

A surreal, dark illustration of a forest at night. In the center, a large, glowing cannabis leaf is superimposed over a swirling, ethereal light that flows from an open book at the bottom. The light is a mix of purple, blue, and green, with small, glowing particles. Several smaller cannabis leaves are scattered around the main one. The background shows the silhouettes of trees in a dark forest, with a bright, glowing light source in the upper left corner. The overall mood is mysterious and dreamlike.

The American Women's Almanac Deborah G. Felder, 2020-02-01 Celebrate the vital roles and vibrant experiences of women in America. The most complete and affordable single volume reference on women's history available today. The American Women's Almanac: 500 Years of Vitality, Triumph, and Excellence is a unique and valuable resource devoted to illustrating the moving and often lost history of women in America. It is a fascinating mix of biographies, little-known or misunderstood historical facts, enlightening essays on significant legislation and movements, and numerous photographs and illustrations. Honoring and celebrating achievements from the First Nations women and the French Huguenot Women of Fort Caroline to the unprecedented number of ethnically diverse women running for modern office, it provides insights on the long-ignored influence, inspiration, and impact of women on U.S. society and culture. From the first indigenous women in North America and the dangers and hardships of the 15th, 16th, and 17th century journeys to the New World to the continual push against patriarchal, political, military, corporate, and societal systems and expectations, this essential book illustrates the important events and figures surrounding the suffrage movement, literature, art, and music, business leaders and breakthroughs, political history, and office holders' advances in science and medicine and other vital topics. Learn about the Nineteenth Amendment, Title IX, the legalization of birth control in 1966, the dramatic increase in women attending colleges and universities in the United States, the limitations of 19th-century women's fashion on athletes, and so much more. Highway: A Literary Translation of Qamar Jamali's Short Stories

Rafat Farzana, 2023-10-13 Highway is the translation of Qamar Jamali's short stories into English. Qamar Jamali is a well-known Urdu fictionist of Hyderabad, Telangana. She is a live writer and continues to write. I personally met the writer and liked the thought behind her stories. The characters of her stories aptly display the burning problems of the society which relates to the present scenario. They are not fictitious; they appear very much real and we find them in our day-to-day life. This appealed to me a lot. I translated her stories with the intention of making her known to the non-Urdu readers. Highway comprises ten stories. There is a variety of theme in her stories. Woman's emancipation is one of her themes. According to her, a woman occupies not only a place in domestic field but also diverse positions in society. No doubt she speaks about the anguish of a woman; she doesn't do any oration; instead, she opens many doors for the characters to act and the readers to think. Her stories are her experiences and observations. The technique of dialogue explains the incidents in the stories. Lifeline is one such very impressive story. The development of the story is by logical dialogue, though it also has a psychological element in it. In her stories Aankhen, Khwaab, Tabeer, and Tera Naam kya hai, we find characters, incidents, scenario, and dialogue move simultaneously together. In Baandh, Do, she gives a different perspective to Saadat Hasan Manto's Khol Do. She gives a positive outlook to the story apart from portraying the treachery of men. She tries to say that there is good along with the evil in the society. In the story Highway, the writer aptly conveys the message of inhumanity in the society through the words of the road. Shelter is the story of adolescent crime. All through the story, the protagonist is seen in search of love. Adam's Offspring speaks of the helplessness of a brother to help out his sister and an ever-risky situation of a woman in the hands of lustful men of the society. The Velvet Mite is a pathetic story which depicts the stark reality of the days of Kargil war. The book Highway is the realistic image of the social milieu of the times. The writer not only picturizes the flaws of society but also suggests the measures to rectify them through the characters.
