The Sociology of Community Connections John G. Bruhn, 2011-07-18 Many of our current social problems have been attributed to the breakdown or loss of community as a place and to the fragmentation of connections due to an extreme value of individualism in the Western world particularly in the United States Not all scholars and researchers agree that individualism and technology are the primary culprits in the loss of community as it existed in the middle decade of the 20th century Nonetheless people exist in groups and connections are vital to their existence and in the daily performance of activities The second edition of the Sociology of Community Connections will identify and help students understand community connectedness in the present and future

The Encyclopedia of Aging Linda S. Noelker, PhD, Kenneth Rockwood, MD, FRCP, Richard L. Sprott, Ph.D., 2006-03-17 A COMPREHENSIVE RESOURCE ON GERONTOLOGY AND GERIATRICS Since its inception in 1987 The Encyclopedia of Aging has proven to be the definitive resource for scholars and students across the burgeoning and increasingly interdisciplinary fields of gerontology and geriatrics Like its three esteemed predecessors the fourth edition contains concise readable explorations of hundreds of terms concepts and issues related to the lives of older adults as well as timely coverage of the many new programs and services for the elderly Updated under the distinguished stewardship of editor in chief Richard Schulz to reflect the infusion of new information across the scientific disciplines this new edition brings readers up to the moment significant advances in biology physiology genetics medicine psychology nursing social services sociology economics technology and political science While retaining the format and standard of excellence that marked the first three editions the fourth edition encompasses a wealth of new information from the social and health sciences It contains the most current bibliography of an expanding literature an exhaustive index and extensive cross references This much anticipated update of the field's most authoritative resource will take its place as an indispensable reference for specialists and non specialists across a broad range of disciplines that now comprise the field of aging

Science, Religion, and the Human Experience James D. Proctor, 2005-04-21 The relationship between science and religion is generally depicted in one of two ways In one view they are locked in an inevitable eternal conflict in which one must choose a side In the other they are separate spheres in which the truth claims of one have little bearing on the other This collection of provocative essays by leading thinkers offers a new way of looking at this problematic relationship The authors begin from the premise that both science and religion operate in yet seek to reach beyond specific historical political ideological and psychological contexts How may we understand science and religion as arising from yet somehow transcending human experience Among the scholars who explore this question are Bruno Latour Hilary Putnam Jeffrey Burton Russell Daniel Matt Michael Ruse Ronald Numbers Pascal Boyer and Alan Wallace The volume is divided into four sections The first takes a fresh look at the relationship between science and religion in broad terms as spheres of knowledge or belief realms of experience and sources of authority The other three sections take on topics that have been focal points of conflict between science and religion the nature of the cosmos the origin of life and the workings of the mind Ultimately the authors argue by seeing science and religion as irrevocably tied to human experience we can move beyond simple either/or definitions of reality and arrive at a more rich and complex view of both science and religion of digital technology information revolution and in the inter cultural world of global society Think of the new vocabulary Global brain collective intelligence global village and cyberspace That should tell us something about the neural rewiring that is taking place inside of our brains whether or not we are aware of it The fact that the human brain changes throughout a person s life in response to intellectual stimulation physical exercise exposure to new cultural environments learning opportunities and challenges is a revolutionary discovery Till twenty years ago neuroscientists believed in the conventional theory that the brain s ability at making new neural connections stopped before a child entered adolescence That is the old dogma There is a Second Copernican Revolution taking place inside of our brains writes the author quoting Carl Zimmer Some experts are suggesting that we are already living in what Richard Restack calls the neurosociety Ray Kurzweil the futurist is predicting that by 2045 A D human beings will be living in an era of singularity when non biological machines invented by human brains and human ingenuity are going to outsmart human intelligence billions of times What is going to be the fate of the human spirit human spirituality the feeling of connection to a force and power that is greater than us God our ability to use spiritual imagination and our intelligence Are we progressively moving away from religion and community based spirituality into the spirituality of different strokes for different folks In his groundbreaking book Spiritual Intelligence and The Neuroplastic Brain A Contextual Interpretation of Modern History Charles W Mark takes the reader on a journey through modern history and shows the glimpse of what is to come http www spirituality intelligence com Professional Spiritual & Pastoral Care Rabbi Stephen B.
