Get in the Game Tony Evans, Jonathan Evans, 2006-07-01 A competitive athlete trains for one thing: the game. Having the skills and knowing how to play aren't enough; you need to perform when it matters. Yet so many of those same athletes live in a spiritual offseason. They have faith. They know the Word. But they sit back and watch others take the lead. Get in the Game encourages athletes to transfer their drive and determination to the spiritual realm and shows that there is far more than a game on the line.

God and Football... Why Men Love the Game Patrick Greak, 2012-06-26 In football, coaches must trust their players not to make the same mistake over and over again. However, God never gives up on us, no matter how many times we make mistakes or commit sins. Remember that sinning is different from a mistake. To sin against the law of God requires intent against the law of God and the original Ten Commandments that God gave Moses. The connection between religion and sports is everywhere in our culture. Athletes and fans alike are known for praising God for all success. But beyond these public displays of religion is a spiritual connection that exists between our faith and our favorite teams. God and Football: Why Men Love the Game takes an in-depth look at this connection to show the spiritual reasoning behind our passions for the game. Playing or watching the game of football is beneficial physically and spiritually. Real-time decisions made during a game simulate decisions that will be made later in life off the field. Yet risk is involved and attached to the activity. Injuries can and do occur during games, just as spiritual injuries occur in our daily lives. While football is a fierce game, it teaches us the importance of following the rules, embracing discipline, committing to a team, and trusting in a higher power. Football helps make men better by reminding us of our mortality as well as teaching us valuable life and spiritual lessons Find out more about the connection between football and spirituality in God and Football Why Men Love the Game     Heads Up! Dave Branon, David Branon, 2000 How can you get children excited about the Bible when all they want to read about are hat tricks foul balls and rushing yards Branon hits a home run with this devotional designed for sports crazed kids ages 8-12 Filled with Christian role models Scripture and fun sports trivia Heads Up can have all star kids getting into God's game plan on a daily basis     Home Run Kevin Myers, John C. Maxwell, 2014-02-27 HOME RUN is the story of Kevin Myers a Christian leader who found himself hitting walls in his personal and professional life as the high expectations he had for a church plant spiraled into a train wreck for five years Through a season of brokenness the discovery of God's pattern for living and the mentoring of John Maxwell Kevin turned around his life and leadership God taught Kevin that he was living his life backwards He discovered a biblical pattern for living which transformed his life leadership and relationships Only then did the church start growing Now he and John are teaching others what Kevin learned so that readers can also apply the lessons and live life to the fullest as Jesus promised in John 10:10 Using a baseball diamond as an analogy for living by God's pattern Kevin teaches an idea that's simple enough to communicate to a child yet has enough depth to carry the truths to adults Each base on a baseball diamond represents God's desired pattern for life Connection with God Character Community and Competence The breakdown occurs because most people run the bases backwards In our performance based culture they run straight to third base Competence focusing on performance to the detriment of relationships character and their connection with God

And God Said, "Play Ball!" Gary Graf, 2005 Faith and Baseball have long been important factors in the life of author Gary Graf each one inspiring valuable lessons on living I keep returning to them both he says Each has taught me lessons about love loss and life Each has its own rewards and its version of universal truth I'm no theologian by any standard and I never could throw a curve ball with any precision But I do think there's a symbiotic relationship between that which was heaven sent and the game which is heaven on earth
