Inside The Death Chamber Exploring Executions:

Inside the Death Chamber L. Kay Gillespie, 2003 Using a question and answer format this engaging book discusses the process of capital punishment as well as the personal aspects and experiences involving those to whom it is applied and those who conduct the executions This book analyses the effects capital punishment has in everyone involved in capital punishment It addresses the questions and concerns of everyday people in a straightforward manner such as what living on death row is like and why executions are so costly etc For anyone interested in criminal justice particularly capital punishment Capital Punishment C. Cliff, 2003 The issue of capital punishment is a continually debated issue because it calls into question the values and direction of society How is a civilisation supposed to handle lawbreakers Are some crimes so heinous and some people so dangerous that the death penalty is the only appropriate response The United States Constitution prohibits cruel and unusual punishment but opinions on whether that includes capital punishment are vehement on both sides Many states have some form of death penalty and public opinion seems to indicate support of it in principle However many firestorms have erupted recently over the application of the penalty including the topics of its use on minors and those with mental disabilities There are also questions raised about how much of a factor race plays in a capital sentence Internationally several countries have foresworn the death penalty with certain countries in Europe and the Americas refusing to extradite criminal suspects including suspected terrorists to the US if capital punishment is a possible sentence With such politically flammable and ethically challenging issues hanging over it capital punishment is a vitally important issue to understand To help facilitate that study this book assembles a carefully selected and substantial listing of literature focussing on the death penalty Anyone researching this area of criminal justice will find this book an important tool as it offers easy access to the most relevant works about capital punishment Following the bibliography further access is provided with author title and subject indexes The Cultural Lives of Capital Punishment Austin Sarat, Christian Boulanger, 2005-05-27 How does the way we think and feel about the world around us affect the existence and administration of the death penalty What role does capital punishment play in defining our political and cultural identity In this volume the authors argue that in order to understand the death penalty we need to know more about the cultural lives past and present of the state s ultimate sanction American Prisons and Jails Vidisha Barua Worley, Robert M. Worley, 2018-12-07 This two volume encyclopedia provides a comprehensive and authoritative examination of the history and current character of American prisons and jails and their place in the U S corrections system This encyclopedia provides a rigorous and comprehensive summary of correctional systems and practices and their evolution throughout US history Topics include sentencing norms and contemporary developments differences between local jails and prisons and regional state and federal systems violent and nonviolent inmate populations operations of state and federal prisons including well known prisons such as ADX Florence Alcatraz Attica Leavenworth and San Quentin privately run for profit prisons as well as the companies that run them inmate culture including prisoner generated social hierarchies prisoner slang gangs drug use and violence prison trends and statistics including racial ethnic age gender and educational breakdowns the death penalty and post incarceration outcomes including recidivism The set showcases contributions from some of the leading scholars in the fields of correctional systems and practices and will be a valuable resource for anyone interested in learning more about American prisons jails and community corrections The International Library of Essays on Capital Punishment, Volume 3 Peter Hodgkinson, 2016-12-05

This volume provides analyses of a range of subjects and issues in the death penalty debate from medicine to the media The essays address in particular the personal complexities of those involved a fundamental part of the subject usually overridden by the theoretical and legal aspects of the debate The unique personal vantage offered by this volume makes it essential reading for anyone interested in going beyond the removed theoretical understanding of the death penalty to better comprehending its fundamental humanity Additionally the international range of the analysis enabling disaggregation of country specific motivations ensures the complexities of the death penalty are also considered from a global perspective

DeathQuest Robert M. Bohm, 2011-07-23 This fourth edition of the first true textbook on the death penalty engages the reader with a full account of the arguments and issues surrounding capital punishment The book begins with the history of the death penalty from colonial to modern times and then examines the moral and legal arguments for and against capital punishment It also provides an overview of major Supreme Court decisions and describes the legal process behind the death penalty In addressing these issues the author reviews recent developments in death penalty law and procedure including ramifications of newer case law such as that regarding using lethal injection as a method of execution The author's motivation has been to understand what motivates the deathquest of the American people leading a large percentage of the public to support the death penalty The book will educate readers so that whatever their death penalty opinions are they are informed ones Comprehensive unbiased review of developments in death penalty law and procedure including new case law on death eligible crimes and execution by lethal injection Current data on costs miscarriages of justice discriminatory application religion and death penalty public opinion Analysis of new research regarding the effectiveness of the death penalty in terms of deterrence retribution and incapacitation Routledge Handbook on Capital Punishment Robert M.

Bohm, Gavin Lee, 2017-12-15 Capital punishment is one of the more controversial subjects in the social sciences especially in criminal justice and criminology Over the last decade or so the United States has experienced a significant decline in the number of death sentences and executions Since 2007 eight states have abolished capital punishment bringing the total number of states without the death penalty to 19 plus the District of Columbia and more are likely to follow suit in the near future Nebraska reinstated its death penalty in 2016 Worldwide 70 percent of countries have abolished capital punishment in law or in practice The current trend suggests the eventual demise of capital punishment in all but a few recalcitrant states and countries Within this context a fresh look at capital punishment in the United States and worldwide is warranted The

Routledge Handbook on Capital Punishment comprehensively examines the topic of capital punishment from a wide variety of perspectives A thoughtful introductory chapter from experts Bohm and Lee presents a contextual framework for the subject matter and chapters present state of the art analyses of a range of aspects of capital punishment grouped into five sections 1 Capital Punishment History Opinion and Culture 2 Capital Punishment Rationales and Religious Views 3 Capital Punishment and Constitutional Issues 4 The Death Penalty s Administration and 5 The Death Penalty s Consequences This is a key collection for students taking courses in prisons penology criminal justice criminology and related subjects and is also an essential reference for academics and practitioners working in prison service or in related agencies

Eligible for Execution Thomas G. Walker, 2008-07-15 This riveting and enlightening narrative unfolds on the night of August 16 1996 with the brutal and senseless murder of Eric Nesbitt a young man stationed at Langley Air Force Base at the hands of 18 year old Daryl Atkins Over the course of more than a decade Atkins s case has bounced between the lowest and the highest levels of the judicial system Found guilty and then sentenced to death in 1998 for Nesbitt s murder the Atkins case was then taken up in 2002 by the U S Supreme Court The issue before the justices given Daryl Atkins s mental retardation would his execution constitute cruel and unusual punishment in violation of the Eighth Amendment A 6 3 vote said yes Daryl Atkins s situation was far from being resolved though Prosecutors claimed that Atkins failed to meet the statutory definition of mental retardation and reinstituted procedures to carry out his death sentence Back in circuit court the jury returned its verdict Daryl Atkins was not retarded Atkins s attorneys promptly filed a notice of appeal and the case continues today Drawing on interviews with key participants direct observation of the hearings and close examination of court documents transcripts and press accounts Thomas G Walker provides readers with a rare view of the entire judicial process Never losing sight of the stakes in a death penalty case he explains each step in Atkins s legal journey from the interactions of local law enforcement to the decision making process of the state prosecutor to the Supreme Court s ruling and beyond Walker sheds light on how legal institutions and procedures work in real life and how they are all interrelated to help students better understand constitutional issues the courts and the criminal justice system Throughout Walker also addresses how disability race and other key demographic and social issues affect the case and society s views on the death penalty

Man with the Killer Smile Mitchel P. Roth, 2022-11-15 On a cold windy December night in 1926 hell was unleashed on a tenant farm near Farwell the last Texas town before the New Mexico border Prone to the bottle and fits of rage the burly man with the smiling blue eyes was in no mood to quarrel with his third wife over his bootleg whisky and sexual abuse of his stepdaughter He went from room to room in the house killing his wife and each child with primitive cutting tools and his bare hands By the time he concluded his bloody work he had taken the lives of nine family members ranging in age from 2 to 41 committing what one local reporter called the blackest crime in the history of the West Texas Panhandle Husband father uncle embezzler serial mass murderer philanderer child molester convict and military deserter George Jefferson Hassell was many things to many people most of them bad His pattern of familicide crime had begun in 1917 when he slaughtered his common law wife and her three kids in Whittier California Later in Texas he married his brother's wife and became stepfather to her eight children Using Hassell's confessions and his many interviews with reporters as well as the trial transcripts and reminiscences of those who crossed paths with him in Texas Oklahoma and California Mitchel P Roth presents the first comprehensive account of the life and crimes of one of the least known multiple murderers in Texas let alone American history Roth situates Hassell's saga within the 1920s Texas criminal justice system including the death penalty which Hassell ultimately received from Old Sparky the electric chair at Huntsville

Last Words and the Death Penalty Scott Vollum, 2008 Vollum analyzes the content of the last statements of the condemned and statements made by co victims he seek to give voice to these two different groups Vollum finds that the most dominant themes among the condemned center around transformation redemption and positive messages of connection to others The most dominant themes of co victims are more conflicting with a mix of frustration with the death penalty process relief that it is over and the desire for justice or revenge Through their own words we learn that the death penalty is neither a soothing salve for the pain and suffering of co victims nor simply an extraction of evil and irredeemable criminals Cruel and Unusual Brian Jarvis,2004-01-20 From the excesses of Puritan patriarchs to the barbarism of slavery and on into the prison industrial complex punishment in the US has a long and gruesome history In the post Vietnam era the prison population has increased tenfold and the death penalty has enjoyed a renaissance Cruel and Unusual offers an exploration of the history of punishment as mediated in American culture Grounding his analysis in Marxist theory psychoanalysis and Foucault s influential work on discipline Brian Jarvis examines a range of cultural texts from seventeenth century execution sermons to twenty first century prison films to uncover the politics economics and erotics of punishment This wide ranging and interdisciplinary survey constructs a genealogy of cruelty through close reading of novels by Hawthorne and Melville fictional accounts of the Rosenberg execution by Coover and Doctorow slave narratives and prison writings by African Americans and the critically neglected genre of American prison films Death Quest 2 Robert M. Bohm,2003 Death Row, Texas Michelle Lyons,2018-11-27 Tells the story of a traumatic life spent witnessing hundreds of people being executed in Texas most infamous prison Daily Beast I can t remember his name or his crime What I remember is the nothingness No family members no friends no comfort Maybe he didn t want them to come maybe they didn t care maybe he didn t have any in the first place It was just a prison official and two reporters including me looking through the glass at this man strapped fast to the gurney needles in both arms staring hard at the ceiling When the warden stepped forward and asked if he wanted to make a last statement the man barely shook his head said nothing and started blinking That s when I saw it a single tear at the corner of his right eye A tear he desperately wanted to blink away a tear he didn t want us to see It pooled there for a moment before running down his cheek The warden gave his signal the chemicals started flowing the man coughed sputtered and exhaled A doctor entered the room pronounced the man dead and pulled a sheet over his head Michelle Lyons from the Prologue Michelle Lyons witnessed nearly 300 executions at the Texas State penitentiary This haunting dark and hard to put down behind the scenes look at those final moments of life relates shocking true stories of the inmate his her family members prison officials the death row chaplain and the victim s loved ones all of whom come together in the death chamber Houston Chronicle From Noose to Needle Timothy Vance Kaufman-Osborn,2009-09-15 From Noose to Needle contributes a new perspective on the controversial topic of capital punishment by asking how the conduct of state killing reveals broader contradictions in the contemporary liberal state especially but not exclusively in the United States Moving beyond more familiar legal and sociological approaches to this matter Timothy V Kaufman Osborn asks several questions Why do executions no longer take the form of public spectacles Why are certain methods of execution considered barbaric Why must the liberal state strictly segregate the imposition of a death sentence whether by judge or jury from its actual infliction whether by a state official or an ordinary citizen Why are women so infrequently sentenced to death and executed How does the state seek to hide the suffering inflicted by capital punishment through its endorsement of a bio medical conception of pain How does the nearly universal shift to lethal injection pose problems for the late liberal state by confusing its punitive and welfare responsibilities Drawing on a wide range of theoretical sources including John Locke Max Weber Nicos Poulantzas Friedrich Nietzsche J L Austin Michel Foucault Judith Butler Pierre Bourdieu Elaine Scarry and others Kaufman Osborn grounds his appropriation of these authors in analyses of specific recent executions including that of Wesley Allan Dodd and Charles Campbell in Washington Karla Faye Tucker in Texas and Allen Lee Davis in Florida From Noose to Needle will be of interest to students of law political theory and sociology as well as more general readers interested in the troublesome issue of capital punishment Timothy V Kaufman Osborn is Baker Ferguson Professor of Politics and Leadership Whitman College
