Gloria Naylor S Linden Hills Tables:

Gloria Naylor's Fiction Sharon A. Lewis, Ama S. Wattley, 2017-11-06 This edited volume offers innovative ways of analyzing economics in Gloria Naylor's fiction using interpretive strategies which are applicable to the entire tradition of African American literature The writers gathered here embody years of insightful and vigorous Naylor scholarship Underpinning each of the essays is a celebratory validation that Naylor is one of the most provocative novelists of our time

Understanding Gloria Naylor Margaret Earley Whitt, 1999 Whitt discloses how Naylor tells the stories of these women on multiple levels and how she helps readers see that all heroines live a life of significance BOOK JACKET Tracing Naylor's development of the theme of black community especially among women Whitt shows how characters move from poverty and isolation to a place where they transcend the racism and sexism that constrict their lives BOOK JACKET Linden Hills Gloria Naylor, 2017-03-14 The National Book Award winning author of The Women of Brewster Place explores the secrets of an affluent black community For its wealthy African American residents the exclusive neighborhood of Linden Hills is a symbol of making it The ultimate achievement a home on prestigious Tupelo Drive Making your way downhill to Tupelo is irrefutable proof of your worth But the farther down the hill you go the emptier you become Using the descent of Dante's Inferno as a model this bold haunting novel follows two young men as they attempt to find work amid the circles of the well off community Exploring a microcosm of race and social class author Gloria Naylor reveals the true cost of success for the lost souls of Linden Hills an existence trapped in a nightmare of their own making Constructs of "home" in Gloria

Naylor's Quartet Claudia Drieling, 2011 The Novels of Gloria Naylor Gloria Naylor, 2018-04-17 Three lyrical and unforgettable novels from the National Book Award winning author of The Women of Brewster Place After winning both the National Book Award and the American Book Award for her now iconic debut novel The Women of Brewster Place which was later made into a TV miniseries starring Oprah Winfrey Gloria Naylor continued to garner acclaim as one of the most original voices in twentieth century American literature with novels such as Mama Day Linden Hills and Bailey's Cafe Mama Day On Willow Springs an island off the coast between Georgia and South Carolina superstition is more potent than any trappings of the modern world Here the formidable Mama Day uses her powers to heal But her great niece Cocoa can't wait to escape to New York City When Cocoa returns to the island with her husband George darker forces challenge the couple and their only hope may be the mystical matriarch Steeped in the folklore of the South and inspired by Shakespeare Mama Day is one of Naylor's richest and most complex novels Providence Journal A wonderful novel full of spirit and sass and wisdom and completely realized The Washington Post Linden Hills For its wealthy African American residents the exclusive neighborhood of Linden Hills is a symbol of making it But what happens when the dream of material success turns out to be an empty promise Using Dante's Inferno as a model Naylor reveals the true cost of success for the lost souls of Linden Hills a hell of their own making Every page contains a brilliant insight a fine description some petty and human some grandiloquent

Chicago Tribune Bailey's Cafe This moving and memorable national bestseller is set in post World War II Brooklyn on a quiet backstreet where Bailey's Cafe serves as a crossroads for a broad range of patrons a place of limbo for tortured souls before they move on or check out Boston Globe A virtuoso orchestration of survival suffering courage and humor The New York Times Book Review The Search for Wholeness and Diaspora Literacy in Contemporary African American Literature Silvia Castro-Borrego, 2011-05-25 This volume has as a cohesive argument the exploration of the different manifestations of the search for wholeness and spirituality in the writings of contemporary African American women writers covering different literary genres such as fiction both novels and short stories drama and poetry Together with the issue of spirituality the African American search for wholeness is analyzed as a source of creativity and agency As expressed in the contemporary literature of black women writers starting in the 1980s the search for wholeness reflects a beauty realized through the healing of the spirit and the body and is a process that takes on dimensions of reconciling the past and the present the mythical and the real the spiritual and the physical all in the context of an emerging world view that welcomes synthesis and expects both synthesis and generative contradictions The book will be a valuable collection for scholars of African American literature comparative American Ethnic literature American literature and spirituality as well as women's studies In addition it will be an important text for both undergraduate and graduate students in those fields As Professor Johnnella Butler 2006 points out the African American search for wholeness is tightly linked to the search for freedom and agency Ever since the 19th century African American writers have given expression to an African American self which functions in Western civilization simultaneously as a colonized other and an assertive self Due to the continuous ordeal of the African Diaspora this self is caught in between the binaries proposed by the material and the spiritual world seeking a balance where the person can become whole The search for wholeness feeds from cultural roots that imply the presence of ancestral spiritualism rememory and double consciousness Contemporary black women writers reflect the metaphor of building spiritual bridges seeking the possibilities of building a bridge to the archetypal African past that is carried in their memories as a presence that offers sustenance via spiritual reconnection Their works seek to bridge the gap between the myths and traditions of the past and contemporary African American culture The texts included in this collection are examples of writing as an exercise of what V v Clark calls Diaspora literacy The texts written by contemporary African American women writers explicitly show how to recognize and read the cultural signs left scattered along the road of progress In this way material acquisition is achieved along with cultural dispossession becoming a metaphor for the history of the African in America The powerful message is that one should not exclude the other Deconstruction, Feminist Theology, and the Problem of Difference Ellen T. Armour, 1999-06-15 The term feminism conjures up the promise of resistance to the various forms of oppression women face But feminism's ability to fulfill this promise has been undermined by its failure to deal adequately with the difference that race makes for gender In this book Ellen T Armour forges an alliance between deconstruction and feminist theology and theory by demonstrating deconstruction's usefulness in addressing feminism's trouble with race Armour shows how the writings of Jacques Derrida and Luce Irigaray can be used to uncover feminism's white presumptions so that race and gender can be thought of differently In clear concise terms she explores the possibilities and limitations for feminist theology of Derrida's conception of woman and Irigaray's multiple woman as well as Derrida's thinking on race and Irigaray's work on religion Armour then points a way beyond the race gender divide with the help of African American theorists such as bell hooks Hortense Spillers and Patricia Hill Collins

Dante, Cinema, and Television Amilcare A. Iannucci, 2004-01-01 The Divine Comedy of Dante Alighieri 1265-1321 is one of the seminal works of western literature Its impact on modern culture has been enormous nourishing a plethora of twentieth century authors from Joyce and Borges to Kenzaburo Oe Although Dante's influence in the literary sphere is well documented very little has been written on his equally determining role in the evolution of the visual media unique to our times namely cinema and television Dante Cinema and Television corrects this oversight The essays from a broad range of disciplines cover the influence of the Divine Comedy from cinema's silent era on through to the era of sound and the advent of television as well as its impact on specific directors actors and episodes on national regional cinema and television and on genres They also consider the different modes of appropriation by cinema and television Dante Cinema and Television demonstrates the many subtle ways in which Dante's Divine Comedy has been given new life by cinema and television and underscores the tremendous extent of Dante's staying power in the modern world

The Critical Response to Gloria Naylor Sharon Felton, Michelle Loris, 1997-09-23 As the author of The Women of Brewster Place Linden Hills Mama Day and Bailey's Cafe Gloria Naylor is widely respected as one of the most important contemporary African American women writers This volume provides comprehensive coverage of the critical response to her works The book is divided into sections devoted to each of Naylor's novels Within each section seminal articles and book chapters comment on her writing Special attention is given to African American and feminist perspectives on her canon In addition many of the essays discuss the relationship of Naylor's novels to the works of classical authors such as Chaucer Dante and Shakespeare and to significant modern writers thus the volume charts her sources and influence While some of the essays have appeared previously and are among the most important responses to her writings the book also includes several original pieces An exclusive interview with Naylor an insightful introduction and a substantial bibliography are special features of this reference work A balance of new and previously published material provides a thoughtful overview of the reception of her works A thorough introductory essay discusses Naylor's place in American literature and the themes she treats throughout her novels A chronology summarizes the principal events in her life and career and a substantial bibliography lists works for further reading A special feature is an exclusive interview with Naylor in which she discusses such topics as the role of the politics of gender in her writings her treatment of women the relationship between art and morality her views on race relations her thoughts on the future of literature and on her most recent projects and the manner in which she works and

The Wayward Preacher in the Literature of African American Women James Robert Saunders, 1995

In African American culture the preacher has traditionally held many roles minister of faith orator politician idealist and most importantly leader But the preacher was also traditionally male and in many ways this advanced the perception that African American women were incapable of questioning the authority of black men Nella Larsen Zora Neale Hurston Paule Marshall Gloria Naylor and Terry McMillan wrote of flawed African American preachers empowering their female characters by exposing the notion of the black preacher as beyond reproach The writings of these five women warn African American women and society as a whole of the power of the religious functionaries who insist that the self must be virtually obliterated in order for salvation to be attained
