House of Life & Death Vann Chow, Embark on an enthralling odyssey through the enigmatic realms of the afterlife in The House of Life where the ethereal and echoes of European colonial history converge in the East. Each year on July 7th in the lunar calendar the Gates of Hell swing open granting ghosts a respite from their infernal torments for seven days. The living have dubbed this period the Yulan Festival, a time when spectral beings freely roam the earthly realm. In response to this supernatural occurrence, ingenious citizens of Hong Kong have honed their strategies to navigate these spectral encounters. The House of Life, a venerable Chinese pharmacy under the stewardship of a philanthropic luminary Master Physician, graciously welcomes hungry ghosts within its walls. Here an opulent banquet of food, wine and medicines serves as a diversion to appease these otherworldly visitors. In a fateful twist of fate, Elise, an ordinary city girl, meets her tragic end in a harrowing traffic accident that same night and was brought to the House of Life. Her arrival coincides with a tumultuous raid of the House by Manchurian warlords. It was unclear what they sought, but Elise's presence had something to do with it. And thus this commences her unforgettable journey through the afterlife to save the poor souls that dwell in the House. Join Elise as she unravels the mysteries veiled between the realms of existence and transcendence amidst a tapestry woven with magic, mythical creatures and age-old folklore against the vibrant backdrop of Eastern history as she traverses a world teeming with peril and marvels.

Constellation Adrien Bosc, 2016-05-10. This best-selling debut novel from one of France's most exciting young writers is based on the true story of the 1949 disappearance of Air France's Lockheed Constellation and its famous passengers. On October 27, 1949, Air France's new plane, the Constellation, launched by the extravagant Howard Hughes, welcomed thirty-eight passengers aboard. On October 28, no longer responding to air traffic controllers the plane disappeared while trying to land on the island of Santa Maria in the Azores No one survived The question Adrien Bosc's novel asks is not so much how but why What were the series of tiny incidents that in sequence propelled the plane toward Redondo Mountain And who were the passengers As we recognize Marcel Cerdan the famous boxer and lover of Edith Piaf and we remember the musical prodigy Ginette Neveu whose tattered violin would be found years later the author ties together their destinies Hear the dead write their small legend and offer to these thirty eight men and women like so many constellations a life and a story Telling Stories Jane Tormey, Gillian Whiteley, 2020-07-24

Trespassing disciplines and binding together practice and theory Telling Stories Visual Practice Theories and Narrative crosses strange territories and occupies liminal spaces It addresses a contemporary preoccupation with narrative and narration which is being played out across the arts humanities and beyond and considers how visual and performative encounters contribute to thinking How might they tell theories Telling Stories results from a series of symposia held at Loughborough University School of Art and Design in 2007 The programme included papers screenings and performances and was based around the convenors shared interests in Peggy Phelan's notion of performative writing and in the examination of inter disciplinary forms of narrative and counter narrative It specifically focused on three aspects experimental forms of Theories and Criticism Objects and Narrative and the particular form of the Cinematic Essay and explored how the performative move could also be said to apply to forms of contemporary art practice to what photography film objects wish to say This resulting edited collection presents contemporary making and writing practices as multi faceted interdisciplinary and trans medial and is indicative of an attitude that sets out to encounter the world its social conditions its global perspectives and the nature of aesthetic discussion that is no longer confined by formalism
