To Bring Comfort and Consolation Paddy Shannon, 2022-05-19 In 2012, the author was invited by the Parish Pastoral Council in Newcastle Co. Down to help establish a Bereavement Ministry in the Parish. Unable to find exactly the course structure he was looking for, he designed his own course. He has divided it into five sections: The Human Experience of Grief, drawing on my own experiences and what some of the leading experts in grief have written; The Liturgy of Mourning, as used in the Catholic Church; Grief in the Scriptures, setting elements of section 1 within a scriptural context; A selection of suggested Scripture readings with reflections and some sample prayers of intercession. These are intended to be used by ordained and lay ministers for their personal reflection and in preparing funeral homilies. They may also be of solace to grieving people. A selection of prose poems and prayers. This book is directed primarily to those involved in bereavement ministry.

Remember Death Matthew McCullough, 2025-06-10 The Best Way to Find Meaning in Life Is to Get Honest About Death. Life expectancy worldwide is twice what it was a hundred years ago. And because of modern medicine, many of us don't often see death up close. That makes it easy to live as if death is someone else's problem. Ignoring the certainty of death doesn't protect us from feeling its effects throughout the lives we're living now, but it does hold us back from experiencing the powerful everyday relevance of Jesus's promises to us. So long as death remains remote and unreal, Jesus's promises will too. But honesty about death brings hope to life. That's the ironic claim at the heart of this book.

Cultivating death awareness helps us bring the promises of Jesus from the hazy clouds of some other world into the everyday realities of our world where they belong Insightful and Accessible Draws from many sources including research from science and psychology and examples from literature pop culture theology and Scripture Christ Centered Encouragement for Life and Loss Teaching what the Bible says about identity futility and grief McCullough offers hope that is tied to the promises of God Replaces ISBN 978 1 4335 6053 8 The Precious and Sacred Writings of Martin Luther ... Martin Luther,1909
