The One Year Father-Daughter Devotions Jesse Florea, Leon C. Wirth, Bob Smithouser, 2012-09-21

As girls enter their tween and teen years, it's especially important for them to have an open and growing relationship with their father. Unfortunately, this is often the time when parental relationships are strained. The One Year Father-Daughter Devotions can foster communication and understanding, and it's a wonderful way for a father to bond with his daughter during a crucial point in her life. Each of the 365 devotions begins with an introductory story, then daddy-daughter time provides discussion questions, activities, or other practical applications of the daily lesson. A "What's the Word" section gives a related Bible verse to help bring God's Word alive as father and daughter apply the Scripture to their lives. Written by three fathers, the devotions have a tone that is conversational and relatable; the authors use everything from flavored potato chips to the Etch A Sketch game to share truths about God's Word and to help fathers and daughters relate to each other.

God's Gift Dorothy B. Cole, 2008-11

As the author read through the oft-repeated handwritten pages of Ione Davidson, wife of the first Pastor of South Shores Church, handed to her by the church organist Doris Swanson, she wondered: Was this church really God's Gift to those who attended or visited? This, as a reader, you will have to decide for yourself. With the Cole's family involvement in founding and two sons becoming pastors of the church, the author believed it was a worthy project. Her writing began at Los Angeles High School, where she composed programs for a literary club and an article winning first place prize for the school annual. At First Baptist in Pomona, she wrote articles for the Communicator, Prayer Corner, and high school lessons for a Sunday school class she was teaching. With her husband, Dr. Edward B. Cole, who served as the senior pastor of five churches, they ministered in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; San Diego; Pomona; First Baptist Pomona, the largest American Baptist Church; Lake Arrowhead, as pastor and Resident President of the Campus Crusade's International School of Theology; then South Shores Baptist Church in Monarch Beach, California. During five years there, a new parking lot and sanctuary were built. After retiring, he was named Pastor Emeritus. Her employment began at aircraft companies during the Second World War: Douglas Aircraft and Lockheed Aircraft and Budd Manufacturing in Philadelphia. Besides working in Graphic Arts at the California Baptist Seminary, her last position was legal secretary for William Bergman, the City Attorney of Claremont, CA. After supporting her husband through college, seminary, and doctrinal classes, she returned to college after her four children were older and in school. The author believes some of God's greatest gifts have been not only this special church but her four children, ten grandchildren, and twelve great grandchildren. God's gifts for those who love Him in return seem never ending.
