Love Letters From A Rugby Player:

The Animals: Love Letters Between Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy Christopher Isherwood, Don Bachardy, 2014-05-13 The love story between Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy in their own words Christopher Isherwood was the celebrated middle aged English author of Goodbye to Berlin when he met the Californian teenager Don Bachardy on a Santa Monica beach in 1952 Defying convention the two created an enduring relationship out of that initial spark living as an openly gay couple for more than three decades in the closeted world of Hollywood The Animals is the testimony in letters of their extraordinary partnership which lasted until Isherwood's death in 1986 despite a thirty year age gap affairs jealousies the pressures of literary fame and the disdain of twentieth century America for love between two men In romantic letters to each other they invented the private world of the Animals Chris was Dobbin a stubborn old workhorse Don was a rash spirited white kitten named Kitty The ability to create a world a safe and separate milieu was a great talent of Isherwood's and a necessary one as a gay man in mid twentieth century America But Isherwood knew how to spread hay around his stable and attract beauty He drew Bachardy into his semisecret realm and together they invented a place for their love to thrive Bold transgressive and playful The Animals shows us the devotion between two creative spirits in tenderness and storms

Where's Noddy? Martin Hill-Jones, 2013-08-07 A very British institution is the Holiday Camp At the heart of Pontins Holidays was the entertainments team the Bluecoats When not running competitions and bingo introducing cabaret acts acting as compere for Glamorous Grandmother and Talent shows and performing in the weekly Bluecoat Show they mingled with guests camper telling jokes being charming and being pretty adept at the waltz and the foxtrot An oft asked question was What do you do in the winter In 1982 two Bluecoats one from Wales one from Scotland found themselves working together and falling in love At the end of the season separated their love letters answered this question In an age before mobile phones texts social networking digital cameras and the Internet these letters explore the difficulties frustrations doubts and occasional hilarity of loving at a distance and surviving Thatchers Britain The letters span the period from near the end of the 1982 season to the start of the 1984 season and cover working at three Pontin's Holiday Camps
