Shreveport's Historic Greenwood Cemetery: Echoes in Granite and Marble Gary D. Joiner, PhD, 2023 Pause for a spell to visit with the remarkable inhabitants of Greenwood Cemetery Greenwood Cemetery is resplendent in its gardenlike setting gently rolling hills sharply edged bluffs impressively carved monuments and row after row of military gravestones It is a social laboratory that helps those get to know who was here before and what their families wish future generations to remember about them Visitors can find heroes and villains mayors bankers industrialists the well to do and the forgotten Some monuments are fascinating simply for their carved angels others poignant in their descriptions of lives cut short Indeed all the markers have a story to tell The most notable among them are included in this book Stroll through Greenwood with Dr Gary Joiner and learn a thing or two about those who rest here Specialized Schools for High-Ability Learners Bronwyn MacFarlane, 2021-09-23 Specialized Schools for High Ability Learners focuses on educational programming offered in nontraditional publicly approved and private settings with important details about how to serve high ability learners in specialized schools and deliver schoolwide educational change Each chapter offers a differentiated resource for educators who are interested in designing and implementing programs in specialized school settings by providing a discussion of the critical components for inclusion in a carefully planned coherent and quality minded K 12 curricular sequence This book delivers a comprehensive discussion with recommendations for the learning experiences of high talent students in specialized schools and alternatively approved educational programs Through relevant research and practical applications this compendium will help in developing high levels of talent among the next generation of competent critical thinkers

Funding Public Schools in the United States, Indian Country, and US Territories Philip Westbrook, Eric A. Houck, R. Craig Wood, David C. Thompson, 2023-05-01 The National Education Finance Academy has once again convened university faculty members state level administrators officials from state level chapters of the Association of School Business Officials and others to provide a single volume reference of school funding mechanisms for each of the states the District of Columbia Indian Country and the US territories This volume supplements the annual state of the state profiles produced by the National Education Finance Academy so that educators policymakers and researchers can have access to accurate and concise information on how K12 education functions are supported across multiple jurisdictions In addition each profile addresses state level efforts to provide education funding to support schools during the COVID 19 pandemic The second edition expands upon groundbreaking work in the first edition which for the first time reported comprehensively on the multiple jurisdictions and mechanisms impacting funding for Native American students by also reporting on policies and funding mechanisms for public schools in US Territories Accelerating The Learning Of All Students Christine Finnan, 2018-03-05 Accelerated learning isn't that just for gifted students Accelerating the Learning of All Students Cultivating Culture Change in Schools Classrooms and Individuals answers that question while providing a vivid description of what happens at the school classroom and individual levels when people attempt to extend efforts to accelerate learning to all students The book begins with a definition of accelerated learning and provides a vivid description of efforts to accelerate the learning of three populations of students those identified as gifted those identified as low achieving and all students The book then examines the assumptions shaping school classroom and individual efforts to accelerate the learning of all students Written by a pair of educators one trained in gifted and talented education and the other in cultural anthropology this book provides teachers parents administrators and researchers with insight into why we continue to fail so many students and how we can cultivate change in schools classrooms and individuals so that all students receive the enriched challenging learning experiences typically reserved only for students identified as gifted Gifted-ish Kaitlin Ugolik Phillips, 2024-01-05 Much is made of the test scores earning power and innovative contributions of highly intelligent kids but we rarely ask what it is actually like to be gifted In a culture obsessed with exceptionalism sorting by intelligence has become an educational norm leading thousands of American students to be ushered through or noticeably left out of advanced academic programs Stereotypes and generalizations about these students from the socially inept genius to the high strung overachiever have filled the gap in data about who they are apart from what they achieve At a time of educational upheaval and rapidly declining youth mental health former gifted kids particularly women and nonbinary people also wrestling with questions of identity inequality and parenthood are reckoning with the gifted label This work offers personal accounts from diverse voices each one considered a gifted kid in their youth and considers questions of identity inequality poverty racism and more Essays address the dangers of praising achievements over efforts imposter syndrome intelligence as identity and why even the smartest among us often feel like failures among many other topics
