Product

and Process Design Jan Harmsen, André B. de Haan, Pieter L. J. Swinkels, 2024-05-20 Product and process design driving sustainable innovation is the 2nd edition of a comprehensive textbook for product and process design courses at BSc MSc EngD and PhD level It covers both heuristics based design methods as well as systems engineering approaches It contains specific methods to co design products and processes so that both designs are better than when these designs are made separately This integrated combination makes the book unique For making designs that contribute to the Sustainable Development Goals of the United Nations specific methods are provided for the People Planet and Prosperity dimensions This second edition of the book includes examples and exercises for each design method which makes it very suitable for teaching purposes The book is furthermore of interest to industrial process and product developers for many industry branches as it provides methods for design modelling and experimental validation for each innovation stage It is also very useful for R D managers as it provides guidelines for essential activities in each innovation stage discovery concept feasibility development detailed engineering leading to successful implementations of new processes and new products Identifying Hidden Needs K. Goffin, F. Lemke, U. Koners, 2010-10-06 Too many new products fail New products which are hard to differentiate from existing products won't capture the customer's imagination The failure is due to a poor understanding of customers needs Companies need to take a radical approach to identifying customers real needs and this book demonstrates innovative ways to achieve this Business Management Solutions Patricia Barnett-Quaico, 2024-01-05 The complexity of managing a business today has increased exponentially due to rapid technological advancement and global events This implies that the solutions of yesterday may not be applicable today or in the near future Some of the major problems faced by businesses today include financial management competition strategy change and innovation Business managers must therefore develop a comprehensive understanding of business organisations and equip themselves with knowledge in subject areas such as Value Creation Value Management Organisational Transformation Leadership Innovation Change Management and Strategic Thinking This requires practical knowledge of principles and theories such as SWOT and PESTEL analysis to help them to conduct a situational analysis of their businesses when the need arises This is what the author seeks to achieve by providing practical examples of how business problems can be solved The Teaching of Design and Innovation Gabriel J. Costello, 2020-05-06 This book is about design and innovation what it is and how to teach it The blending of design and innovation is having an increasing impact not only on the world of products and services but on a wide variety of disciplines such as information and communications technology ICT business education and medicine However there is a lack of books on teaching the subject despite the significant growth of interest in both academia and the workplace This book addresses this gap by outlining foundational principles for the teaching of design and innovation and by offering a practical process for implementing the pedagogy in academic institutions and outside academia in the context of continuing professional development CPD It describes two undergraduate case studies that aimed to instill design and innovation competences in students of both engineering and business disciplines The cases involved student teams working with incubation centre start ups and multi national subsidiaries One of the aims of this book is to provide a resource for continuing professional development CPD Consequently a third practitioner based case study is presented as an example of research informed teaching In addition the book proposes the concept of Simulation Action Learning SAL as an enhancement of Project Based Learning PBL
