and a work enhancement yet most say they just aren't creative. Like beauty and wealth, creativity seems universally desired but insufficiently possessed. Businesses likewise see innovation as essential to productivity and growth but can't bring themselves to risk new ideas. Even as one's inner artist is hyped by a booming self-help industry, creative education dwindles in U.S. schools. Anxious Creativity: When Imagination Fails examines this conceptual mess while focusing on how America's current edginess dampens creativity in everyone. Written in an engaging and accessible style, Anxious Creativity draws on current ideas in the social sciences, economics, and the arts. Discussion centers on the knotty problem of reconciling the expressive potential in all people with the nation's tendency to reward only a few. Fortunately, there is some good news: as scientists, economists, and creative professionals have begun advocating new ways of sharing and collaboration. Building on these prospects, the book argues that America's innovation crisis demands a rethinking of individualism, competition, and the ways creativity is rewarded.

Have Fun with the Presidents David C. King, 2007-04-20 It's important to learn about the U.S. presidents, but it's even better to have fun while doing it. Have Fun with the Presidents is filled with activities, recipes, games, puzzles, profiles, quotes, and fascinating facts about all 42 American presidents from George Washington to George W. Bush. You will learn all kinds of interesting things about the presidents, their families, and the times in which they lived, but this is much more than just a book of facts. The games and activities in Have Fun with the Presidents will give you a better understanding of each president's important contributions, interesting hobbies, and unique personality. In Have Fun with the Presidents, you will learn that Herbert Hoover and his wife spoke Chinese in the White House as a way of maintaining their privacy. Dwight Eisenhower was an enthusiastic cook who loved grilling on the roof of the White House. Two of Theodore Roosevelt's sons managed to sneak a pony into a White House elevator so they could take it to their sick brother's bedroom. George H. W. Bush hated broccoli so much he had it banned from the White House kitchen. And much more.

Feel Better in 5 Rangan Chatterjee, 2020-09-01 It only takes five minutes to start changing your life. For good. Everyone wants to be healthy. But thanks to the unceasing distractions in modern life, virtually everyone also struggles to maintain this priority. And thanks to a flood of conflicting opinions and complicated programs, figuring out how to be healthy can be overwhelming. But what if all it took to make a real difference was five minutes of your day? If you've ever struggled to prioritize your health or started an intensive plan only to stop days, weeks, or months later, it's not your fault. Behavioral science shows that most plans simply aren't built to last. Already a #1 bestseller in the UK, Feel Better in 5 outlines a daily five-minute plan that is easy to follow, easy to maintain, and requires minimum willpower. From Dr. Rangan Chatterjee, a pioneer in the emerging field of progressive medicine and star of BBC's Doctor in the House, Feel Better in 5 draws on his 20 years of experience, including real-life case studies from his medical practice, to identify simple, effective strategies that will help you become healthier, happier, and less stressed. Inside, discover: A strength workout that you can do anywhere. Gut-boosting snacks you can eat on the go. Yoga moves to relax and stay supple. Breathing exercises to calm the mind. This is my story. This is my story of my experiences when my husband Harvey Ratney was in the last stages of Alzheimer's Disease as told through email messages to friends and family. As clearly as I could I told how I felt while Harvey and I experienced our lives as the days and months passed. I will take you on a day to day journey with me as I struggle to balance life with other family members with my husband's and my business and daily activities all the while seeking the best available care for my husband. While Alzheimer's is a tragic disease my story is not tragic. Every day brought moments of intense love times of joy and unexpected humor. In seeking to understand how I could best care for my husband I met new friends and helpers strengthened my relationship with friends and family in our isolated eastern Montana community and found a support group who will remain with me through the remainder of my life. I am aware that often my fears my frustrations and my helplessness my love colored my observations and my perceptions. I mean no offense to anyone. I appreciate the gentleness and dedication of the caregivers who worked with us. I appreciate the care and support of my friends. Green Arrow (2011-) #48 Benjamin Percy, 2016-01-06 As a result of the traumatic effects of the recent ANNUAL 1 Oliver Queen has contracted the Lukos virus.
