Inside The Painters Studio:

Inside the Painter's Studio Joe Fig, 2012-06-19 Inside an art gallery it is easy to forget that the paintings there are the end products of a process involving not only creative inspiration but also plenty of physical and logistical details. It is these cruder, more mundane aspects of a painter's daily routine that motivated Brooklyn artist Joe Fig to embark almost ten years ago on a highly unorthodox multilayered exploration of the working life of the professional artist. Determined to ground his research in the physical world, Fig began constructing a series of diorama-like miniature reproductions of the studios of modern art's most legendary painters such as Jackson Pollock and Willem de Kooning. A desire for firsthand references led Fig to approach contemporary artists for access to their studios. Armed with a camera and a self-made Artist's Questionnaire, Fig began a journey through the workspaces of some of today's most exciting contemporary artists.

Inside the Artist's Studio Joe Fig, 2015-10-06 What was your earliest childhood artwork that received recognition? When did you first consider yourself a professional artist? How has your studio's location influenced your work? How do you choose titles? Do you have a favorite color? Joe Fig asked a wide range of celebrated artists these and many other questions during the illuminating studio visits documented in Inside the Artist's Studio, the follow-up to his acclaimed 2009 book Inside the Painter's Studio. In this remarkable collection, twenty-four painters, video and mixed media artists, sculptors, and photographers reveal highly idiosyncratic production tools and techniques, as well as quotidian habits and strategies for getting work done, the music they listen to, the hours they keep, and the relationships with gallerists and curators, friends, family, and fellow artists that sustain them outside the studio.

Plaster Casts in the Life and Art of Seventeenth-Century Dutch Painters Isabella Lores-Chavez, 2025-08-20 In the early modern Dutch Republic, plaster casts offered artists a way to overcome limitations of space and time and to define themselves. This book presents the first comprehensive account of the impact of plaster casts on the artistic practice, intellectual endeavors, and social status of seventeenth-century Dutch painters. These modest objects were in fact real works of sculpture incorporated into a variety of compositions where they signalled an artist's ambitions and technical virtuosity. Marginalized in the history of Dutch art, plaster casts lie at the center of this study's novel interpretations of paintings and drawings paired with period sources.

A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings IV Ernst van de Wetering, 2010-07-19 Volume IV of A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings deals uniquely with the self-portraits of Rembrandt. In a clearly written explanatory style, the head of the Rembrandt Research Project and Editor of this Volume, Ernst van de Wetering, discusses the full body of work of paintings and etchings portraying Rembrandt. He sets the different parameters for accepting or rejecting a Rembrandt self-portrait as such, whilst also discussing the exact working environment of Rembrandt and his apprentices. This workshop setting created a surroundings where apprentices could be involved in working on Rembrandt paintings, making it more difficult to determine the hand of the master. Van de Wetering, who is one of the Rembrandt experts of our day and age, goes down to great detail to explain how the different self-portraits are made and what techniques Rembrandt uses also giving an overview of which paintings are to be attributed to the Dutch Master and which not In the additional catalogue the self portraits are examined in detail In clear and accessible explanatory text the different paintings are discussed larded with immaculate images of each painting Details are shown where possible as well as the results of modern day technical imaging like X radiography This work of art history and art research should be part of every serious art historical institute university or museum Nowhere in the art history have all Rembrandt's self portraits been discussed in such detailed and comparative manner by an authority such as Ernst van de Wetering This is a standard work for decades to come The Crayon, 1855 Cyclopedia of Painters and Paintings John Denison Champlin, Charles Callahan

Painters in Nineteenth-Century Scotland Janice Helland, 2019-06-11 This title was first published in 2000 Women in the 19th century have long been presented as the angel in the house The author rewrites this history by investigating the life and working conditions of a number of middle class women who sought to establish themselves as professional artists in Scotland Contrary to the orthodox view preoccupied with oppression and difficulty the author demonstrates that women artists of the period were independent producers teachers and travellers alert to changes in taste and fashion They derived great pleasure from their work and enjoyed the benefits of women working together forming their own and joining existing professional associations The book is not biographical but elaborates on the life and working conditions of middle class artists by discussing their work in terms of economic and social history Studio International, 1899 The Brothers Le

Nain Esther Susan Bell, Claude Douglas Dickerson, Nicolas Milavanovic, Alain Tallon, 2016-01-01 A beautiful volume that brings to light the forgotten Le Nain brothers a trio of 17th century French master painters who specialized in portraiture religious subjects and scenes of everyday peasant life In France in the 17th century the brothers Antoine c 1598 1648 Louis c 1600 1605 1648 and Mathieu 1607 1677 Le Nain painted images of everyday life for which they became posthumously famous They are celebrated for their depictions of middle class leisure activities and particularly for their representations of peasant families who gaze out at the viewer The uncompromising naturalism of these compositions along with their oddly suspended action imparts a sense of dignity to their subjects Featuring more than sixty paintings highlighting the artists full range of production including altarpieces private devotional paintings portraits and the poignant images of peasants for which the brothers are best known this generously illustrated volume presents new research concerning the authorship dating and meaning of the works by well known scholars in the field Also groundbreaking are the results of a technical study of the paintings which constitutes a major contribution to the scholarship on the Le Nain brothers The Painter's Practice James Cahill, 1994 His work fills in the hitherto unexplored social and economic contexts in which painters worked revealing the details of how painters in China actually made their living from the sixteenth century onward The International

Armstrong, Edouard Manet, 2002-01-01 Manet a founding father of modernism is one of the towering figures of 19th century art In this volume Carol Armstrong looks closely at Manet's works to uncover a view not only of the artist but also of modernity itself As she places his art within frameworks of colour the feminine Other the Manette in Manet and consumerism Armstrong seeks to expand and revise our understanding of this artist as a painter of modern life      A Biographical and Critical Dictionary of Recent and Living Painters and Engravers Henry Ottley, Michael Bryan, 1866      *A Biographical and Critical Dictionary of Recent and Living Painters and Engravers, Forming a Supplement to Bryan's Dictionary of Painters and Engravers as Edited by G.
