Walking Italy Rachael Martin, 2024-12-30 Walking holidays have become more popular and it certainly looks like they re here to stay In 2022 Mintel found that walking is the UK s most popular active holiday while in June 2023 the New York Times ran a headline that claimed 2023 as the year of the walk Whether it s setting off on a long walk or going walking for the day it doesn t get much better than doing it in Italy Italy has it all mountains hilltop towns medieval squares olive groves vineyards Renaissance art routes which speak the stories of people and places This is a book about walking that s not necessarily for walkers It s for those who love walking and go regularly but it s also aimed at beginners those of us who enjoy a walk followed by lunch or dinner in a medieval square and a night at a cosy B B Maybe you ll never actually go on any of the walks This is also the book for you It s full of the history and stories of routes and places so you can go on your own journey from the comfort of your living room It gives you all the relevant links you ll need such as up to date maps detailed routes GPS navigation updates further reading and advice on the walking itself Start reading start dreaming and maybe you too could be walking through Italy soon

Walking Amalfi - part I & II Vincent Giasolli, 2016-09-16 Our goal was to start in Maiori and hike to Sorrento stopping at a different place each night We planned our route using the travel guide Landscapes of Sorrento Amalfi Coast and Capri walks and car tours published by Sunflower Books We concluded staying in a different location each night was not possible The logistics of whether to carry a tent and sleeping bag was an unanswered question Finally we concluded that staying in one place for the week was practical economical and sensible We studied the maps and routes for a month and realized many of the places we wanted to explore were in and around Sorrento All buses leave from Sorrento each morning so it made sense that Sorrento would be our base camp We would get a room for a week and took the bus each morning to our daily hike A week stay is less expensive and we could leave the majority of our supplies in the room taking only what we needed each day
