Hard Choices Security Democracy And Regionalism In Southeast Asia:

Hard Choices Donald K Emmerson, 2009 The region's most powerful organisation ASEAN is being challenged to ensure security and encourage democracy while simultaneously reinventing itself as a model of Asian regionalism Ten analysts from six countries address the pressing questions that Southeast Asia faces in the 21st century

Hard Choices Donald K Emmerson, 2003-08-01 The region's most powerful organization ASEAN is being challenged to ensure security and encourage democracy while simultaneously reinventing itself as a model of Asian regionalism Should ASEAN's leaders defend a member country's citizens against state predation for the sake of justice and risk splitting ASEAN itself Or should regional leaders privilege state security over human security for the sake of order and risk being known as a dictators club Should ASEAN isolate or tolerate the junta in Myanmar Is democracy a requisite to security or is it the other way around How can democratization become a regional project without first transforming the Association into a people-centered organization But how can ASEAN reinvent itself along such lines if its member states are not already democratic How will its new Charter affect ASEAN's ability to make these hard choices How is regionalism being challenged by transnational crime infectious disease and other border jumping threats to human security in Southeast Asia Why have regional leaders failed to stop the perennial regional haze from brush fires in democratic Indonesia Does democracy help or hinder nuclear energy security in the region In this timely book the second of a three book series focused on Asian regionalism ten analysts from six countries address these and other pressing questions that Southeast Asia faces in the twenty first century

ASEAN, Sovereignty and Intervention in Southeast Asia L. Jones, 2011-12-07 Drawing on the fields of political economy and historical sociology Jones dispels the overwhelming consensus among scholars that members of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN never interfere in the internal affairs of other states and pioneers a new approach to the understanding of regional politics in Southeast Asia

Regional Organisations and Security Stephen Aris, Andreas Wenger, 2013-10-30 This book aims to examine the conceptions and practices of security adopted by Regional Organisations ROs across the globe Since the end of the Cold War there has been an increased focus on regions as a relevant realm for security with actors within regional contexts identifying a significant degree of interdependency between one another As a consequence international security has taken on a distinct regionally institutionalised character as seen by the increase in calls for greater utilisation of Chapter VIII Regional Arrangements of the UN in order to create a devolved UN led system of global security management However the idea of a system of global security management is a remote prospect because divergence seems to be as important as commonality in terms of regional security In light of the above Regional Organisations and Security analyses the primary ROs that are active in Africa Asia Eurasia the Middle East and South America The findings of individual case studies are compiled to highlight disparities and similarities in how security is seen prioritised understood practised managed and implemented across regions On this basis the authors reach conclusions about whether we live in an increasingly globalised or regionally distinct world and go on to assess the prospects for a globalised system of security management and consider how this might be developed and organised This book will be of interest to students of comparative regionalism international organisations international security and IR Human Rights and Participatory Politics in Southeast Asia Catherine Renshaw, 2019-02-18 In Human Rights and Participatory Politics in Southeast Asia Catherine Renshaw recounts an extraordinary period of human rights institution building in Southeast Asia She begins her account in 2007 when the ten members of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN signed the ASEAN charter committing members for the first time to principles of human rights democracy and the rule of law In 2009 the ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights was established with a mandate to uphold internationally recognized human rights standards In 2013 the ASEAN Human Rights Declaration was adopted as a framework for human rights cooperation in the region and a mechanism for ASEAN community building Renshaw explains why these developments emerged when they did and assesses the impact of these institutions in the first decade of their existence In her examination of ASEAN Renshaw asks how human rights can be implemented in and between states that are politically diverse Vietnam and Laos are Communist Brunei Darussalam is an Islamic sultanate Myanmar is in transition from a military dictatorship the Philippines and Indonesia are established multiparty democracies while the remaining members are less easily defined Renshaw cautions that ASEAN is limited in its ability to shape the practices of its members because it lacks a preponderance of democratic states However she concludes that in the absence of a global legalized human rights order the most significant practical advancements in the promotion of human rights have emerged from regional institutions such as the ASEAN

Human Security Benny Teh Cheng Guan, 2012-01-02 Human security is becoming increasingly pronounced in recent years due to changes in the security landscape of world politics Yet inter state relations have continued to dominate security concerns in East Asia This has unfortunately eluded the broader understanding of issues and challenges facing the peoples of East Asia Home to nations with rapid economic growth and development East Asia is at the core of what some individuals have termed as the coming Asian Century Years of economic liberalization and exposure to globalization have permitted the region to achieve high levels of interconnectedness from within and without in unprecedented ways This has certainly reduced state control and opened up spaces for cross border human activities While economic wealth have increased substantially over the years it has also brought about bigger income disparities unsustainable safety nets and a surge in social problems from health issues to migratory concerns that threaten the safety and well being of individuals Human Security Securing East Asia's Future timely examines the fundamental issues causing human insecurities and evaluates the extent of which human security plays a role at the state and regional levels Covering the different areas of threats to humans and applying case study materials this volume provides an intellectual mix of perspectives that captures the relationship between people state and region This book will be of interest to those studying traditional and non traditional security threats Asian human development and critical policy analysis      Dictionary of the Modern Politics of Southeast Asia Joseph Chinyong Liow, 2014-11-20 The past two decades since the end of the Cold War have been years of remarkable change and transformation for Southeast Asia Long seen as an arena for superpower rivalry Southeast Asia is increasingly coming into its own by locating itself at the forefront of regional integration initiatives that involve not only the Association of Southeast Asian Nations but major external powers such as the United States China India Japan and Australia as well At the same time the past two decades has seen the revival of old animosities as well as the emergence of new security challenges confronting the region Old animosities include unresolved territorial disputes while new challenges range from regional and global financial crises terrorism and pandemics Significant changes within the ten Southeast Asian countries covered in this book have also transpired that have affected not only the complexion of domestic politics but have also impacted regional diplomacy as well such as the creation of potentially the eleventh Southeast Asian country Timor Leste Extensively updated and revised in light of these changes and developments this fourth edition of Dictionary of the Modern Politics of Southeast Asia contains profiles of each Southeast Asian country Following this it provides more than 450 alphabetically arranged individual entries providing detailed accounts and analyses on major episodes and treaties political parties and institutions civil society movements and regional and international organizations Biographies of significant political leaders and personalities both past and present are also provided Entries are comprehensively cross referenced and an index by country directs readers to all entries concerning a particular country The Dictionary also includes an extensive bibliography that serves as a guide to further reading It is an essential reference tool for all scholars and students of Asian politics and international affairs and a vital resource for journalists diplomats policy makers and others with an interest in the region

Regional Approaches to the Protection of Asylum Seekers Ademola Abass, 2016-04-08 This book presents a comprehensive assessment of regional responses to the crisis in the asylum refugee system and critically examines how different regions tackle the problem The chapters consider the fundamental challenges which undermine an effective asylum process as well as regional difficulties with the various circumstances surrounding asylum seekers With contributions on Africa Europe Latin America South Asia and the Middle East and the Pacific the collection strives to appreciate what informs each region's approach to the asylum process and asks if there are issues common to every region and if regions can learn from one another The book seeks an understanding of the existing legal regime for the protection of asylum seekers and how regional institutions such as human rights commissions and regional courts enforce and adjudicate the law The volume will be valuable to those interested in international law migration and human rights      Negotiating Peace Renée

Jeffery, 2021-03-18 A study of how and why amnesties for human rights violations remain a prevalent feature of peace processes in Asia      Legal Perspectives on Security Institutions Hitoshi Nasu, Kim Rubenstein, 2015-07-24 Due to the continuing expansion of the notion of security various national regional and international institutions now find themselves

addressing contemporary security issues While institutions may evolve by adjusting themselves to new challenges they can also fundamentally alter the intricate balance between security and current legal frameworks This volume explores the tensions that occur when institutions address contemporary security threats in both public and international law contexts As part of the Connecting International with Public Law series it provides important and valuable insights into the legal issues and perspectives which surround the institutional responses to contemporary security challenges It is essential reading for scholars practitioners and policy makers seeking to understand the legal significance of security institutions and the implications of their evolution on the rule of law and legitimacy

Engaging the neighbours Frank Frost, 2016-07-08 From modest beginnings in 1967 the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN has become the premier regional institution in Southeast Asia The 10 members are pursuing cooperation to develop the ASEAN Community and also sponsor wider dialogues that involve the major powers Australia has been interested in ASEAN since its inauguration and was the first country to establish a multilateral link with the Association in 1974 Australia and ASEAN have subsequently engaged and cooperated on many issues of mutual concern including efforts to secure an agreement to resolve the Cambodia conflict signed in 1991 the initiation of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation grouping 1989 and the ASEAN Regional Forum 1994 the conclusion of the ASEAN Australia New Zealand Free Trade Agreement signed in 2008 and the development of the East Asia Summit from 2005 This book provides the first available detailed history of the evolution of Australia's interactions with ASEAN It assesses the origins and phases of development of Australia's relations with ASEAN the role ASEAN has played in Australian foreign policy since the 1970s the ways in which the two sides have collaborated and at times disagreed in the pursuit of regional stability and security and the key factors that will influence the relationship as it moves into its fifth decade

Human Rights in the Asia-Pacific Region Hitoshi Nasu, Ben Saul, 2011-05-23 The Asia Pacific region is known for having one of the least developed institutional mechanisms for protecting human rights This edited collection makes a timely and distinctive contribution to contemporary debates about strengthening the institutional protection of human rights in the Asia Pacific region in the wake of ASEAN's announcement in 2009 of an ASEAN regional human rights mechanism. Drawing together leading scholarly voices including Surya Deva, V. T. Thamilmaran, Tom Zwart and Catherine Renshaw, the book focuses on the systemic issue of institutionalizing human rights protection in the Asia Pacific. It critically examines the prospects for deepening and widening the institutionalization of human rights monitoring in the region, challenging the orthodox scepticism about whether Asia is ready for stronger institutions. The volume analyses the impediments to institutions whilst questioning the need for them.

Proceeding Jakarta Geopolitical Forum V / 2021 Prof. Dr. Ir. Bondan Tiara Sofyan, M.Si. dkk, 2021-10-21 Jakarta
Geopolitical Forum V 2021 JGF V 2021 organized by Lemhannas RI National Resilience Institute of the Republic of Indonesia on 21-22 October 2021. The forum is held annually and aimed to explore the implementation of critical thinking and the development of new ideas and strategic thinking which are the annual routine agenda of the Deputy for Strategic Studies of Lemhannas RI based on its main tasks and functions. Today's global civilization is evolving to determine its identity and is rapidly reaching a tipping point that will decide whether it will lead to a new or divided civilization. The vulnerability of mankind is a significant threat to the development of civilization in the future. An increasingly interconnected global civilization will emerge as a result of the interwoven culture of nations around the world and vice versa. The question that needs attention is whether Indonesia is able to adapt to the changes in existing civilizations or we can prevent various unexpected civilization possibilities in the future as well as the capability of Indonesia to bridge the gap between civilizations. Based on that, the theme of JGF V 2021 is Culture and Civilization: Humanity at the Crossroads. The objectives to be achieved in organizing JGF V 2021 are to understand the form of future civilization, especially the socio-culture structure of the world's humans, to find out how far the culture and civilization of a nation is maintained in the midst of changes that occur, the mindset to adapt to the new civilization environment, and knowing the extent of the correlation between the influence and change of civilization conveyed by world geopolitical experts from various countries.

3rd ASEAN Reader Ooi Kee Beng, Sanchita Basu Das, Terence Chong, Malcolm Cook, Cassey Lee and Michael Yeo Chai Ming, 2016-04-29. Over the past two decades, ISEAS has compiled abridged articles that analyse key aspects of Southeast Asia's development and the ASEAN process. The ASEAN Reader was published in 1992 just as the Cold War ended, while The Second ASEAN Reader came in 2003 in the wake of the 1997 Asian crisis and the September 11 attacks in 2001. The past decade has not been spared its share of intense changes with the rise of China and India bringing new challenges to the region's power equation and the impact of the 2008 global financial crisis. Despite this, the momentum towards an integrated ASEAN community has been maintained. The articles in The Third ASEAN Reader study the trends and events of recent years and discuss the immediate future of Southeast Asia.

The Limits of Alignment John D. Ciorciari, 2010-08-16 The Limits of Alignment is an engaging and accessible study that explores how small states and middle powers of Southeast Asia ensure their security in a world where they are overshadowed by greater powers John D Ciorciari challenges a central concept in international relations theory that states respond to insecurity by either balancing against their principal foes bandwagoning with them or declaring themselves neutral Instead he shows that developing countries prefer limited alignments that steer between strict neutrality and formal alliances to obtain the fruits of security cooperation without the perils of undue dependency Ciorciari also shows how structural and normative shifts following the end of the Cold War and the advent of U S primacy have increased the prevalence of limited alignments in the developing world and that these can often place constraints on U S foreign policy Finally he discusses how limited alignments in the developing world may affect the future course of international security as China and other rising powers gather influence on the world stage

The ASEAN Regional Security Partnership Angela Pennisi di Floristella, 2015-08-25 ASEAN s role as a security provider remains largely a matter of scholarly debate Through the lens of the concept of regional security partnership this book uncovers a more nuanced understanding of ASEAN capacity highlighting both its merits and fragilities in coping with traditional and emerging security problems

EU-ASEAN Relations in the 21st Century D. Novotny, C. Portela, 2012-10-17 Escaping the economic and security centered approaches prevalent in contemporary U S debate the contributors explore political relations between the European Union EU and Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN Their inter disciplinary perspectives touch on domains such as security comparative integration human rights energy
