

A photograph of a house with a large open door showing the interior, surrounded by a lush garden and patio area. The house has a light-colored exterior and a dark roof. The patio is paved with large, light-colored tiles. There are several potted plants and a small table with chairs in the garden. The interior of the house is visible through the open door, showing a living room with a lamp and a bookshelf.

Inside Out Page Dickey, 2000-11 Explores the essential relationship between house garden Includes 130 full color photographs     Breaking Ground Page Dickey, 2003-01-01 Not since Martha Schinz's masterful Visions of Paradise published in 1984 has there been such an important survey of garden design and style as Breaking Ground Whereas Visions of Paradise featured classic European garden design Breaking Ground takes an in depth look at the work of ten contemporary garden designers living and working in America and Europe today The two hundred glorious full color photographs by Erica Lennard and the lucid text by garden writer and designer Page Dickey capture the spirit and genius of the ten designers A chapter is devoted to each designer his or her sources of inspiration style philosophy and method of creation From the bold Southern California designs of Nancy Power to the urban geometries of Madison Cox to the updated French formal style of Louis Benech to the romantic country gardens of Nancy McCabe Breaking Ground profiles the artists who are redefining garden design categories Inspirational informative contemporary and beautiful Breaking Ground is a spectacularly crafted object in itself sure to be one of the major garden gift books of the season     Roses Wayne

Winterrowd, 2025-09-23 Thirty three eminent gardeners on their favorite rose Among the plant kingdom Rosa is a relatively small genus comprising only about one hundred species around the globe But as these species intercross they have given rise to as many as thirty thousand cultivars making the rose perhaps the most various of all plants grown in gardens and one of the most treasured This one of a kind collection gathers together thirty three eminent gardeners and rosarians including Graham Stuart Thomas Christopher Lloyd Thomas C Cooper Joe Eck Michael Pollan Anne Raver Page Dickey Thomas Christopher David Austin Peter Beales Dan Hinkley and Jamaica Kincaid Each writes about a favored rose Rosarie de l Ha

Inside/Outside Islamic Art and Architecture Saygin Salgirli, 2021-07-29 When we walk into a gallery we have a fairly good idea where the building begins and ends and inside while observing a painting we are equally confident in distinguishing between the painting proper and its frame and borders Yet things are often more complicated A building defines an exterior space just as much as an interior and what we perceive to be ornamental and marginal to a given painting may in fact be central to what it represents In this volume a simple question is presented instead of dichotomous separations between inside and outside or exterior and interior what other relationships can we think of The first book of its kind to grapple with this question Inside Outside Islamic Art and Architecture focuses on a wide spectrum of mediums and topics including painted manuscripts objects architectural decoration architecture and urban planning and photography Bringing together scholars with diverse methodologies who work on a geographical span stretching from India to Spain and Nigeria and across a temporal spectrum from the thirteenth to the twenty first century this original book also poses engaging questions about the boundaries of the field     Inside Out Daniela Santos Quartino, 2008     Christopher Isherwood Inside Out Katherine Bucknell, 2024-08-26 A stunningly intimate exploration of the writer and gay cultural icon and of his lifelong search for authenticity The story of Christopher Isherwood's life is one of pilgrimage away from the constraints of inheritance and empire and toward authenticity and spiritual illumination Isherwood the author of Goodbye to Berlin which inspired Cabaret and A Single Man was born the heir to a crumbling English estate He died an icon of gay liberation in California while his partner of thirty years Don Bachardy painted his death portrait Isherwood began his career depicting the psychological wreckage of World War I While living in Berlin he began to write his reputation making fiction and with W H Auden plays inspired by the city's nightlife its artistic underbelly its fevered politics When Hitler took power he fled with his German boyfriend who was pursued and arrested by the Gestapo Isherwood left Europe and found work as a screenwriter in Hollywood where he became the disciple of a Hindu monk Swami Prabhavananda Together they translated the Bhagavad Gita Isherwood shed his family ghosts and became a chief instigator of the cultural shift that made gay liberation possible Every step of the journey served his writing one of our greatest diarists he recorded his experiences and transformed them in fiction and memoir Katherine Bucknell charts the quest of the restless penetrating blackly comic mind through books films foreign lands love affairs and collaborations toward self understanding and happiness Here is Christopher Isherwood Inside Out Inside Outside Linda O'Keeffe, 2019-11-12 An inspiring guide to creating stylish and livable outdoor spaces An outdoor room is an extension of the home a space that can be used for entertaining relaxing cooking playing swimming and more In spaces large and small outdoor rooms offer a retreat from daily life and a connection to nature In Inside Outside Linda O'Keeffe former creative director of Metropolitan Home will inspire you to create an outdoor living space that offers an oasis of comfort and style O'Keeffe uses the language of interior design to inform her approach to exterior design focusing on space structure movement mood and furniture Inside Outside is filled with private gardens from North America and Europe that are inspiring and illustrative examples From dramatic topiaries and black tulips in Massachusetts to the living wall in the courtyard of a Paris penthouse fresh ideas permeate both the gardens found within this book and the design thinking behind them Plastic Glasses and Church Fathers David Kronenfeld, 1996-04-11 Meaning seems to shift from context to context how do we know when someone says grab a chair that an ottoman or orange crate will do but when someone says let's buy a chair they won't Somehow in spite of this slipperiness we usually understand each other in conversations and have straightforward ways of querying each other when we sense a gap in understanding We seem capable of using ordinary language to communicate with as much precision as we are willing to take the time and effort for through attention to interactive feedback and the use of paraphrastic modification specification and explication In Plastic Glasses and Church Fathers Kronenfeld offers a theory that explains both the usefulness of language's variability of reference and the mechanisms which enable us to understand each other in spite of the variability His theory is rooted in the tradition of ethno-science or cognitive anthropology a tradition which promotes an ethnography of explicit methodology and mathematically precise theory while remaining responsive to the complexity of particular cultures Kronenfeld accomplishes three things with his theory First he distinguishes prototypic referents from extended referents Second he describes the various bases of semantic extensions Finally he details how we use the situational context of usage the linguistic context of opposition and inclusion and the conceptual context of knowledge about the world to interpret communicative events

County Council,2015-03-05 The publication of The Planning of a New Town in 1961 aroused remarkable interest Its pages described a private new town sponsored by the London County Council LCC to be built at Hook in Hampshire a scheme that innovatively combined Garden City New Town traditions with sensitivity to modern design At its heart lay a multilevel and megastructural town centre intended to serve as a genuine focus for the gathering community featuring shops and amenities placed on a pedestrian deck with cars and servicing beneath The report itself proved extremely popular even though the New Town had fallen foul of political opposition at local and national levels and had been abandoned before any construction took place It offers an insight into the flux of ideas that surrounded New Town development in the early 1960s Analysing the world as it might have been not only identifies choices that were once available for shaping the built environment it also often reveals once cherished hopes and aspirations about how people might live in cities      New Traditional Architecture
