Woman at Point Zero Nawal El Saadawi, 2007-06 All the men I did get to know every single man of them has filled me with but one desire to lift my hand and bring it smashing down on his face But because I am a woman I have never had the courage to lift my hand And because I am a prostitute I hid my fear under layers of make up Excerpt This is a new edition of the best selling novel with a specially commissioned new Foreword by Miriam Cooke

God Dies by the Nile Nawāl Sa'dāwī, 1985 Nawal el Saadawi's classic tale attempts to square Islam with a society in which women are respected as equals is as relevant today as ever People have become corrupt everywhere You can search in vain for Islam or a devout Muslim They no longer exist Kafr El Teen is a beautiful sleepy village on the banks of the Nile Yet at its heart it is tyrannical and corrupt The Mayor Sheikh Hamzawi of the mosque and the Chief of the Village Guard are obsessed by wealth and use and abuse the women of the village taking them as slaves marrying them and beating them Resistance it seems is futile Zakeya an ordinary villager works in the fields by the Nile and watches the world squatting in the dusty entrance to her house quietly accepting her fate It is only when her nieces fall prey to the Mayor that Zakeya becomes enraged by the injustice of her society and possessed by demons Where is the loving and peaceful God in whom Zakeya believes

Ouzgane, R. Morrell, 2005-03-15 While masculinity studies enjoys considerable growth in the West there is very little analysis of African masculinities This volume explores what it means for an African to be masculine and how male identity is shaped by cultural forces The editors believe that to tackle the important questions in Africa the many forms of violence wars genocides familial violence and crime and the AIDS pandemic it is necessary to understand how a combination of a colonial past patriarchal cultural structures and a variety of religious and knowledge systems creates masculine identities and sexualities The work done in the book particularly bears in mind how vulnerability and marginalization produce complex forms of male identity The book is interdisciplinary and is the first in depth and comprehensive study of African men as a gendered category Literary Crossroads Blessing Diala-Ogamba, Elaine Sykes, 2014-11-06 This book explores the different ways women have been liberating themselves from the shackles of patriarchy and cultural laws that inhibit their independence and freedom to show that women are also contributing meaningfully to society Women have worked to attain freedom through speaking out writing memoirs fiction plays poetry and essays The creative experiences of women are captured in this book thus fulfilling the book's aim to give women voices to air their views and show that they are effectual members of society The book examines the roles played by patriarchy religion and socioeconomic and political systems that keep women to the background It also examines the issue of education otherhood marginalization cultural imposition and the diverse positions of women in local and international affairs The book testifies that women's literature and the stories of women all over the world can be appreciated and viewed from different perspectives because of the diverse cultural environment in which women find themselves This confirms that the issue of marginalization suppression and oppression of women are on going problems in different societies around the world Arab Women Novelists Joseph T. Zeidan, J. Zaydan, 1995-01-01 This book assesses the contribution of women to the Arabic novel both in subject matter and form It begins by tracing the struggle over women s rights in the Arab world particularly the gradual improvement in women s access to education the first area in which women made significant gains Subsequent chapters discuss Arab women writers remarkable talents and determination to overcome the barriers of a male dominated culture survey the 1950s and 1960s during which women s writing gained momentum and more women writers emerged and address the shift in emphasis and attitude that women s literature underwent in the late 1960s especially following the 1967 Arab Israeli war when women novelists began to place more stress on international politics Zeidan adapts Western based feminist literary theory to a discussion of Arab women s literature but refrains from imposing that theory inappropriately on literature whose context differs significantly He compares the women s movements in Arab and Western cultures and the development of women s literature in those cultures and uses these comparisons to highlight similarities and differences between them as well as to consider how one affected the other His analysis culminates in the early 1980s the end of the formative years when women s writing had become a familiar part of Arabic literature in general and a positive reflection on the collective Arab consciousness

Swahili Beyond the Boundaries Alamin M. Mazrui, Alamin Mazrui, 2007 Africa is a marriage of cultures African and Asian Islamic and Euro Christian Nowhere is this fusion more evident than in the formation of Swahili Eastern Africa s lingua franca and its cultures Swahili Beyond the Boundaries Literature Language and Identity addresses the moving frontiers of Swahili literature under the impetus of new waves of globalization in the twentieth and twenty first centuries These momentous changes have generated much theoretical debate on several literary fronts as Swahili literature continues to undergo transformation in the mill of human creativity Swahili literature is a hybrid that is being reconfigured by a conjuncture of global and local forces As the interweaving of elements of the colonizer and the colonized this hybrid formation provides a representation of cultural difference that is said to constitute a third space blurring existing boundaries and calling into question established identitarian categorizations This cultural dialectic is clearly evident in the Swahili literary experience as it has evolved in the crucible of the politics of African cultural production However Swahili Beyond the Boundaries demonstrates that from the point of view of Swahili literature while hybridity evokes endless openness on questions of home and identity it can simultaneously put closure on specific forms of subjectivity In the process of this contestation a new synthesis may be emerging that is poised to subject Swahili literature to new kinds of challenges in the politics of identity compounded by the dynamics and counterdynamics of post Cold War globalization

Islam and Postcolonial Discourse Esra Mirze Santesso, James McClung, 2017-01-27 Largely though not exclusively as a legacy of the 2001 attack on the World Trade Center Islamic faith has become synonymous in many corners of the media and academia with violence which many believe to be its primary mode of expression The absence of a sophisticated recognition of the wide range of Islamic subjectivities within contemporary culture has created a void in which misinterpretations and hostilities thrive Responding to the growing importance of religion specifically Islam as a cultural signifier in the formation of a postcolonial self this multidisciplinary collection is organized around contested terms such as secularism Islamopolitics female identity and Islamophobia The overarching goal of the contributors is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the full range of experiences within Islam as well as the figure of the Muslim thus enabling a new set of questions about religion's role in shaping postcolonial identity

Tintinnabulation of Literary Theory Nyongesa, Andrew, 2018-09-23 There can never be literary growth in the contemporary world which is devoid of literary criticism this is the backbone of literary theory Literature is no longer a mere narration of stories and prudent literary writers know that great literature is based on theoretical frameworks which give their works an edge in the intellectual world In this book Tintinnabulation of Literary Theory Traversing Genres to Contemporary Experience Andrew Nyongesa demonstrates how five theoretical frameworks namely Marxism Feminism Postcolonialism Psychoanalysis and Stylistic are applied to genres of literature The last chapter shows how theory has moved away from the lecture hall to real life experience The book is a practical guide to university students and tutors of literature in their undying desire to embrace Literary Criticism
