Inside Their Minds Rochelle Jackson:

Partners and Crime Rochelle Jackson, 2012-03-01 A fascinating exploration of the women who love the baddest of the bad boys including the wife of Mark Chopper Read What attracts women to dangerous men For some it is true love while for others it is the excitement wealth and glamour What was it like for Mary Ann Hodge to be married to Mark Chopper Read How was Joe Korp's former girlfriend Tania Herman persuaded to try to kill his wife Maria And why did hairdresser Sylvia Bruno fall for Melbourne gangland killer Nikolai The Bulgarian Radev For Georgina Freeman married to illegal casino king George Freeman Ann Marie Presland girlfriend of organized crime figure Bob Trimbole Fran Stratford partner of murderer Billy The Texan Longley Jeannie Cako wife of armed robber Fred Cako and Coral Watson ex wife of NZ murderer Scott Watson it wasn't always about the thrill of living on the edge and hooking up with bad boys Their motivations and lives are more complex than that Confiding in investigative journalist Rochelle Jackson these women finally get the chance to tell their own stories Surprising intimate and at times confronting this book takes us behind the headlines and media hype to reveal what it is really like to live with men who are outside the law

Evil Women John Marlowe, 2017-07-11 Many people find it impossible to believe women are capable of committing brutal murders but this book shows otherwise Katherine Knight donned a black negligee before stabbing her lover John Price 37 times then serving up his corpse for dinner with baked potatoes pumpkin and all the trimmings Sue Basso became supermarket packer Buddy Musso's lady love but his dreams of happiness were shredded when she and her friends tortured him to death for a paltry 15 000 life insurance policy Shelly Michael injected her husband with a drug that led to death by slow suffocation then she set their house on fire Each of the cases documented here makes for a chilling read proving that evil transcends the sexes

Murder, Medicine and Motherhood Emma Cunliffe, 2011-05-27 Since the early 1990s unexplained infant death has been reformulated as a criminal justice problem within many western societies This shift has produced wrongful convictions in more than one jurisdiction This book uses a detailed case study of the murder trial and appeals of Kathleen Folbigg to examine the pragmatics of proof beyond a reasonable doubt It explores how legal process medical knowledge and expectations of motherhood work together when a mother is charged with killing infants who have died in mysterious circumstances The author argues that Folbigg who remains in prison was wrongly convicted The book also employs Folbigg's trial and appeals to consider what lessons courts have learned from prior wrongful convictions such as those of Sally Clark and Angela Cannings The author's research demonstrates that the Folbigg court was misled about the state of medical knowledge regarding infant death and that the case proceeded on the incorrect assumption that behavioural and scientific evidence provided independent proofs of guilt Individual chapters critically assess the relationships between medical research and expert testimony the operation of unexamined cultural assumptions about good mothering and the manner in which contested cases are reported by the press as overwhelming has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented. He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre. Mr. Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume; much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected. Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form. Several others have been unavailable for a number of years. Of special note are Anthony Boucher's Best Picks for the Year. Boucher, one of the major mystery reviewers of all time, reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle, Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine, and The New York Times. From these resources, Mr. Sobin created Boucher's Best and Important Lists to Consider, lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher's death in 1968. This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors. Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction.

Evil Wives John Marlowe, 2009-09-01 Many people find it difficult to believe that women are capable of extreme acts of violence, so female killers have often been able to evade the long arm of the law for extended periods of time. Indeed, the concept of the evil wife seems much more shocking than that of the evil husband, perhaps because women are so closely associated with nurture and support in western society. In the case of most women, society's trust is not misplaced, but one must be ready to accept there are always exceptions, such as the women you'll encounter within these pages who all proved themselves far deadlier than the male. Evil Wives focuses on the most horrible crimes ever committed by women. Author John Marlowe presents a carefully chosen cross section of history's deadliest female criminals whose fascinating life stories are viewed with an unflinching gaze, making for a chilling but engrossing read. Features Nancy Kissel, Kimberly Hricko, Jane Andrews, Rita Gluzman, Nancy Nannie Doss, Rosemary West.

Historical Dictionary of Australia Norman Abjorensen, James C. Docherty, 2014-12-05 Australia's development from the most unpromising of beginnings as a British prison in 1788 to the prosperous liberal democracy of the present is as remarkable as is its success as a country of large scale immigration. Since 1942 it has been a loyal ally of the United States and has demonstrated this loyalty by contributing troops to the war in Vietnam and by being part of the coalition of the willing in the U.S. invasion of Iraq in 2003 and in operations in Afghanistan. In recent years it has also been more willing to promote peace and democracy in its Pacific and Asian neighbors. This fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of Australia covers its history through a chronology, an introductory essay, appendixes, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 500 cross-referenced entries on important personalities, politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Australia.

Jackson,2012-12-10 Kat Davies is suddenly wondering if her good deed was a bad idea Kat may be new in her faith but she s embraced the more radical implications of Christianity with reckless abandon She invited Rochelle a homeless mother and her son to move in the apartment she shares with two other housemates And she s finally found a practical way to channel her passion for healthy eating by starting a food pantry at the church Her feelings for Nick are getting harder to ignore The fact that he s the interning pastor at SouledOut Community Church and one of her housemates makes it complicated enough But with Rochelle showing interest in Nick as a father figure for her son their apartment is feeling way too small But not everyone thinks the food pantry is a good idea When the woman she thought would be her biggest supporter just wants to pray about it Kat is forced to look deeper at her own motives Only when she begins to look past the surface does she see people who are hungry and thirsty for more than just food and drink and realizes the deeper significance of inviting them to come to the table the plot and characters remain fresh and vibrant shining spiritual truth from each page Romantic Times TOP PICK for Stand by Me Making Up Our Mind Sigal R.
