 Robert Macadam, Francis Joseph Bigger, Robert Magill Young, 1858 Finding the Virgin Mary Judith M. Davis, 2024-12-15
 Stories about the Virgin Mary began to appear in the second century a spring of tradition that branched off from the mainstream teaching of the canonical gospels This developed into a torrent of texts about Mary her relationship with God and her motherhood This book translates and interprets such stories about Mary from the beginnings of Christianity to modern times The narrative or story theology of these works shows her to be a partner with her son Jesus in the work of salvation Early stories depict Mary as chosen from childhood and she is shown at the Last Supper with other women Medieval tales recount the miracles she works to cure both physical and moral failings Stories of her appearances Our Lady of Guadalupe Mexico Our Lady of Lourdes France and Our Lady of Fatima Portugal have been told and retold across the centuries Today Mary is still seen as an icon of women's agency celebrated in song film and art of every kind This book uncovers her history and reveals her power through the life and message of this woman of faith Story Movements Caty Borum
 Chattoo, 2020-05-20 Story Movements How Documentaries Empower People and Inspire Social Change explores the rise of social issue documentaries focusing on the behind the scenes grassroots tactics and real world social impact of such influential films as Blackfish The Invisible War 13th and Citizenfour Archiving Creole Voices Marl'ene Edwin, 2024-12-20
Archiving Creole Voices Representations of Language and Culture begins with a re-reading of selected texts by female Caribbean writers specifically Joan Anim Addo Olive Senior and Merle Collins and proclaims that literary fiction can and does function as a creolised archive Marl'ene Edwin argues that historic marginalisation which has barred Caribbean scholars from entering formal archival spaces has created an alternative discourse Consequently Caribbean writers have chosen the imagined landscapes of literature a new archival space for the Caribbean within which to document and preserve Caribbean cultural traditions Fiction allows for the safeguarding of traditions so how then should Caribbean literature be read The combination of a physical and a virtual archive questions the literary and linguistic interface that such a mingling entails in a preservation of Caribbean culture Edwin argues for an appreciation of orality as performance as well as the reading of texts as creolised archive Imprisoned Intellectuals Joy James, 2004-09-01 Prisons constitute one of the most controversial and contested sites in a democratic society The United States has the highest incarceration rate in the industrialized world with over 2 million people in jails prisons and detention centers with over three thousand on death row it is also one of the few developed countries that continues to deploy the death penalty International Human Rights Organizations such as Amnesty International have also noted the scores of political prisoners in U S detention This anthology examines a class of intellectuals whose analyses of U S society politics culture and social justice are rarely referenced in conventional political speech or academic discourse Yet this body of outlawed public intellectuals offers some of the most incisive analyses of our society and shared humanity Here former and current U S political prisoners and activists writers from the civil rights black power women s gay lesbian American Indian Puerto Rican Independence and anti war movements share varying progressive critiques and theories on radical democracy and revolutionary struggle This rarely referenced resistance literature reflects the growing public interest in incarceration sites intellectual and political dissent for social justice and the possibilities of democratic transformations Such anthologies also spark new discussions and debates about reading for as Barbara Harlow notes Reading prison writing must demand a correspondingly activist counterapproach to that of passivity aesthetic gratification and the pleasures of consumption that are traditionally sanctioned by the academic disciplining of literature Barbara Harlow 1 1 Barbara Harlow Barred Women Writing and Political Detention New England Wesleyan University Press 1992 Royalties are reserved for educational initiatives on human rights and U S incarceration
