The Acting Drama; Containing Sixty Highly Popular Plays, 1839 Distant Dreams But Closer Realities Ronya Henderson, 2012 Dreams everyone has them A man dreams of becoming a CEO of a big corporation a famous athlete a hero or the president of the United States of America Basically men dream about all things rich and powerful For women dreams are more sentimental Women dream of having a successful career the perfect marriage children and financial freedom to live like a queen But what if you're a Christian Do you still have the same dreams Is it okay to dream about wealth power and success Is there any truth that as a Christian you can still obtain your dream job dream house and dream mate i.e. soul mate without compromising your integrity Can you have morals in a world where if you want to be successful you're told you must be willing to do whatever it takes to get ahead Do dreams really come true or should you just leave your dreams buried in your childhood memories Or is the reality of life as a child's nursery rhyme concludes that life is but a dream

Distant Dreams but Closer Realities is a story about Lisha Dillard a successful African American career woman who decides against her family's wishes to move from Louisiana to Los Angeles on a journey of discovering God's will for her life During her first year she faces many challenges in her quest She has her first dose of reality after finding her dream home with learning the difference between southerners and westerners Her next task is finding a job that will provide an adequate salary as well as accommodate her aspiring acting career She finds what she thinks is a dream job in corporate America She believes she's working for a company that is not concerned with only making money but also with helping people is she wrong Her next task is finding a church She prays and then uses an uncommon practice for finding her dream church The one type of church she doesn't want to join is a mega church but why Next on her to do list is pursuing her acting career Since she's naive to the entertainment industry she believes her manager's assurances that she's well connected in the business but is it the truth Eventually she finds her way to an acting coach who gives her a reality check unless she has a Hollywood connection and is amoral and skinny being talented just is not enough She becomes painfully aware that unless she's willing to compromise her morals and integrity she will never achieve her dream so does she Since she believes another reason why God told her to move to Los Angeles is to meet her God ordained husband she wonders if and when that'll happen Then one day she accidentally runs into her neighbor a handsome single man They have a two day whirlwind romance but his mysterious job suddenly interrupts them and now she must wait for his return Is he her dream mate or just a dream Lisha desperately needs to know God's will for her life She begins questioning whether or not she actually heard from God regarding moving to Los Angeles because of all the struggles and challenges she's had to face After spending one weekend alone with God she suddenly receives all the answers she been longing to know but then she gets a phone call that could change everything Distant Dreams but Closer Realities is entertaining but also will minister to women as they will identify with this fictional character s struggles and challenges in living life as a godly woman It addresses some important issues such as faith trust dating career choices and family It s through this one woman s life journey that many women also may learn how to discover their purpose and find their destiny
