Securing the Peace Monica Duffy Toft, 2009-10-26 Timely and pathbreaking Securing the Peace is the first book to explore the complete spectrum of civil war terminations including negotiated settlements military victories by governments and rebels and stalemates and ceasefires Examining the outcomes of all civil war terminations since 1940 Monica Toft develops a general theory of postwar stability showing how third party guarantees may not be the best option She demonstrates that thorough security sector reform plays a critical role in establishing peace over the long term Much of the thinking in this area has centered on third parties presiding over the maintenance of negotiated settlements but the problem with this focus is that fewer than a quarter of recent civil wars have ended this way Furthermore these settlements have been precarious often resulting in a recurrence of war Toft finds that military victory especially victory by rebels lends itself to a more durable peace She argues for the importance of the security sector the police and military and explains that victories are more stable when governments can maintain order Toft presents statistical evaluations and in depth case studies that include El Salvador Sudan and Uganda to reveal that where the security sector remains robust stability and democracy are likely to follow An original and thoughtful reassessment of civil war terminations Securing the Peace will interest all those concerned about resolving our world's most pressing conflicts

Towards the Dignity of Difference? Mojtaba Mahdavi, 2016-02-24 The rise of popular social movements throughout the Middle East North Africa Europe and North America in 2011 challenged two hegemonic discourses of the post Cold War era Francis Fukuyama's The End of History and Samuel Huntington's The Clash of Civilizations The quest for genuine democracy and social justice and the backlash against the neoliberal order is a common theme in the global mass protests in the West and the East This is no less than a discursive paradigm shift a new beginning to the history a move towards new alternatives to the status quo This book is about difference and dialogue it embraces The Dignity of Difference and promotes dialogue However it also demonstrates the limits of dialogue as a useful and universal approach for resolving conflicts particularly in cases involving asymmetric and unequal power relations The distinguished group of authors suggests in this volume that there is a third way of addressing global tensions one that rejects the extremes of both universalism and particularism This third way is a radical call for an epistemic shift in our understanding of us other and good evil a radical approach toward accommodating difference as well as embracing the plural concept of the good The authors strengthen their alternative approach with a practical policy guide by challenging existing policies that either exclude or assimilate other cultures that wage the constructed global war on terror and that impose a western neo liberal discourse on non western societies This important book will be essential reading for all those studying civilizations globalization foreign policy peace and security studies multiculturalism and ethnicity regionalism global governance and international political economy Sudan Jok Madut Jok,2015-10-01 Sudan has been in the headlines for all the wrong reasons After decades of civil war rebel uprisings and power struggles in 2011 it gave birth to the world s newest country South Sudan But it s not been an easy transition and the secession that was meant to pave the path to peace has plunged the region into further chaos In this updated edition of his ground breaking investigation Jok Madut Jok delves deep into Sudan s culture and history isolating the factors that continue to cause its fractured national identity With moving first hand testimonies Jok provides a decisive critique of a region in turmoil and addresses what must be done to break the tragic cycle of racism poverty and brutality that grips Sudan and South Sudan Human Rights Mechanism in South Asia Shveta Dhaliwal,2016-10-04 Shveta Dhaliwal teaches at the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law Punjab Patiala India Her areas of specialisation are geopolitics regional human rights systems comparative political thought and international relations She has published more than 40 research papers and presented over 150 papers in international and national conferences She has an authored and three edited books to her credit She is member of the Indian Political Science Association and the Indian Society of International Law and South Asian Foundation
