Holy Smoke Anna Campion:

Holy Smoke Anna Campion, Jane Campion, 1999 A young Australian woman in India finds herself caught up in an obscure cult Her family lures her home and forces her to undergo deprogramming by a cult specialist But her resistance has a dramatic effect on him and their relationship soon achieves psycho sexual proportions escalating to a shocking conclusion

Holy Smoke Anna Campion, Jane Campion, 2000 The erotic story of a beautiful young woman Ruth who falls under the spell of an Indian guru Desperate to rescue her her family tricks her into returning to Australia where she is forced to submit to the deprogramming skills of P J Waters P J hasn t reckoned with Ruth s determination Jane Campion Dana

Polan, 2019-07-25 With the phenomenal success of The Piano 1993 Jane Campion became revered by many as the leading female film director of the 1990s In this book Dana Polan examines the phenomenon of The Piano and how it develops from the early shorts and first features which evoke an often surreal and critical distanced style of looking at everyday issues Looking at all of Campion s work before and since including Holy Smoke 1999 which returned again to the battleground of gender politics the author concludes his survey of the director s work by offering some hypotheses about the erotic thriller The Cut 2001 whilst asking what variety of approaches to the study of directors might now be fruitful Jane Campion

Bernadette Wegenstein, 2025-01-23 Throughout films and television series like The Piano Bright Star In the Cut and Top of the Lake Jane Campion has constantly explored gender subjectivity and narrative representation In an intensive engagement with her cross medium career Bernadette Wegenstein examines how Campion gives a tangible and visible form to the female gaze in her exploration deployment and ultimately her subversion of highly formalized genres such as the period piece the thriller and the procedural drama Keeping a strict focus on her directorial practice and specifically on the capacity of her cinematography to induce both empathy and estrangement this vital new book shows how Campion is engaged in a permanent artistic and intuitive exposition of a profoundly feminist philosophical vision Wegenstein s work will be invaluable to scholars and students in gender and women s studies film studies and those on philosophy and film courses A Critical

Companion to Jane Campion Elsa Colombani, Eurydice Da Silva, 2024-11-25 A Critical Companion to Jane Campion offers a thorough and detailed study of the works of Jane Campion This edited volume seeks a modern approach by blurring the frontiers between film and television film theater releases and platforms and treats the entirety of Campion s her body of work as a meaningful whole The chapters explore recurring themes and connections across Campion s oeuvre including her complex feminine characters exploration of New Zealand landscapes love for literature constant dialogue between media and the influence of the Gothic Contributors draw on a variety of scholarly approaches methodologies and perspectives to provide innovative readings of Campion s work that are sure to spark new discussions Jane Campion Kathleen McHugh, 2007-05

views of family dynamics and those that benefit from additional insight such as her place in the feminist filmmaking tradition This volume also investigates Campion s distinct cinematic style in light of these issues to examine the source of her enduring cross cultural and international appeal Contributors in the first section explore the creation of subjectivity and identity in Campion s films which include well known works like The Piano and Holy Smoke to trace the unique perspectives of Campion s characters and Campion herself as director In the second section essays analyze Campion s close relationship with literature and argue that the singular vision in her literary adaptations stems from her New Zealand background and her personal mythology Contributors in the third section argue that while Campion devotes considerable attention to the evocation of feminine internal space she also uses the symbolic potential of her external physical locations to register what is taking place in the inner life of her characters and reflect their search for personal fulfillment A final group of essays presents a variety of responses to Campion s films demonstrating that Campion is a highly personal and idiosyncratic director who nonetheless manages to fascinate viewers across a broad cultural spectrum Taken together contributors in Jane Campion Cinema Nation Identity present a compelling analysis of Campion s status as a leading female filmmaker with close attention to her distinctive cinematic style and particular mise en scene The collective nature of this volume will appeal to students and teachers of film literature and gender studies as well as fans of Campion s work comprehensive overview of the director Jane Campion and her work Campion is one of the few women film makers working today who has managed to create a unique body of work A true independent film maker she has attracted many A List Hollywood actors to appear in her films Who else but Campion could have convinced a tattooed Harvey Keitel to run buck naked through the New Zealand landscape in The Piano or for the multi award winning Kate Winslet to pee down her legs in the middle of the desert in Holy Smoke Campion is also an outspoken champion in recent debates about the lack of women in senior creative positions within the film industry This book covers Jane Campion's remarkable career from her Palme d'Or winning debut short film Peel to her recent return to television with the Top of the Lake series reflecting on the influence of her study in anthropology as well as her formative years growing up in New Zealand

Reviews Ellen Cheshire's rich and thoughtful study accessibly and incisively gets us to the heart of why Jane Campion's films connect with viewers around the world This book is hugely enjoyable and insightful James Clarke Writer Media Labs what you need to know I've been fascinated with Jane Campion's career ever since I saw The Piano make its debut at the movie theater Ellen Cheshire did a very good job in detailing the gifted Campion's brilliant career Diane H NetGalley The strength of the book for me is the critical analysis from early short films to box office successes ranging from the actors involved and the awards gained I particularly like the appraisal of mood colour camera angles and locations which brings the movies alive again for me A bit like those special box sets and DVDs that carried extra edited bits and alternative scenes endings Richard L Net Galley About the author Ellen Cheshire has a BA Hons in Film and English and a MA in Gothic Studies and has taught Film at Undergraduate and A Level She has published books on Bio Pics Audrey Hepburn and The Coen Brothers and contributed chapters to books on James Bond Charlie Chaplin Global Film making Film Form Fantasy Films and War Movies For Supernova Books she has also written In the Scene Ang Lee and contributed to Silent Women pioneers of Cinema eds Melody Bridges and Cheryl Robson voted best book on Silent Film 2016 and Counterculture UK a celebration eds Rebecca Gillieron and Cheryl Robson

Women Screenwriters Today Marsha Mccreadie, 2005-12-30 The question of whether women write from a unique perspective has been debated since the silent era McCreadie examines how this female sensibility has been defined and whether in fact it exists at all Such films as Lost in Translation and Monster suggest that women screenwriters are moving in a new direction heading away from the big budget action movies that dominate Hollywood today But action driven genre films like the thrillers of Alexandra Seros seem to belie the perception that women write films that are more dialogue and character driven than those of male screenwriters Whether or not women actually write differently from men and about different topics the author's unique approach working with and through the words and lives of the women screenwriters themselves allows both readers and writers an otherwise unattainable look into the ever growing and ever more essential world of women in Hollywood Over the course of cinematic history women screenwriters have played an essential role in the creation of the films we watch The question of whether women write from a unique perspective has been debated since the silent era Marsha McCreadie examines how this female sensibility has been defined and questions whether in fact it exists at all The emergence of such films as Lost in Translation and Monster would seem to suggest that women screenwriters are moving in a new direction heading away from the big budget action movies that dominate Hollywood today

But there can always be found an Alexandra Seros for instance whose thrillers would seem to prove the opposite case. Working through these contradictions Marsha McCreadie takes a captivating look at the words and lives of women screenwriters allowing readers an otherwise unattainable look into the ever growing and ever more essential world of women in film. Readers interested in film and women's studies will especially enjoy reading Marsha McCreadie's discussions of such films as Little Women, The Thomas Crown Affair, The Piano, Pollock and Under the Tuscan Sun. Interviews with major women players in the movie business including Sofia Coppola, Lost in Translation and Emma Thompson. Sense and Sensibility allow readers a unique chance to learn firsthand how women are trying to enter the business how they pursue and approach the topics they love and how they have managed to survive and prosper in the unforgiving world of modern cinema. By talking with writers working in Hollywood, Australia, New Zealand and Europe Marsha McCreadie provides film fans with an international perspective on the increasingly global film industry.

Roger Ebert's Movie Yearbook 2002 Roger Ebert, 2001-10. When America wants to know movies it turns to Roger Ebert the only film critic to be awarded the Pulitzer Prize for criticism. Roger Ebert's Movie Yearbook 2002 presents all of Ebert's reviews from January 1999 to mid June 2001. This annual volume required reading for film fans also contains all of his interviews and essays for the year the biweekly Questions for the Movie Answer Man his daily notebooks from major film festivals plus a list of all movies and star ratings ever appearing in an edition of this annual collection.

The New York Times Film Reviews 1999-2000 New York Times Theater Reviews, 2001-12. From the Oscar winning blockbusters American Beauty and Shakespeare in Love to Sundance oddities like American Movie and The Tao of Steve to foreign films such as All About My Mother the latest volume in this popular series features a chronological collection of facsimiles of every film review and awards article published in The New York Times between January 1999 and December 2000. Includes a full index of personal names, titles and corporate names. This collection is an invaluable resource for all libraries.

Mothers of Invention So Mayer, Corinn Columpar, 2022-04-05. This collection belongs on the bookshelves of students and scholars of cinema and media studies, feminist and queer media studies, labor studies, filmmaking and production and cultural studies.
