Oranges and Sunshine Margaret Humphreys, 2011-10-13 Also published as Empty Cradles In 1986 Margaret Humphreys a Nottingham social worker investigated a woman s claim that aged four she had been put on a boat to Australia by the British government At first incredulous Margaret discovered that this was just the tip of an enormous iceberg Up to 150 000 children some as young as three years old had been deported from children s homes in Britain and shipped off to a new life in distant parts of the Empire right up until as recently as 1970 Many were told that their parents were dead and parents often believed that their children had been adopted in Britain In fact for many children it was to be a life of horrendous physical and sexual abuse far away from everything they knew Margaret reveals how she unravelled this shocking secret and how it became her mission to reunite these innocent and unwilling exiles with their families in Britain before it was too late

Progress and pathology Sally Shuttleworth, Melissa Dickson, Emilie Taylor-Brown, 2020-01-31 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This collaborative volume explores changing perceptions of health and disease in the context of the burgeoning global modernities of the nineteenth century With case studies from Britain America France Germany Finland Bengal China and the South Pacific it demonstrates how popular and medical understandings of the mind and body were reframed by the social cultural and political structures of modern life Essays within the collection examine ways in which cancer suicide and social degeneration were seen as products of the stresses and strains of new ways of living Others explore the legal institutional and intellectual changes that contributed to modern medical practice The volume traces ways that physiological and psychological problems were being constituted in relation to each other and to their social contexts and offers new ways of contextualising the problems of modernity facing us in the twenty first century Global Youth Migration and Gendered Modalities Bonifacio, Glenda, 2019-04-17 Youth migration is a global phenomenon and it is gendered This collection presents original studies on gender and youth migration from the 19th century onwards from international and interdisciplinary perspectives An international group of contributors explore the imperial histories of youth migration their identities and sexualities the impact of education policies and practices and the roles contribution and challenges of young migrants in certain industries and services as well as in communities These cross disciplinary themes include cases from Albania Bangladesh Canada Ethiopia France Hungary Italy Philippines Senegal Syria Turkey the United Kingdom and the United States Making Respectable Women Mary Evans, 2020-12-16 This book studies the ways in which the assessment of being or not being respectable has been applied to women in the UK in the past one hundred and fifty years Mary Evans shows how the term respectable has changed and how most importantly the basis of the ways in which the respectability of women has been judged has shifted from a location in women s personal domestic and sexual behaviour to that of how women engage in contemporary forms of citizenship not the least of which is paid work This shift has important social and political implications that have seldom been explored amongst these are the growing marginalisation of the validation of the traditional care work of women the assumption that paid work is implicitly and inevitably empowering and the complex ways in which respectability and conformity to highly sexualised conventions about female appearance have been normalised Making Respectable Women makes use of archive material to show how the changing definition of a moral and social concept can have an impact on both the behaviour and the choices of individuals and the operations of institutional power It will be of interest to students and scholars across the humanities and social sciences A Corrupt Tree: An Encyclopaedia of Crimes committed by the Church of Rome against Humanity and the Human Spirit A.S., 2014-01-13 A Corrupt Tree is a unique extensively researched four volume expos of the dark side of the Church of Rome It reveals that for nearly two thousand years the Church s fundamental characteristic has been its self serving abuse of religio corporate power A large proportion of this first volume provides a detailed catalogue of the multitude of unholy popes Included are those who were immature capricious corrupt lascivious fanatical senile truly mad megalomaniac tyrannical murderous and wholesale killers It confirms that for many many centuries the popes were corrupt cruel inhumane and despotic In an age of savagery they were the leaders in barbarity in the subsequent age of enlightenment they have persistently resisted the march of progress Additionally the popes were wholesale killers who made the principle of assassination a law of the Christian Church Accordingly the Church has shed more innocent blood than any other institution that has ever existed among mankind Here also are presented the cupidity corruption and sexual misconducts of lesser ecclesiastics including cardinals bishops priests monks and nuns Pope Honorius III for example described his priests as worse than beasts wallowing in their dung The Church's ruthless stranglehold on knowledge and learning is catalogued in detail Mathematics philosophy and science were repressed Selected applied theology ruled the world Everything was explained but nothing was understood The chapters on censorship reveal that even works of considerable literary or philosophical merit did not escape A large number of writings which eventually became classics of European culture were condemned and prohibited The Church also exhibited a vitriolic hatred of those who translated the Bible into the vernacular Many of these men were annihilated Holy books were burned in large numbers particularly the Jewish Talmud It is clearly demonstrated that the Church held back civilisation for over fifteen hundred years Century after century passed away and left the peasantry but little better than the cattle in the fields Finally the unholy behaviours of the numerous popes cardinals and lesser ecclesiastics are shown to establish unequivocally that the Church of Rome is neither holy nor apostolic The ultimate message of these volumes is that to become an exemplary institution and to play a truly humane role in the world's future the Catholic Church must change

Imagined Orphans
Lydia Murdoch, 2006-02-16 With his dirty tattered clothes and hollowed out face the image of Oliver Twist is the enduring symbol of the young indigent spilling out of the orphanages and haunting the streets of late nineteenth century London He is the victim of two evils an aristocratic ruling class and more directly neglectful parents Although poor children were often portrayed as real life Oliver Twists either orphaned or abandoned by unworthy parents they in fact frequently maintained contact and were eventually reunited with their families In Imagined Orphans Lydia Murdoch focuses on this discrepancy between the representation and the reality of children's experiences within welfare institutions a discrepancy that she argues stems from conflicts over middle and working class notions of citizenship Reformers efforts to depict poor children as either orphaned or endangered by abusive or no good parents fed upon the poor's increasing exclusion from the Victorian social body Reformers used the public's growing distrust and pitiless attitude toward poor adults to increase charity and state aid to the children With a critical eye to social issues of the period Murdoch urges readers to reconsider the stereotypically dire situation of families living in poverty While reformers motivations seem well intentioned she shows how their methods solidified the public's anti poor sentiment and justified a minimalist welfare state that engendered a cycle of poverty As they worked to fashion model citizens reformers efforts to protect and care for children took on an increasingly imperial cast that would continue into the twentieth century
