Home Going Poetry For A Season:

Home Going Carolyn Weber, 2015-02-17 Home Going Poetry for a Season is the first print collection of poetry from award winning author Carolyn Weber. Weber weaves together an affinity for place, nature and journey and takes her readers on a diverse path of both landscapes as well as several topical spiritual journeys in the daily life of Christian faith. This volume includes poems from Weber's previously published digital only collections True North and Summering along with 13 new poems. The poetry in this collection echoes the signature style of Weber's prose in her recent memoir Surprised by Oxford which has been distinguished with multiple international awards including the Grace Irwin Literary Prize designated for the 2014 Christian book of the year by a Canadian Author. Christian poetry The Art of Living in Season Sylvie Vanhoozer, 2024-04-09 Continuing the tradition of nativities peopled by santons Sylvie Vanhoozer brought these little saints from her native Provence to England, Scotland and the United States. Now she invites readers to join the tradition in the rhythms of nature and the church calendar through weekly reflections and her own botanical illustrations. The 5th Season: New year ku (books 1 & 2 of 4) Robin D. Gill, 2007 In this book the first of a series Robin D. Gill author of the highly acclaimed Rise Ye Sea Slugs and Cherry Blossom Epiphany the largest single theme anthologies of poetry ever published explores the traditional Japanese New Year through 2 000 translated haiku mostly 17 20c. The New Year R. H. Blyth once wrote is a season by itself. That was nowhere so plain as in the world of haiku where saijiki large collections called of ku illustrating hundreds if not thousands of briefly explained seasonal themes generally comprised five volumes one for each season. Yet the great doyen of haiku gave this fifth season considered the first season when it came at the head of the Spring rather than in mid winter only a tenth of the pages he gave to each of the other four seasons 20 vs 200. Was Blyth Zen enthusiast not enamored with ritual. Or was he loath to translate the New Year with its many cultural idiosyncrasies most common to the Sinosphere but not to the West because he did not want to have to explain the haiku. It is hard to say but with these poems for the re creation of the world Robin D. Gill aka keigu respect foolishness or respect fool rushes in where even Blyth feared to tread to give this supernatural or cosmological season one that combines aspects of the Solstice Christmas New Year's Easter July 4th and the Once Upon a Time of Fairy Tales the attention it deserves. With G. K. Chesterton's words evoking the mind of the haiku poets of old the author/publisher leaves further description of the content to his reader/reviewers. The man standing in his own kitchen garden with the fairyland opening at the gate is the man with large ideas. His mind creates distance the motor car stupidly destroys it. G. K. Chesterton Heretics 1905 Out Of Season Brighter Writers, 2011-01-18 2010 saw a bumper crop of entries to the Fylde Brighter Writers Circle Prize Competition. For the first time we asked for poetry submissions as well as short stories and once again we were astonished to receive entries from all over the globe. This collection showcases both the winning entries and our own tales and poems. Anne Wilson and Cheryl O'Brien provided us with the winners from the Short Story and Poetry Competitions respectively but we are lucky enough to be able to include excellent stories from Douglas Bruton Paul Curd Richard Lakin Bruce Harris and Tony Bell along with evocative poems from Stephen Beattie Simone Mansell Broome and Edyth Ward

The Irrational Season Madeleine L'Engle, 2016-11-29 The bestselling author of A Wrinkle in Time contemplates the true meaning of faith in the third installment of her series of memoirs Upon her death the New York Times hailed Madeleine L'Engle as an author whose childhood fables religious meditations and fanciful science fiction transcended both genre and generation L'Engle has long captivated and provoked readers by exploring the intersection of science and religion in her work In this intimate memoir the award winning author uncovers how her spiritual convictions inform and enrich the everyday The Irrational Season follows the liturgical year from one Advent to the next with L'Engle reflecting on the changing seasons in her own life as a writer wife mother and global citizen Unafraid to discuss controversial topics and address challenging questions L'Engle writes from the heart in this compelling chronicle of her spiritual quest to renew and refresh her faith in an ever changing world and her ever changing personhood This ebook features an illustrated biography of Madeleine L'Engle including rare images from the author's estate

Newdick's Season of Frost William A. Sutton, Robert S. Newdick, 1976-06-30 In 1935 Professor Robert Newdick of Ohio State University wrote to Robert Frost already America's most famous living poet in order to suggest certain revisions in the arrangement of the poet's collected poems The brief letter was to begin a relationship of nearly five years ending only with Newdick's untimely death in 1939 in which Newdick assiduously gathered materials from a wide variety of sources for a projected but not authorized Frost biography Although only part about 100 pages of the biography was actually written Newdick left behind him several files of factual data as well as observations and comments by Frost and by many people who knew him These materials have not heretofore been published nor were they used in any subsequent biography In the present volume William A. Sutton brings together Newdick's partial biography with his various notes and letters adding a narrative of the Frost-Newdick relationship which sheds new light on the poet and on the identity of poets With Newdick as with subsequent researchers the fiction making Frost was often playing a game of hide and seek so that he would never be completely found out as a mere empirical datum although there is evidence that his candor with Newdick was at times greater than it would be in later years Newdick a perceptive admirer of Frost's poetry had to struggle with his own realizations of such Frostian characteristics as secretiveness ambivalence and capriciousness and so the book reveals a great poet who could be both generous and arch a professor relentless in his search for information a famous man fitfully bothered then amused by a young academic's earnest efforts on his behalf and a biographer devoted to but at times exhausted by the demands of his biographical subject Frost appears as one who thought of both biography and biographer as attractive nuisances The original materials brought together here manifest therefore both a kind of biography and a chronicle of the act of biography a fresh look at the creative personality and a running account of how a biographer attempts to bring such a personality into focus
