The Insider Beverly Blackman,2016-01-12 What does it take to be a hero A ranch in Texas is hit by a tornado What seems like a normal ranch however isn't A space travel portal is in a large oak tree and is compromised in the storm Through that tree Earth was able to strike an alliance with another planet in another solar system Now things could go very wrong especially since Sam the tree is hurt in the storm and starts oozing special alien birthing fluids and portal chemicals Who could help with this precarious situation Could it be one of the humans who witnessed the formation of the intergalactic alliance just last Christmas Or maybe the hero had to be someone who knew nothing about that tree and how it came to be Maybe the best person to help was an outsider becoming an unsuspecting insider Sometime we have to choose between family and the greater good What would you do Read to see what happens to a special family and friends on a ranch in the heart of Texas

The Inventor Beverly Blackman,2018-01-30 There is another security breach between Earth and Xeracik the first two planets to actually exchange intellectual information and form an alliance The large historic oak tree on Grandpa's Texas ranch which was being used as a portal between the two planets has unwillingly delivered something to Earth Yes the tree was beginning to show signs of human emotions It actually tried to stop the delivery After an unwelcome entrance to Earth is made there begins a threat of an all out war between the planets Rex Jr is an innocent bystander who arrives at Mr Grandpa Olson's ranch to see his uncle Rex His uncle watches over Sam the tree portal and when Rex Jr arrives for a Thanksgiving visit he accidentally gets involved in the catastrophic mishap Fortunately for all involved on both planets Rex Jr is a science student who enjoys inventing things and entering science fairs He was named after his uncle and both ironically have the same first name as the ranch owner Mr Rex Olson Grandpa Rex Grandpa Rex and his grandsons have been involved in the first four alien encounters and would rather not be involved anymore but they do not have a choice If you were thrown into a situation involving visitors from another planet would you try to run away or would you be curious to know more about these strange beings Rex Jr has always been wanting to figure things out He is a little nervous when he is all alone confronting an alien but as he stands beside Sam the tree portal he doesn't run away He begins asking the strange being one question after another It has been named Kitty B by Grandpa Rex Olson As Kitty B does things to try to unnerve Rex Jr Rex Jr just becomes more intent on understanding what is going on Rex Jr and the Xeracik laboratories come up with a very unusual invention Read to find out what happens in this fifth of the Earth Xeracik encounters

The Invitee Beverly Blackman,2017-04-20 What do you do when you receive an invitation from an alien Simple ignore it until they won't let you ignore it anymore Braden and his brother Cade were trying to lead a normal life in their hill country home in Texas They had helped their grandpa out on his ranch further north from them with three alien encounters first when the aliens arrived at Christmas holidays The Invader once in the following spring The Insider and once last summer The Intruder Now school was in fall session Football season had begun and the boys wanted nothing more than to get back to their routines Earth and Xeracik had made peaceful agreements and in spite of constant human errors the intergalactic relationship was going well. The shocking situation that developed this time however was that the error was not caused by humans. There was a civil war on Xeracik with one side not having peaceful intentions toward Earth. The large historic oak tree on Grandpa's ranch was being used as the portal between the planets. What is going to happen to it? Fortunately for the boys their brother Ryan is a secret agent for interplanetary interactions. Read what happens as once again the boys are drawn into an alien encounter the fourth one in less than a year.

The Instructor Beverly Blackman, 2018-09-11 There has been a breakdown in trust between two planets Earth and Xeracik pronounced Zerasic. What can be done to mend the rift? The friendly alliance between the two planets has been threatened. Will starting an Earth school classroom on Xeracik be a way to fix the problem? What if a first day of school means interacting with aliens? What if the ability of the aliens is much higher and much more intelligent than the ability of the Earth students? How the citizens of the two planets try to understand each other is important and well meaning. Can ETs change into Earth life forms? Can they invade human dreams? What happens when you touch a Xeracikean? What if the aliens are trying to learn more about Earth so Earth can be their new home? Xeracik has become very unstable. The surface of this planet has become worse than any earthquake or active volcano on Earth so the normally peaceful Xeracik may think they have a reason to become aggressive. Besides Earth is a lower form of intelligence so maybe they feel justified to take over the Earth and make it their new home. How would you feel if the future of our planet was dependent upon how you get along with your alien friend? Sometimes we just have to trust that things will work out. Sometimes we have to trust what we don't understand. Sometimes we just dig in and do the best we can.

The Invader Beverly Blackman-Mounce, 2014-10-21 With teamwork and determination what else could be impossible? On a 160 acre ranch in Texas Grandpa Rex peacefully lived. One Christmas season his grandkids and friends visited. Unexpectedly their visits turn into an awesome adventure for all of them. When Beob the man who works in the government lab became obsessed with capturing aliens he started to put everyone at risk just to fulfil his greed. Because of Beob's obsession Grandpa Rex and some of their friends are put in danger and the world's safety is threatened. Only the rest of the family can help in saving Grandpa Rex as well as the entire human race. Will they be able to save Grandpa Rex and the rest of the gang? Will Beob prosper with his evil plans? Will this be the end of everything? Join the gang in their thrilling adventure involving aliens and a whole lot more as you continue to flip the pages.
