Inscriptions The Dedicatory Monuments Athenian Agora:

Inscriptions Daniel J. Geagan, 2011-09-09 This is the last of five volumes presenting inscriptions discovered in the Athenian Agora between 1931 and 1967 Published here are inscriptions on monuments commemorating events or victories on statues or other representations erected to honor individuals and deities and on votive offerings to divinities Most are dated to between the 4th century B C and the 2nd century A D but a few survive from the Archaic and Late Roman periods A final section contains monuments that are potentially but not certainly dedicatory in character and a small number of grave markers omitted from Agora XVII Each of the 773 catalogue entries includes a description of the object inscribed bibliography a transcription of the Greek text and commentary There are photographs of each piece of which no adequate illustration has yet been published including newly joined fragments The volume concludes with concordances and six indexes The Athenian Agora: Inscriptions: The dedicatory monuments, by Daniel J. Geagan, 1953 Inscriptions Daniel J. Geagan, American School of Classical Studies at Athens, 2011 The Athenian Agora Daniel J. Geagan, 2011 The Athenian Agora Laura Gawlinski, Craig A. Mauzy, 2014-06-18 Written for the general visitor the Athenian Agora Museum Guide is a companion to the 2010 edition of the Athenian Agora Site Guide and leads the reader through all of the display spaces within the Stoa of Attalos in the Athenian Agora the terrace the ground floor colonnade and the newly opened upper story The guide also discusses each case in the museum gallery chronologically beginning with the prehistoric and continuing with the Geometric Archaic Classical Hellenistic Roman and Byzantine periods Hundreds of artifacts ranging from common pottery to elite jewelry held in 81 cases are described and illustrated in color for the very first time Through focus boxes readers can learn about marble working early burial practices pottery production ostracism home life and the wells that dotted the ancient site A timeline maps and plans accompany the text For those who wish to learn more about what they see in the museum a list of further reading follows each entry Boeotia Antiqua IV John M. Fossey, P.J. Smith, 2023-10-09 McGill University Monographs in Classical Archaeology and History is a series intended for the publication of monographs in the fields of Greek and Roman Archaeology It may also include monographs concerning Greek and Roman History when they present results acquired directly and not just incidentally from archaeological fieldwork The keynote of the series is thus archaeological field research both excavation and topographical study The series may also house studies in Greek and Latin Epigraphy since many of the additions in these fields come from the results of archaeological fieldwork Kinship in Ancient Athens S. C. Humphreys, 2018-11-08 The concept of kinship is at the heart of understanding not only the structure and development of a society but also the day to day interactions of its citizens Kinship in Ancient Athens aims to illuminate both of these issues by providing a comprehensive account of the structures and perceptions of kinship in Athenian society covering the archaic and classical periods from Drakon and Solon up to Menander Drawing on decades of research into a wide range of epigraphic literary and archaeological sources and on S C Humphreys expertise in the intersections between ancient history and anthropology it not only puts a wealth of data at readers fingertips but subjects it to rigorous analysis By utilizing an anthropological approach to reconstruct patterns of behaviour it is able to offer us an ethnographic thick description of ancient Athenians interaction with their kin that offers insights into a range of social contexts from family life rituals and economic interactions to legal matters politics warfare and more The work is arranged into two volumes both utilizing the same anthropological approach to ancient sources Volume I explores interactions and conflicts shaped by legal and economic constraints adoption guardianship marriage inheritance property as well as more optional relationships in the field of ritual naming rites de passage funerals and commemoration dedications cultic associations and political relationships both formal Assembly Council and informal hetaireiai Among several important and novel topics discussed are the sociological analysis of names and nicknames the features of kin structure that advantaged or disadvantaged women in legal disputes and the economic relations of dependence and independence between fathers and sons Volume II deals with corporate groups recruited by patrification and explores the role of kinship in these subdivisions of the citizen body tribes and trittyes both pre Kleisthenic and Kleisthenic phratries gen and demes The section on the demes stresses variety rather than common features and provides comprehensive information on location and prosopography in a tribally organized catalogue

Public Statues Across Time and Cultures Christopher P. Dickenson, 2021-04-08 This book explores the ways in which statues have been experienced in public in different cultures and the role that has been played by statues in defining publicness itself The meaning of public statues is examined through discussion of their appearance and their spatial context and of written discourses having to do with how they were experienced Bringing together experts working on statues in different cultures the book sheds light on similarities and differences in the role that public statues had in different times and places throughout history The book will also provide insight into the diverse methods and approaches that scholars working on these different periods use to investigate statues The book will appeal to historians art historians and archaeologists of all periods who have an interest in the display of sculpture the reception of public art or the significance of public monuments
