Gutiérrez, Dana Salvo, Salvatore Scalora, William H. Beezley, 1997 At the heart of many homes in Mexico is the altarcito or home altar private shrines which have profound personal and familial meaning and reflect the vitality of Mexico's spiritual practices The photographs in this collection depict the altars in detail Some are constructed for special holidays Christmas or the Day of the Dead while others commemorate family members using photographs mementoes and the deceased's favourite foods Living Shrines Marie Romero Cash, 1998 The tradition of home shrines first began evolving in the American Southwest during the Mexican colonial period when priests often travelled to homes to perform mass novenas baptisms and marriages a practice that continues today This colourful book features the personal altars of mostly Hispanic families living in the towns and villages of northern New Mexico Most are devoutly Catholic and although Roman Catholic dogma does not officially recognise home shrines the altar tradition for most Hispanos is a sign of being Catholic from the heart Their private altars allow for devotion in daily life a practice embraced by those of all beliefs who desire personal sacred places to meditate pray or reflect These portraits will serve as an inspiration for even the least devout among us desiring more spirituality in our lives Home Altars of Mexico Dana Salvo, Home Altars of Mexico, 1991
