Hard Justice No Parole:

Henry Wade's Tough Justice Edward Gray, 2010-11 Charles Chatman believed he would die in a Texas prison. He was sent there at age 21 convicted of raping a 52 year old white woman in his neighborhood and sentenced to 99 years. The victim had picked his picture out of a line up and the jury had ignored the testimony of his witnesses that he was at work when the rape occurred. His court appointed attorney made feeble efforts to defend him. He had served 27 years when Michelle Moore a public defender working with the Innocence Project of Texas arranged a DNA test which proved him innocent and District Judge John Creuzot ordered him released from prison. Richard Miles was more fortunate. After he had served 14 years of a 40 year sentence for murder, investigators for Centurion Ministries discovered police reports which had been hidden from him and his attorney Ed Gray. A new trial was ordered then the sole witness who had identified Miles recanted his testimony and claimed that he had been instructed to lie by a Dallas prosecutor. Over 250 prisoners in the U S have been exonerated in the last 20 years, some on death row and others serving long sentences. DNA testing has freed the majority, proof of false identification and misconduct by police and prosecutors the others. Dallas County with one percent of the U S population has accounted for 25 wrongful convictions, ten percent of the total. Henry Wade, Dallas County District Attorney for 32 years, ran the most aggressive and successful prosecutor's office in the country. Ed Gray, as Assistant District Attorney and criminal defense attorney, had a ringside seat to the Henry Wade era. In these pages he explains how some of the innocent were convicted. TOUGH JUSTICE is the first book which attempts to portray the career and the history of Henry Wade, the most famous prosecutor in the history of Texas and perhaps the United States. After graduating from the University of Texas Business School and Southern Methodist University School of Law, Ed Gray was a civil law firm associate when he was appointed to represent an indigent defendant in Dallas District Court in 1969. In his first trial, Ed won a Not Guilty verdict and a job offer from District Attorney Henry Wade. He was quickly promoted to Felony Court where he led the Dallas D A's office in trials and convictions for the next four years. He was lead counsel in 15 murder trials, 13 attempted murder and aggravated assault trials, 8 rape trials and 49 robbery trials resulting in sentences as high as death and 1200 years and only one Not Guilty verdict. Ed Gray has been a board certified criminal defense attorney since 1975 and has tried 525 criminal jury trials in state and federal courts.

Tough Justice Ian Dunbar, Anthony Langdon, 1998 The authors trace the developments that have led to prison overcrowding before proposing a possible solution to the problem. They compare the British approach to the way that US European countries handle these issues.

The Best of Emerge Magazine George E. Curry, Brenda L. Webber, Sylvester Monroe, Les Payne, 2009-02-19 The 1990s African Americans achieved more influence and faced more explosive issues than ever before. One word captured those times. One magazine expressed them. Emerge. In those ten years with an impressive circulation of 170 000 and more than forty national awards to its credit, Emerge became a serious part of the American mainstream. Time hailed its uncompromising voice. The Washington Post declared that Emerge gets better with each issue Then after nearly a decade Emerge magazine closed its doors Now for the first time here s a collection of the finest articles from a publication that changed the face of African American news From the Clarence Thomas nomination to the Bill Clinton impeachment from the life of Louis Farrakhan to the death of Betty Shabazz from reparations for slavery to the rise of blacks on Wall Street the most important people topics and turning points of this remarkable period are featured in incisive articles by first rate writers Emerge may have ended with the millennium but as this incomparable volume proves the quality of its coverage is still unequaled the extent of its impact still emerging Stirring tribute uncanny time capsule riveting read The Best of Emerge Magazine is also the best of American journalism "The Sentence of the Court" Simon Ernest Sobeloff,1954 Justice, Crime, and Ethics Michael C.
