new ground by drawing attention to sex and sexualities outside the metropolis It explores sexualities and sexual experiences in a variety of rural and marginal spaces with international contributions from a wide range of disciplines These include literary and cultural studies lesbian and gay studies geography history and law Among the topics uncovered are a lesbian in rural England sexual life in rural Wales sexuality in rural South Africa scandal in the American South sex race and politics nature and homosexuality in literature Derry Londonderry as a sexual space how country folk are sexualised in popular culture Queer Constellations Dianne Chisholm, Queer Constellations investigates the dreams and catastrophes of recent urban history viewed through new queer narratives of inner city life The gay village gay mecca gai Paris the lesbian flaneur the lesbian boheme these and other urban phantasmagoria feature paradoxically in this volume as figures of revolutionary utopia and commodity spectacle as fossilized archetypes of social transformation and ruins of haunting cultural potential Dianne Chisholm introduces readers to new practices of walking seeing citing and remembering the city in works by Neil Bartlett Samuel Delany Robert Gluck Alan Hollinghurst Gary Indiana Eileen Myles Sarah Schulman Edmund White and David Wojnarowicz Reading these authors with reference to the history sociology geography and philosophy of space particularly to the everyday avant garde production and practice of urban space Chisholm reveals how and how effectively queer narrative documentary resembles and reassembles Walter Benjamin s constellations of Paris capital of the nineteenth century Considering experimental queer writing in critical conjunction with Benjamin s city writing the book shows how a queer perspective on inner city reality exposes contradictions otherwise obscured by mythic narratives of progress If Benjamin regards the Paris arcade as a microcosm of high capitalism wherein the un making of industrial society is perceived retrospectively in contemporary queer narrative we see the sexually charged and commodity entranced space of the gay bathhouse as a microcosm of late capitalism and as an exemplary site for excavating the contradictions of mass sex In Chisholm s book we discover how looking back on the ruins of queer mecca queer authors return to Benjamin to advance his dialectics of seeing how they cruise the paradoxes of market capital blasting a queer era out of the homogeneous course of history Opera In The

Flesh Sam Abel, 2019-06-26 Verdi Wagner polymorphous perversion Puccini Brunnhilde Pinkerton and Parsifal all rub shoulders in this delightful poetic insightful sexual book sprung by one man's physical response to the power and exaggeration we call opera Sam Abel applies a light touch as he considers the topic of opera and the eroticized body Why do audiences respond to opera in a visceral way How does opera like no other art form physically move watchers How and why does opera arouse feelings akin to sexual desire Abel seeks the answers to these questions by examining homoerotic desire the phenomenon of the castrati operatic cross dressing and opera as presented through the media In this deeply personal book Abel writes These pages map my current struggles to pin down my passion for opera my intense admiration for its aesthetic forms and beauties but much more they express my astonishment at how opera makes me lose myself how it consumes me In so doing Abel uncovers what until now through dry musicology and gossip history has been left behind a wall of silence the physical and erotic nature of opera Although Abel can speak with certainty only about his own response to opera he provides readers with a language and a resonance with which to understand their own experiences Ultimately Opera in the Flesh celebrates the power of opera to move audiences as no other book has done It is indeed a treasure of scholarship passion and poetry for everyone with even a passing interest in this fascinating art form Ashgate Critical

Essays on Women Writers in England, 1550-1700 Sara H. Mendelson, 2017-05-15 A maverick in her own time Margaret Cavendish Duchess of Newcastle 1623-1673 was dismissed for three centuries as an eccentric crank Yet the past few decades have witnessed a true renaissance in Cavendish studies as scholars from diverse academic disciplines produce books articles and theses on every aspect of her oeuvre Cavendish's literary creations hold a wide appeal for modern readers because of her talent for thinking outside the rigid box that delimited the hierarchies of class race and gender in seventeenth century Europe In so doing she challenged the ultimate building blocks of early modern society whether the tenets of Christianity the social and political imperatives of patriarchy or the arrogant claims of the new Baconian science At the same time Cavendish offers keen insights into current social issues Her works have become a springboard for critical discourse on such topics as the nature of gender difference and the role of science in human life Sara Mendelson's aim in compiling this volume is to convey to readers some idea of the scope and variety of scholarship on Cavendish not only in terms of dominant themes but of critical controversies and intriguing new pathways for investigation The Anthropology of Sex Hastings Donnan, Fiona
