God Of The Empty Handed Poverty Power The Kingdom Of God:

God of the Empty-handed Jayakumar Christian, 2011 Jayakumar Christian argues that in order to provide sustainable solutions to powerlessness poverty and oppression it is critical to challenge and redefine power from the perspective of the kingdom of God Only when we realise that we are all empty handed before God can broken relationships be restored The God That the Poor Seek Rupen Das, 2022-01-31 The assumption that conversion looks the same regardless of culture or religious context is challenged by a growing number of missiologists both in the Majority World and in the West In this book Rupen Das explores the particularities of conversion for some of the world's poorest populations Sharing the stories of Syrian refugees and Indian slum dwellers Das positions their voices within a missiological framework of contextualization seeking to understand what attracts the marginalized to the gospel of Christ This book is filled with practical insights for those ministering to the world's poor in contexts of missions development or local outreach It also offers a powerful glimpse into the identity of the crucified God who knows human pain and does not turn his back on human suffering Facing West David R. Swartz, 2020-04-09 In 1974 nearly 3 000 evangelicals from 150 nations met at the Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization Amidst this cosmopolitan setting and in front of the most important white evangelical leaders of the United States members of the Latin American Theological Fraternity spoke out against the American Church Fiery speeches by Ecuadorian Ren Padilla and Peruvian Samuel Escobar revealed a global weariness with what they described as an American style of coldly efficient mission wedded to a myopic right leaning politics Their bold critiques electrified Christians from around the world The dramatic growth of Christianity around the world in the last century has shifted the balance of power within the faith away from traditional strongholds in Europe and the United States To be sure evangelical populists who voted for Donald Trump have resisted certain global pressures and Western missionaries have carried Christian Americanism abroad But the line of influence has also run the other way David R Swartz demonstrates that evangelicals in the Global South spoke back to American evangelicals on matters of race imperialism theology sexuality and social justice From the left they pushed for racial egalitarianism ecumenism and more substantial development efforts From the right they advocated for a conservative sexual ethic grounded in postcolonial logic As Christian immigration to the United States burgeoned in the wake of the Immigration Act of 1965 global evangelicals forced many American Christians to think more critically about their own assumptions The United States is just one node of a sprawling global network that includes Korea India Switzerland the Philippines Guatemala Uganda and Thailand Telling stories of resistance accommodation and cooperation Swartz shows that evangelical networks not only go out to but also come from the ends of the earth Worship and Social Engagement in Urban Aboriginal-led Australian Pentecostal Congregations Tanya Riches, 2019-05-15 Worship and Social Engagement in Urban Aboriginal led Australian Pentecostal Congregations Re imagining Identity in the Spirit provides an ethnographic account of three Australian Pentecostal congregations with Aboriginal senior leadership Within this Pentecostalism Dreaming realities and identities must be brought together with the Christian gospel Yet current political and economic relationships with the Australian state complicate the possibilities of interactions between culture and Spirit The result is a matrix or network of these churches stretching across Australia with Black Australian Pentecostals resisting and accommodating the state through the construction of new and ancient identities This work occurs most notably in context of the worship ritual which functions through ritual interaction chains to energise the various social engagement programs these congregations sustain

Christianity and Cultures David Emmanuel Singh, Bernard C. Farr, 2008 This volume on Christianity and Cultures is a way of marking an important milestone in the relatively short story of the Oxford Centre for Mission Studies OCMS The papers here have been exclusively sourced from Transformation a quarterly journal of OCMS and seek to provide a tripartite view of Christianity s engagement with cultures by focusing on the question how is Christian thinking forming or reforming through its interaction with the varied contexts it encounters As Christianity has taken and still takes shape in multiple contexts it naturally results in a variety of expressions and emphases One can gain an appreciation of these by studying different strands of theological missiological thinking socio political engagements and forms of family relationships in interaction with the host cultures

Linking Arms, Linking Lives Ronald J. Sider, John Perkins, F. Albert Tizon, 2008-10-01 Among the various lines drawn between people in the church male and female young and old black and white rich and poor Republican and Democrat there is the line between the urban and the suburban The stereotypes of the edgy socially active multicultural urban Christian and the middle class comfortable upwardly mobile suburban Christian mix fact and fiction Linking Arms Linking Lives looks beyond stereotypes and makes a compelling case for partnership that crosses urban and suburban for effective ministry among the poor Drawing from a growing network of development practitioners pastors and theologians this book focuses on the experiences of partnership between urban and suburban entities to provide both theological foundations and practical guidelines for those who desire to partner effectively All who want to find viable ways to help the poor will welcome this thoughtful and hope filled book Includes a Foreword by Noel Castellanos Health, Healing, and Shalom Bryant L. Myers, Erin Dufault-Hunter, Isaac B. Voss, 2015-11-17 Frontiers and Challenges for Christian Healthcare Missions Ever since Jesus's proclamation in word and deed as the Great Physician his followers in mission have assumed that salvation and health are intertwined Yet for every age Christians need to examine how they can best announce the gospel message of God's healing in word and deed in their own context In our era we are often simultaneously grateful for modern medicine and frustrated by its inability to care for the whole person in effective affordable ways In this edited volume authors with an interest in health missions from a wide variety of experiences and disciplines examine health and healing through the theological lens of shalom This word often translated peace names a much more complex understanding of human well being as right relationships with one another with God and with creation Reading various aspects of healthcare missions through these glasses not only yields much needed correctives to current practice but also exposes the Spirit's invitation to participate in God's ongoing work of tending caring and healing our broken world

Advanced Missiology Kenneth Nehrbass, 2021-04-02 Advanced Missiology draws the connections between the theory and practice of missions Using the metaphor of a river the book shows how theories upstream such as theology education anthropology community development and history have exerted an influence on missiology and missiology in turn has gone back upstream to influence those disciplines What causes these disciplines to converge in missiology is the goal of making disciples across cultures Whereas missiologists are not always explicit about how their abstract theories actually relate to the task of making disciples across cultures each chapter in Advanced Missiology shows how numerous theories sub fields models and strategies of missiology ultimately facilitate the Great Commission The book argues that by using interdisciplinarity for this fundamental purpose missiological studies will be more credible and useful With contributions from Rebecca Burnett Leanne Dzubinski Julie Martinez

Rich Christians in an Age of Hunger Ronald J. Sider, 2015-07-28 In an age obsessed with wealth Christians seem to have forgotten that scripture encourages believers to give to the poor Why do 1.3 billion people live in abject poverty And what should Christians do about it Despite a dramatic reduction in world hunger 34,000 children still die daily of starvation and preventable disease and 1.3 billion people around the world remain in abject poverty Dr Ron Sider a professor of theology examines the issues of poverty and hunger in modern society While the Bible is full of instructions to care for the poor and warns against being seduced by riches it's been statistically proven that the richer countries become the less they give Finding that conservatives blame what they consider to be morally reprehensible individual choices and liberals blame what they believe to be constrictive social and economic policy Dr Sider finds himself agreeing with both sides First published in 1978 Rich Christians in an Age of Hunger has had an enormous impact on how believers and churches view questions of poverty and hunger Dr Sider's insights provide a compelling look at what it truly means to follow Christ This edition of Rich Christians in an Age of Hunger is Newly revised expanded and
