By re viewing their own learning outlook they may begin to advance deeper critical ideas and debates in education They may come to re represent education reminding public consciousness of its human stories as well as its curious intricate and powerful qualities And they may re discover other roads to raise a scholar Teachers educational researchers parents and guardians will be particularly interested readers Inside Education is a thought provoking challenging and revealing journey inside the world of education and learning Its exploration of school and classroom practices in a range of different settings provides important insights into how we learn a central aspect of our education system which remains overlooked and understudied In doing so it lays down a challenge to policy makers and educators everywhere to think differently about the way we learn and ultimately help students fulfil their real potential Carl O'Brien Chief Reporter for The Irish Times Inside Education is a stunning example of passionate scholarship that nonetheless refuses a redemptionist stance The ethnography captures people and contexts and draws the reader into the four sites of learning in fluent and lyrical prose This is facilitated by the extensive use of research notes deploying historical comparative literary artistic and scholarly sources Denis O'Sullivan Emeritus Professor of Education University College Cork Ireland

Assessment in Practice Alicia Curtin, Kevin Cahill, Kathy Hall, Dan O'Sullivan, Kamil Özerk, 2019-10-01 Assessment in Practice explores timely and important questions in relation to assessment By examining the relationship between identity culture policy and inclusion the book investigates the conflicted and fractured battleground of assessment and challenges current and practiced understandings of assessment practice The authors encourage the reader to reconceptualise assessment as a sociocultural practice Each chapter studies a key theme in the understanding of assessment policy and practice from a sociocultural perspective and provides questions to prompt reflection on the key assessment concepts outlined in the book Using culture as both a lens and analytic tool the chapters examine topics such as The social order of assessment how assessment works in the world and how learning could be assessed Perspectives on social justice and assessment with a particular focus on social class and other potential inequalities on the experiences of assessment for young people Discussions of ability and the assessment of students with special education needs as well as the role of inclusivity in assessment practice Written by leading academics from University College Cork the third volume in the successful Routledge Current Debates in Educational Psychology series is an essential read for researchers and postgraduate students in educational research and education psychology

Drawing on Students' Worlds in the ELA Classroom Richard Beach, 2022-04-21 This book approaches English instruction through the lens of figured worlds which recognizes and spotlights how students are actively engaged in constructing their own school peer group extracurricular and community worlds Teachers ability not only to engage with students experiences and interests in and outside of school but also to build connections between students worlds and their teaching is essential for promoting student agency engagement and meaningful learning Beach and Caraballo provide an accessible framework for working with students to use critical discourse narratives media genres and more to support their identity development through addressing topics that are meaningful for them their families social issues virtual worlds and more Through extensive activities and examples of students writing about their participation in these worlds this text allows educators to recognize how students experiences in the classroom affect and shape their identities and to connect such an understanding to successful classroom practice With chapters featuring effective instructional activities this book is necessary reading for ELA methods courses and for all English teachers Transition From Pedagogy to Andragogy Leslie A. Cordie,2025-06-20 Featuring contributions from experts across various countries this book explores how higher education systems are adapting to the specific needs of adult learners while engaging with global trends Storying the Public Intellectual Pat Sikes,Yvonne Novakovic,2019-10-17 Storying the Public Intellectual Commentaries on the Impact and Influence of the Work of Ivor Goodson offers a critical commentary on Goodson's work that avoids hagiography whilst recognising the global reach of his scholarship With contributors from around the world those who have collaborated with him or those who have taken up his work the book provides the sort of social and historical contextualising that Goodson has always advocated The accounts in this collection highlight how Goodson's integration of moral imperatives into strategically responsive scholarship can provide a useful roadmap when negotiating a path through the contemporary academic research landscape By using his historian's orientation and sensibilities he is able to get to the heart of the logics of schooling By connecting with other scholars and researchers around the world he exposes how the global neo liberal project plays out in particular settings and so challenges pervasive understandings about the meaning of global and the power of the neo liberal project itself This book is ideal reading for academics scholars and researchers in the field of education including those involved in initial and in service teacher education Negotiating Neoliberalism Tim Rudd,Ivor F. Goodson,2017-01-28 Following the financial crises in 2007 we have seen the intensification of neoliberal policies in education with radical and potentially irrevocable shifts in the educational landscape promoted under the auspices of austerity This book highlights the central features of neoliberal education policies their origins recent developments and also their inherent weaknesses and flaws It provides insights into the day to day realities and negative impacts of recent policies on the professional practice and work of educators demonstrating how the changing conditions have led to de professionalisation alienation and a loss of professional autonomy and identity The book also provides a set of accounts that detail the new realities emerging as a result of austerity policies and questions the degree to which austerity has actually been developed as an ideological cover story for the further monetisation and privatisation of public services The various chapters challenge the common assumption that the neoliberal project is a monolithic orthodoxy by highlighting its complexities variations and contradictions in the ways policies are refracted through action and practice in different contexts The book also challenges the common assumption that there are no viable alternatives to neoliberal education policies and does so by presenting a range of different examples theoretical perspectives discourses and alternative practices It is argued that such alternatives not only highlight the range of different approaches choices and possibilities but also provide the seedbed for a reimagined educational future The authors offer a range of conceptual and theoretical insights and analyses that highlight the weaknesses and limitations inherent within the neoliberal education project and also illustrate the dangers in following the prevailing hegemonic discourse and trajectories It is postulated that alternative educational approaches warrant greater and urgent attention because history suggests that rather than having weathered the recent economic crisis we may well be witnessing the long tail of decline for the neoliberal project This book will be useful for educators researchers students and policy makers interested in the detrimental effects of neoliberal education the range of viable alternatives and the routes to resistance and ways of reimagining alternative educational futures The Art Teacher's Guide to Exploring Art and Design in the Community Ilona Szekely,2021-09-09

How can community art build connection in diverse communities Where is the art in contemporary libraries How do you bring subway art into the classroom Drawing on an abundance of examples from Finland Italy New Zealand Spain and the USA including the NYC 2nd Ave Subway the Detroit s Heidelberg Project the Favel Painting Foundation and bicycle rack sculpture Szekely inspires readers to look beyond the classroom walls to develop meaningful art experiences for students She shows the myriad art forms media expressions and design professions that have the influence and potential to shape the local environment reaching far beyond the traditional museum and gallery venue Underpinned by a clear philosophical foundation the field tested approaches show readers how to go beyond the study of reproductions or dwelling on of the masters who are framed in art museums instead having meaningful art experiences using everyday objects and diverse collective experiences She also shows that innovative and exciting art lessons don t need large amounts of funding transportation or even a museum within the local community Each chapter includes photographs talking points and key lesson ideas along with links to further resources

Developing Literacy and the Arts in Schools Georgina Barton,2019-07-31 The teaching of the arts and literacy in schools is often at odds with one another The desire for schools to improve results on high stakes testing can lead to a narrow view of literacy rather than one that acknowledges the unique and distinct literacies that exist in other curriculum areas including the arts With methods of communication becoming increasingly complex it will be more and more important for students to be able to utilise all semiotic modes Developing Literacy and the Arts in Schools investigates this key issue in education and offers a solution to the negative relationship between the arts and literacy Drawing on interview data and evidence from diverse classrooms it explores the pedagogies of effective arts practitioners and teachers and how they relate to theoretical frameworks to unpack the key elements of effective practice related to literacy and the arts A model of arts literacies is provided to assist arts and literacy educators in developing a common language that acknowledges and values these distinct arts literacies Themes of multimodality diversity aesthetics and reflection in relation to the arts and literacy are foregrounded throughout This book will be of great value to postgraduate students of Education specialising in arts and literacy education academics teacher educators and classroom and preservice teachers
