

Not yet a State.

Purpose:

The purpose of this task is to identify the political, economic, social, and geographic impacts on Louisiana with regards to the Louisiana Purchase.

Directions:

Look at each of the sources and determine and explain whether or not this had an impact on Louisiana either socially, politically, economically, or geographically. Circle or color the impact and explain how it impacted Louisiana.

Transfer to the United States

Another curious feature of this history is that although France had sold Louisiana to the United States, it had not yet been delivered by Spain to France. On the 30th of November, 1803, however, this ceremony was formally performed in the old Cabildo (City Hall) of New Orleans. The French commissioner, Levent, delivered to the Spanish commissioner the order of the king of Spain for the transfer of the province to France, and showed the authority which Napoleon had given him to receive it. Then the Spaniards yielded the keys of New Orleans and absolved the people from allegiance to Spain. The Spanish flag was lowered, the French tricolor raised in its place, and the reign of Spain in Louisiana was ended.

The next step was the formal cession to the United States, and there were reasons for haste. Spain had protested against the act of France in selling the territory, for there was a clause in the original treaty which forbade its alienation. These protests went so strong that Jefferson was even prepared to meet an armed resistance by sending a small military force under General James Wilkinson to New Orleans. Fortunately, in this interval there was no formal government in that city. Jefferson appointed William C. C. Claiborne, governor of Mississippi territory, and General Wilkinson as the American commissioners to receive Louisiana. On December 20 they were installed into the city by American troops and were received by Levent in the Cabildo.

The ceremonies performed at the Spanish cession twenty days before were repeated now for the most part, with one vital difference. This time the flag of France was replaced with the Stars and Stripes. It was the outward sign of a new destiny, the beginning of a new life richer and grander than any one who watched the unfurling of the flag could have dared to imagine. Claiborne assured the people that their liberty, property, and religion were safe, and that they should never again be transformed.
