Harriet Beecher Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin Elizabeth Ammons, 2007 General for the Series The Casebooks in Criticism introduce readers to the essential criticism on landmark works of literature and film For each volume a distinguished scholar who is an authority on the text has collected the most elucidating and distinctive scholarly essays on that work and added key supporting materials Each volume includes a substantial introduction which considers the key features of the work describes its publication history and contextualizes its cultural import and contemporary reputation while also surveying the major approaches which have informed the work's critical history A condensed bibliography offers suggestions for further reading The compact volumes provide a critical survey and suggest provocative ways to engage with their texts They are ideally suited to those interested in developing a deeper understanding of a work's history and significance Specific for this book Most of the best criticism on Stowe's landmark novel is fairly recent Until the combined impact of the civil rights and women's movements changed the focus of the academic curriculum Uncle Tom's Cabin seldom appeared in classrooms or as the subject of published scholarship However from the mid 1970 forward the book has been widely written about and taught Today Uncle Tom's Cabin is a stable important part of the nineteenth century American literature canon and has generated a rich body of new critical work This casebook collects the best of the new scholarship as well as the most influential older essays Included in this volume are letters by Harriet Beecher Stowe and articles by James Baldwin Leslie Fiedler Jane Tompkins Gillian Brown Robert Stepto and Elizabeth Ammons

Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature Modern Humanities Research Association, 2007 Includes both books and articles

Thomas Mann's The Magic Mountain Hans Rudolf Vietgen, 2008 This collection seeks to illustrate the ways in which Thomas Mann's 1924 novel The Magic Mountain has been newly construed by some of today's most astute readers in the field of Mann studies The essays many of which were written expressly for this volume comment on some of the familiar and inescapable topics of Magic Mountain scholarship including the questions of genre and ideology the philosophy of time and the ominous subjects of disease and medical practice Moreover this volume offers fresh approaches to the novel's underlying notions of masculinity to its embodiment of the cultural code of anti-Semitism and to its precarious relationship to the rival media of photography cinema and recorded sound
