Kasturi Rangan, This collection of 8 stories for children and the age defying adults has been written over a period of many years now The first story was written some 10 years back and I had no idea that one day I will bring it out as a compendium of my short stories The feedbacks I received when I published the first ones as stand alone stories propelled me without a conscious but irresistible rudder towards this goal I write a story without any set boundary or time when I feel like it towards the act of writing I simply put down on paper the incessant urge I feel to weave a story Some of these stories started with just an off hand comment from a colleague or friend whereas others were more of an exertion of thought towards reaching a certain goal The goal is always to produce a story that will be liked by children as well as by adults who are still young at heart Physical age is not counted Most of the stories that I see for children nowadays seem to me to be preachy They seem to treat the child as a vessel of change by turning their thoughts towards behaving better or giving out some morals to shape their course of life Its as if we adults some only in appearance want the child to behave or live an utopian life when such utopia exists only in our dreams I have tried my best to refrain from such efforts and to treat kids as kids and provide them a situation a problem and a possible solution The teaching part is left out and the learning is for to the child to figure out If the story puts a smile on the face of the reader I shall feel my purpose is achieved I strongly feel that a child should be left alone to enjoy his or her childhood They shall soon have to grow up and conform to societal and other pressures The pressure to live in a certain way will come with time These stories are meant to provide them an alternative way to enjoy their time and to plot for their next adventure The adventure called Life Thanks to all who knowingly or surreptitiously helped with the course of these stories Their comments and behaviours have made these stories flow sometimes into unknown territories from which I had to struggle hard to rescue them and sometimes myself as well I hope you like them Illustrations for the stories have been done by Sahayaa Jeevan Thanks a lot for your help P Kasturi Rangan Ebony ,1979-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Collected Stories of Colette Colette,1983 100 stories dating from 1908 to 1945 An Empire Story Henrietta Elizabeth Marshall,1908 Godey's Magazine ,1884 Growing Up Muslim Andrew Garrod,Robert Kilkenny,2014-04-11 While 9 11 and its aftermath created a traumatic turning point for most of the writers in this book it is telling that none of their essays begin with that moment These young people were living probing and shifting their Muslim identities long before 9 11 I ve heard it said that the second generation never asks the first about its story but nearly all the essays in this book include long intimate portrayals of Muslim family life often going back generations These young Muslims are constantly negotiating the differences between families for whom faith and culture were matters of honor and North America s youth culture with its emphasis on questioning exploring and inventing one s own destiny from the Introduction by Eboo Patel In*Growing Up Muslim* Andrew Garrod and Robert Kilkenny present fourteen personal essays by college students of the Muslim faith who are themselves immigrants or are the children of immigrants to the United States In their essays the students grapple with matters of ethnicity religious prejudice and misunderstanding and what is termed Islamophobia The fact of 9 11 and subsequent surveillance and suspicion of Islamic Americans particularly those hailing from the Middle East and the Asian Subcontinent have had a profound effect on these students their families and their communities of origin
