Inspiration From Dad To Motor Coach:

Inspiration Stephen J. Brown, 2006-06-30 Inspiration is the story of why the author embarked into the world of motor homing. The story starts with the author's description of the gift his father gave him during life and clarified during his last months of life. His father's clear and concise message was live without regrets and be happy. Since the author's dream was to own a motor home one day, his father's last messages were the guiding forces for the author to fulfill a life-long dream. Subsequent chapters take the reader through the selection, negotiating, and purchasing process the author followed in acquiring his first motor home, Country Coach Inspire. The information presented focuses on Class A diesel pusher motor homes. However, the basic information could provide a valuable resource for those interested in purchasing any class of motor home. Later chapters describe the travels and experiences of the first year and half of ownership. The trips include the famous shakedown trip known to all owners of motor homes, ending with service at the Country Coach factory in Junction City, Oregon. The author then takes the reader across the country as he and his family embark on a history tour of the U.S.

Inspiring Generations Anniversary Story Book Committee, 2014-05-13 On June 30, 1864, amidst the Civil War, President Abraham Lincoln signed the Yosemite Grant Act to protect Yosemite Valley and Mariposa Grove of Giant Sequoias. This act that set aside the first public parkland for future generations was a legacy for our nation and an inspiration to the world. To honor the 150th anniversary of this milestone, a call went out inviting the public to celebrate in prose and poetry the national park they love. The 150 pieces in this book were selected from hundreds of submissions from people who have visited, lived in, or worked in Yosemite National Park. These collected reflections feature, among other things, treks up Half Dome, escapades at The Ahwahnee, revels at the long-gone firefall, and yes, encounters with those bears, and range from the hilarious to the historical, the enlightening to the uplifting. Inspiring Generations will encourage many journeys to the park filled with family, friends, and the stuff memories are made of.
