Instructor Manual Albert Messiah:

The Universal Self-instructor and Manual of General Reference Albert Ellery Berg, 1883 The Universal self instructor is nothing less than it pretends to be an Epitome of Forms especially adapted for purposes of self instruction and general reference in the various departments of Education Commerce Law Home Society and Amusements Every young man and young woman every business man farmer and mechanic every housewife and lady of society in fact every intelligent member of the community should have it within reach for consultation on those numerous minor matters that a well educated person is supposed to know The Reading Public has been amply supplied for years with reference books of every description but the present volume may be said to occupy a field peculiarly its own as the people have never before been furnished with a publication embracing in a single volume such a quantity of practical information and treating the wants of every day life in a lucid instructive and agreeable manner Such articles as Elocution Penmanship Book keeping Letter writing Mercantile Law Music Stenography Phrenology Agriculture Social Etiquette Out door Sports In door Amusements Physical Culture The Domestic Circle Household Receipts Parliamentary Law etc have been prepared by writers of reputation and large experience in the special subjects given them for treatment Preface
