Studies in History, Economics, and Public Law, 1921 German-English Felix Flügel, 1904 A Critical Theory of Economic Compulsion Werner Bonefeld, 2023-03-20 This book explores a variety of interconnected themes central to contemporary Marxist theory and its further development as a critical social theory Championing the critique of political economy as a critical theory of society and rejecting Marxian economics as a contradiction in terms it argues instead that economic categories are perverted social categories before identifying the sheer unrest of life the struggle to make ends meet as the negative content of the reified system of economic objectivity With class struggle recognised as the negative category of the cold society of capitalist wealth which sees in humanity a living resource for economic progress the author contends that the critique of class society finds its rational solution in the society of human purposes that is the classless society of communist individuals A theoretically sophisticated engagement with Marxist thought A Critical Theory of Economic Compulsion will appeal to scholars of social and political theory with interests in critical theory and post capitalist imaginaries the doctrine of abrogation 2 106 given early in the Medina period This states that verses given later may nullify verses given earlier Thus many peaceful verses given in the early parts of the Koran may be nullified by the verse of the sword 9 5 given later toward the end of the prophet s life Slay the idolaters wherever you find them So far as I have been able to determine there has been no stylistic analysis of the Koran A person studying the Koran or the history of Islam will find this work most valuable
