Goat Days Benjamin:

Goat Days Benjamin, 2012-07-17 Najeed's dearest wish is to work in the Gulf and earn enough money to send back home. He achieves his dream only to be propelled by a series of incidents grim and absurd into a slave-like existence herding goats in the middle of the Saudi desert. Memories of the lush verdant landscape of his village and of his loving family haunt Najeed whose only solace is the companionship of goats. In the end the lonely young man contrives a hazardous scheme to escape his desert prison. Goat Days was published to acclaim in Malayalam and became a bestseller. One of the brilliant new talents of Malayalam literature Benjamin's wry and tender telling transforms this strange and bitter comedy of Najeed's life in the desert into a universal tale of loneliness and alienation.

The Gulf Migrant Archives in Kerala Mohamed Shafeeq Karinkurayil, 2024-03-20 The Indian state of Kerala is one of the largest blocs of migrants in the oil economies of the Arab Gulf. Looking closely at the cultural archives produced by and on the Gulf migrants in Malayalam the predominant language of Kerala this book takes stock of circular migration beyond its economics. It combines formal and thematic analyses of photographs films and literature with anthropological and historical details to offer a nuanced understanding of the construction of the Gulf and its translation to the cultural imaginary of Kerala. It explores the dissonance between the private and public discourses on the Gulf among migrants and non migrants and demonstrates the role of this disjuncture in the continued fascination for Gulf migrant lives. An enquiry into the various dimensions of the Gulf in Kerala as an acknowledged means of living as a rumour an object of gossip a public secret or even a private thrill this book debunks the idea of language as a common entity and studies the tentative borders built within. Finally it explores the resources possibilities and perils of affiliative communities constructed along and across those borders.

Oil Fictions Stacey Balkan, Swaralipi Nandi, 2021-10-15 Oil like other fossil fuels permeates every aspect of human existence. Yet it has been largely ignored by cultural critics especially in the context of the Global South. Seeking to make visible not only the pervasiveness of oil in society and culture but also its power Oil Fictions stages a critical intervention that aligns with the broader goals of the energy humanities. Exploring literature and film about petroleum as a genre of world literature Oil Fictions focuses on the ubiquity of oil as well as the cultural response to petroleum in postcolonial states. The chapters engage with African South American South Asian Iranian and transnational petrofictions and cover topics such as the relationship of colonialism to the fossil fuel economy issues of gender in the Thermocene epoch and discussions of migration precarious labor and the petro diaspora This unique exploration includes testimonies of the oil encounter through memoirs journals and interviews from a diverse geopolitical grid ranging from the Permian Basin to the Persian Gulf By engaging with non Western literary responses to petroleum in a concentrated sustained way this pathbreaking book illuminates the transnational dimensions of the discourse on oil It will appeal to scholars and students working in literature and science studies energy humanities ecocriticism petrocriticism environmental humanities and Anthropocene studies In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Henry Obi Ajumeze Rebecca Babcock Ashley Dawson Sharae Deckard Scott DeVries Kristen Figgins Amitav Ghosh Corbin Hiday Helen Kapstein Micheal Angelo Rumore Simon Ryle Sheena Stief Imre Szeman Maya Vinai and Wendy W Walters

Temporary Cities Yasser Elsheshtawy, 2019-03-28 Are Arab Gulf cities the likes of Dubai Abu Dhabi or Doha on their way to extinction Is their fate obsolescence Or are they the model for our urban future Can a city whose very existence is predicated on an imported labour force who build and operate these gleaming urban centres remain a viable urban entity Could the transient nature of this urban model its temporariness and precariousness also be its doom In this wide ranging book Yasser Elsheshtawy takes on these tough but necessary questions aiming to examine the very nature of the Arab Gulf city and whether it can sustain its existence throughout the twenty first century Having lived in the region for more than two decades he researched its marginalized and forgotten urban settings trying to understand how a temporary people can live in a place that inherently refuses to give them the possibility of becoming citizens By being embedded in these spaces and reconciling their presence with his own personal encounters with transience he discovered a resilience and defiance against the forces of the hegemonic city Using subtle acts of resistance these temporary inhabitants have found a way to sustain and create a home to set down roots in the midst of a fast changing and transient urbanity Their stories recounted in this book through case studies and in depth analysis give hope to cities everywhere Transience is not a fait accompli rather the actions of citizens residents and migrants even in the highly restrictive spaces of the Gulf show us that the future metropolis may very well not turn out to be a utopia of the few and a dystopia of the many This could be an illusion but it is a necessary illusion because the alternative is irrelevance

Mobilities, Literature, Culture Marian Aguiar,Charlotte Mathieson,Lynne Pearce,2019-09-25 This is the first book dedicated to literary and cultural scholars engagement with mobilities scholarship As such the volume both advances new theoretical approaches to the study of culture and furthers the recent humanities turn in mobilities studies The book's scholarship is deeply informed by cultural geography's vision of a mobilised reconceptualisation of space and place but also by the contribution of literary scholars in articulating questions of travel technologies of transport post colonialism and migration through a close engagement with textual materials A comprehensive introduction maps pre histories and emerging directions of this exciting interdisciplinary endeavor while taking up the theoretical and methodological challenges of the burgeoning subfield Contributions range across geographical and disciplinary boundaries to address questions of embodied subjectivities mobility and the nation geopolitics of migration and mobilities futures

Shattered Gulf Dream M. Gayathri Devi,2015 The Routledge Companion to Working-Class Literature Ben Clarke,2024-12-05 The Routledge Companion to Working Class Literature provides an overview of the history theory and analysis of working class literature Taking a global and intersectional approach the Companion demonstrates that literature is central to the re interpretation of the working class a process that involves rereading the past as well as mapping the present The collection examines how working class literature is defined and the functions the term serves It maps current debates and traces the ways in which a wide variety of theoretical and political movements have shaped the field Challenging the stereotypical view that working class writing is concerned solely with white male industrial labourers in the Global North the volume features chapters on subjects from early modern writing about the poor in England to contemporary poetry by Asian migrant workers Exploring the theoretical problems of writing about class as well as providing detailed readings of specific texts it demonstrates the richness and diversity of this rapidly developing field and looks to the future of working class literature The Routledge Companion to Working Class Literature is an accessible wide ranging resource It emphasizes difference and debate bringing distinct texts traditions and critical perspectives into dialogue and is essential for any student or researcher looking at concepts of class within literary studies The Global eBook Market: Current Conditions & Future Projections Ruediger

Wischenbart, 2013-02-11 The Global eBook Report documents and analyses how ebook markets emerge in the US UK continental Europe Brazil China India Russia and the Arab world It combines the best available data and references to specialized local actors with thematic chapters focusing on critical policy debates and on key driving forces notably ebook bestsellers and pricing strategies across European markets self publishing government regulation piracy and the expanding impact of global players The Global eBook Report is available for download from October 1st 2013 at www.global-ebook.com A project of Ruediger Wischenbart Content and Consulting Revisiting Diaspora Spaces in India: A Contemporary Overview Joydev Maity, 2023-09-12 This edited volume is a detailed and critical study of Indian diaspora writings and its diverse themes It focuses on dynamics and contemporary perspectives of Indian diaspora writings and analyzes emerging themes of this field like the experience of the Bihari diaspora migration to Gulf countries the relation between diasporic experience and self translation uprootedness and resistance discourse through ecocritical praxis and many more With the aid of a subtle theoretical framework the volume closely examines some of the key texts such as Goat Days Baumgartner's Bombay An Atlas of Impossible Longing The Circle of Reason and authors including Shauna Singh Baldwin M G Vassanji Sarat Chandra Chattopadhyay V S Naipaul and others The book also explores diaspora literature written in regional language and later translated into English and how they align with the fundamental Indian diaspora writings A significant contribution to Indian diaspora writings this volume will be of great importance to scholars and researchers of diaspora literature migration and border studies cultural memory and translation studies The Oxford Handbook of Modern Indian Literatures Ulka Anjaria, Anjali Nerlekar, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Indian Literatures is a compilation of scholarship on Indian literature from the 19th century to the present in a range of Indian languages On one hand because of reasons associated with national academic structures publishing resources and global visibility English writing gets privileged over all the other linguistic traditions in the scholarship on Indian literatures On the other hand within the scholarship on regional language literary productions in Hindi Marathi Bengali etc the critical works and the surveys focus only on that particular language and therefore frequently suffer from a lack of comparative breadth and or global access Both reflect the paradigm of monolingualism within which much literary scholarship on Indian literature takes place This handbook instead focuses on the multilingual pathways through which modern Indian literature gets constituted It features cutting edge literary criticism from at least seventeen languages and on traditional literary genres as well as more recent ones like graphic novels It shows the deep connections and collaborations across genres languages nations and regions that produce a literature of diverse contact zones generating innovations on form aesthetics and technique Foregrounding themes such as modernity and modernism gender caste diaspora and political resistance the book collects an array of perspectives on this vast topic

Narrating Violence in the Postcolonial World Rebecca Romdhani,Daria Tunca,2021-09-05 This book examines representations of violence across the postcolonial world from the Americas to Australia in novels short stories plays and films The chapters move from what appear to be interpersonal instances of violence to communal conflicts such as civil war showing how these acts of violence are specifically rooted in colonial forms of abuse and oppression but constantly move and morph Taking its cue from theories in such fields as postcolonial violence gender and trauma studies the book thus shows that violence is slippery in form but also fluid in nature so that one must trace its movement across time and space to understand even a single instance of it When analysing such forms and trajectories of violence in postcolonial creative writing and films the contributors critically examine the ethical issues involved in narrating abuse depicting violated bodies and presenting romanticized resolutions that may conceal other forms of violence It's Writers Paradise NANDANA REMANAN,2021-10-01 It s Writers Paradise Have faith in your writing is a handwritten book about different writers across the world which includes carriers experiences Life histories notable works Notable awards they gained during their lifetime Here I dedicate this book to all writers and upcoming writers A writer I think is someone who pays attention to the world So stay Faithfull to the stories in your head The Penguin Book of Migration Literature Dohra Ahmad,2019-09-17 Ahmad s introduction is fiery and charismatic This book encompasses the diversity of experience with beautiful variations and stories that bicker back and forth Parul Sehgal The New York Times The first global anthology of migration literature featuring works by Mohsin Hamid Zadie Smith Marjane Satrapi Salman Rushdie and Warsan Shire with a foreword by Edwidge Danticat author of Everything Inside A Penguin Classic Every year three to four million people move to a new country From war refugees to corporate expats migrants constantly reshape their places of origin and arrival This selection of works collected together for the first time brings together the most compelling literary depictions of migration Organized in four parts Departures Arrivals Generations and Returns The Penguin Book of Migration Literature conveys the intricacy of worldwide migration patterns the diversity of immigrant experiences and the commonalities among many of those diverse experiences Ranging widely across the eighteenth through twenty first centuries across every continent of the earth and across multiple literary genres the anthology gives readers an understanding of our rapidly changing world through the eyes of those at the center of that change With thirty carefully selected poems short stories and excerpts spanning three hundred years and twenty five countries the collection brings together luminaries emerging writers and others who have earned a wide following in their home countries but have been less recognized in the Anglophone world Editor of the volume Dohra
