Squires, 2012-07-31 An exploration of the ways that multiple inequalities are being addressed in Europe Using country based and region specific case studies it provides an innovative comparative analysis of the multidimensional equality regimes that are emerging in Europe and reveals the potential that these have for institutionalizing intersectionality

The Intersectional Approach Michele Tracy Berger, Kathleen Guidroz, 2010-01-01 Intersectionality or the consideration of race class and gender is one of the prominent contemporary theoretical contributions made by scholars in the field of women s studies that now broadly extends across the humanities social sciences and natural sciences Taking stock of this transformative paradigm The Intersectional Approach guides new and established researchers to engage in a critical reflection about the broad adoption of intersectionality that constitutes what the editors call a new social literacy for scholars In eighteen essays contributors examine various topics of interest to students and researchers from a feminist perspective as well as through their respective disciplines looking specifically at gender inequalities related to globalization health motherhood sexuality body image and aging Together these essays provide a critical overview of the paradigm highlight new theoretical and methodological advances and make a strong case for the continued use of the intersectional approach both within the borders of women s and gender studies and beyond

The Politics of Intersectional Practice Ashlee Christoffersen, 2025-05-20 The Politics of Intersectional Practice has been shortlisted for the 2025 BSA Philip Abrams Memorial Prize It is increasingly recognized that to achieve social justice policies and organizations need to apply an intersectional approach rather than addressing inequalities separately However intersectionality is a challenging theory to apply as policy makers and practitioners often navigate the confines of divided policy areas This book examines the use of intersectionality in UK policy and practice with a specific focus on NGOs outlining five distinct interpretations of intersectional practice and their implications Drawing from extensive fieldwork with a diverse range of equality organizations this book offers invaluable insights into how policy and practice can be organized in more and less intersectional ways      Global Intersectionality and Contemporary Human Rights Johanna Bond, 2021-07-22 Global Intersectionality and Contemporary Human Rights argues for an expansive definition of human rights one that encompasses the harm caused by multiple intersecting forms of subordination Intersectionality theory posits that aspects of identity such as race and gender are mutually constitutive and intersect to create unique experiences of discrimination and subordination Perpetrators of sexual violence in armed conflict of example often target women based on both gender and ethnicity Human rights remedies that fail to capture the intersectional nature of human rights violations do not offer comprehensive redress to victims This title explores the influence of intersectionality theory on human rights in the modern era and traces the evolution of intersectionality as a theoretical framework in the United States and around the world It draws upon feminist theory and human rights jurisprudence to argue that scholars and activists have under utilized intersectionality theory in the global discourse of human rights As the central intergovernmental organization charged with the protection of human rights the United Nations has been slow to embrace the insights gained from intersectionality theory This work argues that the United Nations and other human rights organizations must more actively embrace intersectionality as an analytical framework in order to fully address the complexity of human rights violations around the world      The Routledge

International Handbook of Intersectionality Studies Kathy Davis, Helma Lutz, 2023-12-20 Intersectionality is one of the most popular theoretical paradigms in gender studies and feminist theory today Initially developed to explore how gender and race interact in the experiences of US women of colour it has since been taken up in different disciplines and national contexts where it is used to investigate a wide range of intersecting social identities and experiences of exclusion and subordination This volume explores intersectionality studies as a burgeoning international field with a growing body of research which is increasingly drawn upon in policy political interventions and social activism Bringing together contributors from different disciplines and locations The Routledge International Handbook of Intersectionality Studies maps the history and travels of intersectionality between continents and countries and takes up debates surrounding the privileged role of race in intersectional analysis the ways in which intersectional analysis should or should not be carried out and the political implications of thinking intersectional analysis and thought Opening up new avenues of enquiry for a future generation of scholars and practitioners it will appeal to scholars of sociology gender studies politics and cultural studies with interests in feminist thought social identity social exclusion and social inequality      The Gendered Politics of Crises and subordination and discrimination against racial minorities in Europe making it comparable albeit in slightly different ways to the American experience of racial discrimination Anti-Semitism Islamophobia anti-Roma and anti-Black racism constitute a fundamental factor often tacitly accepted in the relationship between law and race in Europe Consequently the broadly shared anti-race and anti-racist position is problematic because it acts to the detriment of victims of racism while privileging the White Christian male majority This book is an original exploration of the relationship between law and race As such it crosses the disciplinary divide furthering both legal scholarship and research in Race and Ethnicity Studies Investigating Cultures of Equality Dorota Golańska, Aleksandra M.
